

Margaret Allyn Is Married

At a quiet ceremony Friday morning at the First Presbyterian church Margaret Allyn and Bruce F. Pickett exchanged their marriage vows. Dr. Chester W. Hamblin performed the 10:30 o'clock rites. Witnesses were Mrs. James B. Haley and Mrs. Herman Lafky. For her wedding the bride chose a white and green gown with a dress with full skirt, white straw hat with green trim and white accessories. Pinned to her dress was a corsage of gardenias. The couple was unattended.

Immediately after the ceremony the newlyweds left for a motor trip south to California, Nevada and Arizona. They will make their home at Lake Grove on Lake Oswego after July 1.

The bride, who formerly made her home in Salem, is well known in radio circles throughout the northwest. She had her own program "Hello Again" over KALE in Portland for many years and the past year in Salem with station KOCO. Mr. Pickett is state supervisor of personnel relations for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. with headquarters in Portland.

Visitors and Travelers Are Many

It is hard to keep up with the many visitors and travelers going to and from the city daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Murphy have returned from a week's stay at Sun Valley, Idaho, where Mr. Murphy, state real estate commissioner, spoke at the Idaho real estate convention. They were registered at Challenger Inn and the convention sessions were held in the Opera House. They made the trip by train, stopping in Spokane enroute home. The Murphys' son, Kenneth, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gump of Spokane, will motor to Portland today to attend the Rose Festival parade.

Guests at Shepards'

A guest at the Floyd Shepard home this week has been his cousin, Miss Margaret Alexander of Minneapolis. Weekend guests at the Shepard home will be Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hancock and twins, Corinne and Christine, of Portland, formerly of Salem. Mr. Hancock will receive his degree at Willamette university on Sunday and following the commencement Mr. and Mrs. Shepard and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Beck will entertain with a supper party in the garden of their North Summer street home for the Hancocks. Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander (Helen Shepard) will be up from Eugene for the occasion. The Alexanders will be living at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house during the summer while attending the University of Oregon.

Here from South

Miss Marilyn Logan of Oakland, Calif., a senior at Mills college, is visiting in the capital with her father, William. Ready and is a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Ready.

Dr. and Mrs. James Hawthorth have as their house guest for several days her sister-in-law, Mrs. Herbert VanZante and son Dirk, of San Francisco.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jochimsen on Thursday were her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Mary Murray and children Anne and Tommy of Roy, Wash. They were enroute north from a stay in Camel.

The Misses Lena Vandiver, Roberta O'Neill and Donna Love are leaving Sunday by car for a two weeks' sojourn in San Francisco, where they will be house guests of two friends, Miss Rose and Miss Janet Davidson.

Salem Man To Marry

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Betty Bjornstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern O. Bjornstrom of Astoria, and Dudley P. Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Hansen of Salem, which will be an event of Saturday, June 19 in Astoria.

The rites will be performed at the Norwegian Lutheran church at 8 o'clock with the Rev. V. Louis Livingston, rector of Grace Episcopal church in Astoria, officiating.

Miss Dorothy Bjornstrom will be her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaid will be Mrs. John Berquist and Miss Betty Carlson. Staff Sergeant Donald C. Hansen will come up from Castle Field, Merced, Calif. to be his twin brother's best man. Ushers will be Louis Faulkner and Frank Bjornstrom of Seattle. A reception will follow in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansen will go to Astoria for their son's marriage.

The Kensington club was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Hudkins on North Summer street. A desert luncheon was followed by an informal afternoon. Mrs. Charles Strickfaden was the assisting hostess. Additional guests were Mrs. Robert Hartzel, Mrs. E. E. Gilbert and Mrs. Ernest Hobbs. Bowls of roses provided the decorative note.

Miss June Bradbury A Bride

On Friday night at eight o'clock Miss June Bradbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis M. Bradbury, was married to Frank B. Pummel of Portland, son of Mrs. B. B. Pummel. The wedding was held at the Englewood United Brethren church with the Rev. Lloyd Uecker officiating.

The double ring ceremony was solemnized in a setting of candle light and baskets of white peonies, delphinium and yellow gladioluses and snapdragons. White satin bows and red roses marked the center aisle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk marquisette over taffeta with fitted bodice, long sleeves that puffed above the elbows with soft fullness. The skirt was bouffant and ended in a court train. The fingertip veil of illusion was caught with a silver beaded coronet and was edged with a wide band of lace. She carried an arm bouquet of Chase Beauty red roses.

Miss Edith Fairham was soloist and Mrs. A. C. Friesen was the accompanist.

Miss Max N. Graves, the honor attendant and sister of the bride, wore a orchid gown of georgette, fashioned with heart shaped bodice and bouffant skirt. She wore matching mitts and her head dress was of orchid net and yellow Joanna roses. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of yellow Joanna roses with yellow satin ribbon.

High Noon Ceremony

At a high noon ceremony at St. Paul's Episcopal church today Miss Beatrice Ellen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Smith of Salem, will become the bride of George H. Donnelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keys Donnelly of Service Creek, Oregon. The Rev. George H. Swift will perform the rites and Miss Ruth Benford will be the organist. Soloist will be Mrs. Jennie Warren.

Clinton Smith will give his twin sister in marriage. For her wedding she has chosen an aqua gabardine suit with white horsehair braid hat and white accessories. She will carry a prayer book marked with white tangerine.

Miss Carole Smith of San Diego flew north to be her sister's only attendant. She will wear a chocolate brown suit with alligator accessories, brown hat and will carry a corsage of cymbidium orchids. Rudolph W. Donnelly will be his brother's best man and ushers are Carl Schmidt and Kenneth Smith.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Smith will wear a blue and pink silk print frock with black accessories and corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Donnelly will attend her son's marriage in a navy blue gown with gold accessories and pink rosebud corsage.

A reception will follow at the parish house. Mrs. Harry Wechter of North Bend will cut the cake and Mrs. Lottie Chaffee will preside at the coffee urn. Assisting will be Mrs. Clinton E. Smith, Mrs. Theresa Annum and Carolyn Sue Wechter, who will pass the guest book.

For going away the bride will pin a corsage of gold cymbidium orchids to her suit. After a trip to scenic points in Oregon the couple will be at home on his ranch on the Rogue river at Service Creek.

The bride is a graduate of Salem schools and is a senior at Oregon State college. She plans to complete her education in the fall. Mr. Donnelly attended schools in Wheeler and served in the merchant marine during the war.

Betrothal Is Told
