

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

Soon to move to The Dalles will be Mrs. Stanley Krueger, who will be accompanied by her husband and daughter Beverly, who will be a senior high school student in the fall. Mr. Krueger has taken over the Callaway and Sons Mortuary in The Dalles. He was formerly a mortician at the Oregon State hospital. Both have been active in civic, fraternal and social affairs in the capital. (Kennell-Ellis).

Newcomers in the capital are Mrs. Gordon Gilmore and son, James, who recently moved here from Medford. Their daughter, Jo Anne, who is completing her freshman year at Pomona college, will join her family here later in the month. Mrs. Gilmore is a sister of Silas Gaiser and her husband is the new Boy Scout executive of the Cascade area council. (Kennell-Ellis).

Au revoirs were said the past week to Mrs. Leslie F. Remington and children Buddy and Joyanne, who with Mr. Remington, are now at home in Grants Pass, where he has purchased a jewelry store. The Remingtons have been living in Manbrin Gardens. They were feted at many farewell parties prior to their departure. (Kennell-Ellis).

Parties for Visitors . . .

Several informal parties are being arranged in compliment to Dr. and Mrs. Robert Tschudy, formerly of Salem and Willamette university faculty members, who are here visiting from Venezuela as guests of Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist.

This morning Mr. and Mrs. Howard Maple are entertaining with a breakfast at their Fairmount Hill home for the Tschudys. Monday Dr. and Mrs. Tschudy and the Geists will go over to the coast for a several days stay.

Thursday night Dr. and Mrs. R. Ivan Lovell will be hosts at dinner at their country place on Croisan Creek for the visitors. Covers will be placed for Dr. and Mrs. Tschudy, Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding and the Lovells.

The Geists entertained at dinner for the Tschudys on Friday night at their West Leffelle street home.

Visitors in Salem for several weeks are Donald Wells (Marie Ann Newman) and seven months old son, Steven, of Modesto, Calif., who are guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lester Newman. They will also visit in Independence with Mr. Wells' parents before returning south. (Kennell-Ellis).

Vacationists Leave on Trips . . .

Travelers continue to highlight the social news during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling and daughters, Sara Ann and Alice Louise, have an interesting trip east planned. They are leaving here June 24 for Vancor, Maine, for a visit with Mrs. Ohling's aunt, Miss Alice Brown. They will also sojourn at other Maine resorts along the coast. Mr. Ohling will return in a month and Mrs. Ohling and her daughters, who don't expect to come west until the end of August, will travel in the east and up to Montreal and Quebec.

Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine and children, Billy and Becky, are entraining for Winona, Minn., on Wednesday for a two months visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Raymond.

Miss Marion Morange is leaving later in the month for Middlebury, Vermont to continue work on her thesis for her doctor's degree at Middlebury college. She will return in the fall to resume her position on the Willamette university faculty.

Mrs. D. D. Oimstead will entrain for Detroit, Michigan Monday for a six weeks visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wulfe. She will journey west by way of Los Angeles and other southern points.

Vacation At Neskowin

Mrs. Wayne Hadley and her children, Eileen and Allan and her sister, Miss Mary Lou McKay, will leave today to spend a week at the beach home of their parents, Sen. and Mrs. Douglas McKay, at Neskowin.

Also leaving for Neskowin today for a fortnight's sojourn are Mrs. William C. Dyer, jr. and children, Connell and Marilyn, and Mr. Claybourne W. Dyer and children, Shannon and Claybourne, who will occupy the beach house of Mrs. Frank Spears. Joining them for part of the time will be their husbands and Mrs. Gertrude Walton of Portland and Mrs. Harry Burnside.

Judges Are Selected . . .

Judges for the Spinster table setting contest on June 19 at the Marion hotel have been announced by the chairman, Miss Edith Moxley. Judges will be Judge George Rossman, Mrs. James T. Brand and Mrs. Ercel W. Kay. Tables for the contest must be ready for judging by noon. The tables will be on exhibit for the public to view between 2 and 9 o'clock.

Those wishing to enter tables may still do so by calling Miss Patricia Vandeneinde. Additional reservations for exhibits have been made by Miss Bery Holt, Mrs. William Shinn, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Joseph Devens, jr., Pi Beta Phi alumnae and Salem General hospital auxiliary.

Summer Travelers, Attend Conventions

By Jeryme English
Society Editor, Oregon Statesman

Seemingly there are more travelers and summer vacationists than ever this year. A number of coeds are leaving in the next week or two to attend national sorority conventions.

A group of Willamette university girls leaving June 16 for Swampscott, Mass., to attend the Delta Gamma jubilee convention at New Orleans headed by Miss Aldene Gould, Nancy Strother, Betty Leonard, Polly Pollock and Janice Smith. Mrs. Leon Perry, president of the Sigma alumnae group, will also be a delegate to the convention. She will fly east on June 20 to attend the week long session from June 22-28. Mrs. Perry will visit her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bingham in Lawrence, Mass., and go up into Maine on a trip with them following the convention. In Maplewood, New Jersey she will visit another uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Marston. Before returning west in a month Mrs. Perry will visit college friends in Omaha and Lincoln, Nebraska.

To Pi Beta Phi Convention

The Pi Beta Phi convention at French Lick Springs, Indiana will attract a number of Salem people. Delegates from the Willamette university chapter will be Miss Edith Fairham and Miss Maxine Meyers, Miss Nancy Buren, also of Salem, will be a delegate from the Oregon State Pi Phi chapter; Mrs. G. Herbert Smith and daughter, Sally, will also attend.

President and Mrs. Smith and Sally will leave June 22 for Indiana, stopping at Sun Valley, where Dr. Smith will speak at the Kappa Kappa Gamma convention. Dr. Smith will also be a guest speaker at the Pi Beta Phi convention. After the sessions, June 27-July 3, Mrs. Smith will go on to Gatlinburg, Tenn., to attend the board meeting of the Pi Phi Settlement school. She will then go to Nashville, Indiana to visit her mother, Mrs. H. H. Brooks. Dr. Smith will return west in early July and on August 1 Sally Smith leaves for Shelby, Mich., to attend the American Youth Foundation summer camp. She will return west the first of September via Burlingame and Berkeley to visit Mrs. Smith will arrive home again on August 1. The Smith's youngest daughter, Margie, will leave by plane June 21 for summer camp at Four Winds and will fly as far north as Everett, to be the overnight guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Harrison, who formerly lived here, then proceed on to camp.

Also Convention Bound

Also attending the appa Kappa Gamma convention will be Miss Mary Lou McKay, president of the Oregon State college chapter, and Miss Shirley Lukins, president of the house on the University of Oregon campus. They will leave by train on June 22 to attend the week's session, returning July 1.

Ginny Atkinson will be the delegate from the Willamette Chi Omega chapter to attend the convention at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia with headquarters at the Greenbrier hotel from June 28 to July 3.

Georgia Gilbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilbert of Aumsville and president of Alpha Delta Pi sorority at Oregon State college, has been named as official delegate of the sorority to its international convention which will take place in Spring Lake, New Jersey, June 23-28. Accompanying Miss Gilbert will be Miss Beverly Tynan of Portland. In addition to attending the convention sessions, the girls will participate in the New York house party which Alpha Delta Pi is arranging following convention. They will then journey south through Washington, D. C., St. Louis and New Orleans.

To Sail For Hawaii

Mrs. Lester C. McLeod, her daughter, Miss Irene McLeod, and her sister, Mrs. Edgar W. Smith of Portland, are leaving Monday by train for San Francisco, where they will sail on June 16 for the Hawaiian Islands on the S. S. Lurline. The travelers expect to be away over a month and will visit with friends in Honolulu and tour the islands of Oahu and Hawaii. Before coming home they will stop in Berkeley for a visit with Mrs. McLeod's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George McLeod.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, Jr., Miss Marianne Bonesteel and Dick Hendrie are leaving today for a several weeks trip to Yellowstone. They will visit in Montana enroute home.

Pictured in her white satin bridal gown is Mrs. Stanley Charles Schofield, who was Joyce Irene Giesy before her marriage on June 4 at the First Congregational church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank George and the groom's mother is Mrs. Beatrice Schofield. The couple will live in Salem. (McEwan photo).

Three of the Spinsters, Mrs. Vernon Dye, Miss Helen Zielinski and Miss Edith Moxley, are pictured setting a preview table for the annual Spinster table setting contest to be an event of June 19 at the Marion hotel. Any individual or organization may enter the contest and the public is invited to view the tables between 2 and 9 o'clock. Miss Moxley is general chairman of the affair. (Kennell-Ellis).