MOVING NOTES

The Ralph Nohlgrens and children will be moving this week to their new pre-fabricated 6-room home on Salem Heights avenue, which borders the property of Ralph's parents, the A. H. Nohlgrens. They have sold their South High street home to the A. D. Fromans, newcomers in the capital.

Jack and Dorothy Hay were moving the past week and are now settled in their newly purchased home on B street.

Also moving soon will be the James Pikes and their sons, Dick and Doug. Jim has been transferred to Toppensish, Wash., by the California Packing Co. and leaves July 1. Until they find living accommodations his family will vacation at Nesko-win.

ON THE SANTIAM. If one can't find the P. D. Quisenberrys at home any more it's because they are sojourning at their new cabin on the Santiam. The large one room cabin with fireplace both inside and out on the covered terrace. Also a barbecue pit. So rain or shine they can be out on their terrace.

which overlooks the Little North Fork. . . . even swimming and horseshoe facilities. . . . Others. . . . on the Little North Fork are the A. A. Schramms, Bruce Spauldings and up further the O. K. DeWitts, who reside there the year round. . . . and a grand new place just completed by the Charles A. Spragues. . . . windows clear to the ceiling overlooking the river and even a falls across the way. . . . an open fireplace, two bedrooms down and up a balcony with two more. . . . and a veranda around two sides of the house. . . . and beyond a few yards from the Spragues the Melvin Geists have leased property and hope to build a summer place next year.

JUNIOR-SENIOR prom always a highlight of the year for the high school students. "Flamingo" was the theme of the dance this year. . . . seemingly flamingos everywhere one turned. . . . Dean Mabel Robertson attending her last official school function and many students telling her good-bye. . . . Retiring from school duties she hopes now to find time to travel and do all the things that have been pushed aside for so many years. . . . Dancing by. . . . The Barnes sisters. . . . Sue in a mist blue marquisette frock dotted in silver and gold. . . .
