

Miss Stella McKay Is Married

Details have reached the capital of the wedding of a former Salem girl, Miss Stella McKay, daughter of Mrs. Stanley McKay of Salem, to Edward J. Leahy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leahy of Cohoes, N.Y. The couple exchanged their vows on Monday, June 14 at St. Mary's church in Albany, N.Y., with the Rev. J. Peronne officiating.

For her wedding the bride chose a white dressmaker suit with matching accessories and corsage of white orchids.

Miss Edward Morris was the maid of honor and wore a rose suit and bridesmaid was Miss Constance McKay, formerly of Salem and San Francisco, sister of the bride, who wore a powder blue suit. Their corsages were of white gladioluses and pink roses. Edward Morris stood with the groom as best man.

Mrs. McKay went east for her daughter's nuptials and wore a navy blue ensemble with corsage of mauve gladioluses and white roses. Mrs. Leahy wore an aqua suit and corsage of Tullman roses for her son's marriage.

A wedding breakfast was held at the Wellington hotel in Albany following the rites.

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon to the New England states and Canada, the bride donned a navy blue suit with pink accessories. Mr. Leahy and his bride will make their home in Albany, N.Y.

Couple Will Wed in East

Invitations have been received in the capital by Salem friends of the couple to the wedding of Miss Jessie Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ellis of Marietta, Ohio, to William F. Barton, son of Mrs. Harold J. Larson of Portland. The nuptials will take place on June 25 at St. Luke's Episcopal church in Marietta at 8 o'clock with a reception following at the Ellis home.

The bride-elect attended Salem high school and Oregon State college, where she was a Kappa Alpha Theta. Her fiancé is a nephew of Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson and Mrs. W. G. Burris of Salem. He is a senior at Oregon State college and a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. The couple will live in Corvallis while he attends Oregon State.

The newlyweds will come west on their honeymoon and will be honored at a reception on July 1 in Portland where Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Larson entertain for her son and his bride.

Organ Recital Is Thursday

Emmaline Joan Bair, organ pupil of William Fawk, will be presented in recital at the First Evangelical United Brethren church at 8 o'clock Thursday night. Assisting will be Germond Lamkin, violinist, and Bernice Kleihege, mezzo soprano.

The public is invited. The program is as follows: Sonata, Ich Stene Mit Eriem, Fuss im Grabe, Bach; Air from Water Music, Mandel; Introduction and Choral from Suite Gothique, Bellman; Liebestraud, Kreisler; Legende de Ballet, Wienawski; Scenes de Mas Lamkin, Beriot; The Gentle Maiden, Newton; Old Irish Air, Sibellus; Prayer, Miss Bair; Der Tod Das Madchen, Schubert; Wonder As I Wander, Niles; I'm in Through Penn, Edson; What's in the Air Today? Miss Kleihege; Meditation, St. Clair; At Eventide, Harris; Arioso, Miss Bair, Handel.

Mrs. Harry U. Miller has left for the Metolus river, where she will spend the summer with her family at their country place.

Former Queen Is Married

STAYTON — Miss Joyce McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christ McDonald of Mehama, and Harold Longfellow, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Longfellow of West Stayton, were married Saturday, May 29, at Vancouver, Wash., with Miss Arlene Kirsch and Bud Barkmeyer, as attendants.

For her marriage, the bride chose a dress of yellow with white accessories. Miss Kirsch wore a blue dress and her accessories were of white.

The bride is a graduate of Stayton high school and was last year's Santiam Bean Festival queen. The groom served three years in the Pacific during the war. The couple will make their home in Mehama.

Parties For Visitors

The many visitors in the capital are being entertained at informal affairs during the week.

Mrs. Herbert Rahe and Mrs. Charles H. Johnson were hosts for an informal tea Monday afternoon at the former's North Winter street home in compliment to Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney of Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. Frank Erickson and her daughter, Dr. Mary Erickson of Santa Barbara, Calif. Mrs. Doney accompanied Dr. Doney west for the Willamette university commencement at which he was the speaker. Dr. Erickson came north with his wife and daughter for the commencement festivities and to visit with the Doney.

A group of faculty wives, who belonged to the same sewing group when Mrs. Doney and Mrs. Erickson were here, were bidden to the informal affair. The visitors are also being feted at numerous dinner and luncheons during their stay here this week.

Halls Are Visitors
General and Mrs. Elmer Hall, en route from Washington, D.C., to San Diego, Calif., were luncheon guests at the country home of the Hollis Huntingtons on Tuesday. General Hall, who served with the U.S. Marines before his retirement, has been with the Red Cross in Washington for the past six months. The Halls are on their way to visit Col. and Mrs. George Dutton in San Diego, formerly of Salem.

Jean Fidler to Convention
Miss Jean Fidler, daughter of the Mervin Fidlers, will be among the Delta Delta Delta sorority girls attending the annual convention June 24-29 at Banff Springs in the Canadian Rockies.

Three other coeds attending from the University of Oregon, Miss Beth Basler, president, Portland, Miss Joan Rambo, Portland, and Miss Sara Bjorset, Cottage Grove, will arrive in Salem next weekend to spend several days at the home of Miss Fidler prior to flying north to Vancouver, B. C., on June 23. At Vancouver all convention delegates will board the special Tri-Delt train for Banff. Convention sessions will be at the Banff Springs hotel.

Women's Council of the First Christian church will entertain with a welfare luncheon at noon on Thursday at the church with a business meeting at 1 p.m. and program at 2 p.m. Teachers of the Bible school will be honored and special guests will be teachers of the vacation Bible school. Mrs. B. F. Schmoker and Mrs. Roy Lockenour will speak on "Our Children in Mission."

Organ Recital
Emmaline Joan Bair, organ pupil of William Fawk, will be presented in recital at the First Evangelical United Brethren church at 8 o'clock Thursday night. Assisting will be Germond Lamkin, violinist, and Bernice Kleihege, mezzo soprano.

Public is invited. The program is as follows: Sonata, Ich Stene Mit Eriem, Fuss im Grabe, Bach; Air from Water Music, Mandel; Introduction and Choral from Suite Gothique, Bellman; Liebestraud, Kreisler; Legende de Ballet, Wienawski; Scenes de Mas Lamkin, Beriot; The Gentle Maiden, Newton; Old Irish Air, Sibellus; Prayer, Miss Bair; Der Tod Das Madchen, Schubert; Wonder As I Wander, Niles; I'm in Through Penn, Edson; What's in the Air Today? Miss Kleihege; Meditation, St. Clair; At Eventide, Harris; Arioso, Miss Bair, Handel.

Mrs. Harry U. Miller has left for the Metolus river, where she will spend the summer with her family at their country place.

Women's Council of the First Christian church will entertain with a welfare luncheon at noon on Thursday at the church with a business meeting at 1 p.m. and program at 2 p.m. Teachers of the Bible school will be honored and special guests will be teachers of the vacation Bible school. Mrs. B. F. Schmoker and Mrs. Roy Lockenour will speak on "Our Children in Mission."

Organ Recital
Emmaline Joan Bair, organ pupil of William Fawk, will be presented in recital at the First Evangelical United Brethren church at 8 o'clock Thursday night. Assisting will be Germond Lamkin, violinist, and Bernice Kleihege, mezzo soprano.

Public is invited. The program is as follows: Sonata, Ich Stene Mit Eriem, Fuss im Grabe, Bach; Air from Water Music, Mandel; Introduction and Choral from Suite Gothique, Bellman; Liebestraud, Kreisler; Legende de Ballet, Wienawski; Scenes de Mas Lamkin, Beriot; The Gentle Maiden, Newton; Old Irish Air, Sibellus; Prayer, Miss Bair; Der Tod Das Madchen, Schubert; Wonder As I Wander, Niles; I'm in Through Penn, Edson; What's in the Air Today? Miss Kleihege; Meditation, St. Clair; At Eventide, Harris; Arioso, Miss Bair, Handel.

Mrs. Harry U. Miller has left for the Metolus river, where she will spend the summer with her family at their country place.

Women's Council of the First Christian church will entertain with a welfare luncheon at noon on Thursday at the church with a business meeting at 1 p.m. and program at 2 p.m. Teachers of the Bible school will be honored and special guests will be teachers of the vacation Bible school. Mrs. B. F. Schmoker and Mrs. Roy Lockenour will speak on "Our Children in Mission."

Organ Recital
Emmaline Joan Bair, organ pupil of William Fawk, will be presented in recital at the First Evangelical United Brethren church at 8 o'clock Thursday night. Assisting will be Germond Lamkin, violinist, and Bernice Kleihege, mezzo soprano.

Public is invited. The program is as follows: Sonata, Ich Stene Mit Eriem, Fuss im Grabe, Bach; Air from Water Music, Mandel; Introduction and Choral from Suite Gothique, Bellman; Liebestraud, Kreisler; Legende de Ballet, Wienawski; Scenes de Mas Lamkin, Beriot; The Gentle Maiden, Newton; Old Irish Air, Sibellus; Prayer, Miss Bair; Der Tod Das Madchen, Schubert; Wonder As I Wander, Niles; I'm in Through Penn, Edson; What's in the Air Today? Miss Kleihege; Meditation, St. Clair; At Eventide, Harris; Arioso, Miss Bair, Handel.

Mrs. Harry U. Miller has left for the Metolus river, where she will spend the summer with her family at their country place.

Women's Council of the First Christian church will entertain with a welfare luncheon at noon on Thursday at the church with a business meeting at 1 p.m. and program at 2 p.m. Teachers of the Bible school will be honored and special guests will be teachers of the vacation Bible school. Mrs. B. F. Schmoker and Mrs. Roy Lockenour will speak on "Our Children in Mission."

Organ Recital
Emmaline Joan Bair, organ pupil of William Fawk, will be presented in recital at the First Evangelical United Brethren church at 8 o'clock Thursday night. Assisting will be Germond Lamkin, violinist, and Bernice Kleihege, mezzo soprano.

Public is invited. The program is as follows: Sonata, Ich Stene Mit Eriem, Fuss im Grabe, Bach; Air from Water Music, Mandel; Introduction and Choral from Suite Gothique, Bellman; Liebestraud, Kreisler; Legende de Ballet, Wienawski; Scenes de Mas Lamkin, Beriot; The Gentle Maiden, Newton; Old Irish Air, Sibellus; Prayer, Miss Bair; Der Tod Das Madchen, Schubert; Wonder As I Wander, Niles; I'm in Through Penn, Edson; What's in the Air Today? Miss Kleihege; Meditation, St. Clair; At Eventide, Harris; Arioso, Miss Bair, Handel.

Mrs. Harry U. Miller has left for the Metolus river, where she will spend the summer with her family at their country place.

Women's Council of the First Christian church will entertain with a welfare luncheon at noon on Thursday at the church with a business meeting at 1 p.m. and program at 2 p.m. Teachers of the Bible school will be honored and special guests will be teachers of the vacation Bible school. Mrs. B. F. Schmoker and Mrs. Roy Lockenour will speak on "Our Children in Mission."

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

New Babies Welcomed

Several new citizens are being welcomed in the capital this week. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Everitt (Betty Viesko) are receiving felicitations on the birth of an eight-pound son, John Frederick, on Monday at the Salem General hospital. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Viesko and Mr. and Mrs. John Everitt of Springfield, Mo. The great-grandmother is Mrs. Bertha Viesko of Salem.

To Mr. and Mrs. Hillary Etzel (Irene Bering) go congratulations on the birth of a son, Mark Hillary, on Tuesday at the Salem Memorial hospital. The little boy, who weighed six pounds, 14 ounces, is the grandson of Michael Etzel of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bering of Mt. Angel. The Etzels moved on Saturday to their new home at 1491 Lancaster drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mink are the parents of a seven-pound, 12 ounce daughter, Marcia Jean, born on Tuesday afternoon at the Salem Memorial hospital. The little girl has an older brother, Roger. The baby's grandparents are Mr. George W. Moore and Mrs. Margaret Mink, both of Salem.

Miss Cornutt to Head Alumnae

Miss Fave Cornutt of Portland was elected president of the Oregon Gamma Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi at the annual commencement breakfast held Sunday morning at the Marion hotel. Officers elected to serve with Miss Cornutt for the ensuing year are Miss Georgia Hull, Salem, vice president; Mrs. Robert Bailey, Salem, secretary; and Mrs. Hugh McGilvray, Forest Grove, treasurer.

Honor guests at the breakfast were the graduating seniors of Pi Beta Phi at the Willamette campus including Misses Kay Karpnopp, Geraldine Schmoker, Frances Sopp, Miriam Oakes, Winona Dillard, Bettie Olson, Sara Ann Ohling, Virginia Wyche, Mary Phyllis Gerth, Beverly Briggs and Muriel Oliver.

Mrs. George Montgomery, Portland, is the retiring president and presided at the meeting. Speakers were Miss Maxine Meyers, house president; and Miss Dolores Bauer, treasurer. Over 40 were present for the affair.

Rites Performed By Dr. Gatke

The marriage of Miss Margaret Smith of Portland and Charles Warren, son of Edward J. Warren of Santa Cruz, Calif., was quietly solemnized on Saturday, June 12 at the Turner Methodist church with Dr. Robert M. Gatke officiating. The groom is a nephew of Dr. and Mrs. Gatke and his father came north for the rites.

For her wedding the bride wore a white suit and hat and carried a white Bible marked with streamers of kalmia.

A reception for the bridal couple followed at the home of Mrs. Frederick Eley on North 15th street.

The bride is a graduate of Oregon State college and her husband will continue with his studies at Oregon State in the fall.

Delegates Named To Encampment

Mrs. Ivell Haley, president, presided at the regular business meeting of the Marion auxiliary 661 to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Monday at the Veterans hall. Committee reports were given by Mrs. Mel Clemens, finance; Mrs. Walter Beck, hospital; Mrs. Mae Wilder, membership; Mrs. Claude Briggs, poppy chairman; Mrs. Ralph Harlan, rehabilitation; Mrs. Roy Simpson, Americanism; Mrs. Charles Hagan, women's council; and Mrs. Clarence Forbis, legislative.

Mrs. Arwin Strayer was appointed service officer for the encampment. A large flag was presented by the Americanism chairman, Mrs. Roy Simpson, to a group of Camp Fire girls.

Delegates elected to the National Veterans of Foreign Wars encampment were Mrs. James Beall, Mrs. Leon Hansen, Mrs. Ivell Haley and Mrs. Mae Wilder. Alternates were Mrs. Virgil Bolton, Mrs. Claude Briggs, Mrs. Covell Case and Mrs. Charles Hagan.

A donation was contributed to the department for rehabilitation work and also a contribution was made to the Women's Church council to help in caring for the children at the airport camp during the summer months.

Those attending the state encampment at Pendleton this week are Mrs. Ivell Haley, Mrs. Mae Wilder, Mrs. Virgil Bolton, Mrs. Arwin Strayer, Mrs. Leon Hansen, Mrs. Russell Nudd, Mrs. Robert DeLapp and Mrs. Mel Clemens.

Mrs. Clarence Forbis and Mrs. Bobbie Beals were appointed to serve on the refreshment committee for the next meeting, June 28.

While Cross meetings of the Florence Vail Missionary society of the Calvary Baptist church will be held Friday at 10 a.m. with no-host luncheons at noon. Circle 1 will meet with Mrs. L. C. Thompson, 405 Wayne drive; circle 3 with Mrs. D. R. Peterson, route 9, box 392. Circle 2 meeting has been postponed until June 25 at the home of Mrs. Alta Hanson, 1912 Hazel ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McWain and daughter, Judith, of Portland spent the weekend in the capital with his mother, Mrs. Homer E. McWain. They were here for the Willamette university commencement festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McWain and daughter, Judith, of Portland spent the weekend in the capital with his mother, Mrs. Homer E. McWain. They were here for the Willamette university commencement festivities.

Hostesses to Fete Clubs

Mrs. Bingham Powell has invited members of her bridge club to her beach place at Neskowin today. Luncheon will be served at noon by the hostess with cards in play following.

Motoring to Neskowin for the day will be Mesdames Ralph Nohlgren, Edwin McEwen, Andrew Halvorson, Robert Powell, Kenneth Gallagher, Wayne Dobson, Roland Nohlgren and John Taylor.

Mrs. Harold O. Schneider and Mrs. Paul S. Wolfe will be hostesses for an informal party Friday night at the former's home in Morningside in compliment to Mrs. Lewis Clark.

Guests have been bidden to a desert supper with several hours of bridge to follow. A shower will fete Mrs. Clark during the evening. The hostesses will use bouquets of summer garden flowers for decorating.

Honoring Mrs. Clark will be Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. Maynard Shiffer, Mrs. Horace McGee, Mrs. Robert Wulf, Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mrs. Gerald Wing, Mrs. Charles Feike, Mrs. Virgil Sexton, Mrs. William Lidbeck, Mrs. Eugene Tupker, Mrs. Tom Dunham and the hostesses.

Shower For Mrs. Clark

Mrs. Harold O. Schneider and Mrs. Paul S. Wolfe will be hostesses for an informal party Friday night at the former's home in Morningside in compliment to Mrs. Lewis Clark.

Guests have been bidden to a desert supper with several hours of bridge to follow. A shower will fete Mrs. Clark during the evening. The hostesses will use bouquets of summer garden flowers for decorating.

Honoring Mrs. Clark will be Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. Maynard Shiffer, Mrs. Horace McGee, Mrs. Robert Wulf, Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mrs. Gerald Wing, Mrs. Charles Feike, Mrs. Virgil Sexton, Mrs. William Lidbeck, Mrs. Eugene Tupker, Mrs. Tom Dunham and the hostesses.

Alice Rossiter Is Married

Mrs. Eugene E. Maschal announces the marriage of her daughter, Alice Rossiter, widow of the late J. T. Rossiter, to Albert V. Simons, son of George Simons of Lebanon, at 6 o'clock on the evening of June 10 in the fireplace room of the First Congregational church. Dr. Seth Huntington officiated at the ceremony before a small gathering of friends and relatives.

Lorene Rossiter, daughter of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and George Simons, II, son of the groom, was best man. Following the ceremony, wedding dinner was held at the Golden Pheasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Simons have gone on a short trip, after which they will spend the remainder of the summer at the lookout on Monument peak. They will be at home in Lebanon after the middle of September. Mr. Simons is a teacher in the junior high school at Lebanon.

Former Queen Is Married

STAYTON — Miss Joyce McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christ McDonald of Mehama, and Harold Longfellow, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Longfellow of West Stayton, were married Saturday, May 29, at Vancouver, Wash., with Miss Arlene Kirsch and Bud Barkmeyer, as attendants.

For her marriage, the bride chose a dress of yellow with white accessories. Miss Kirsch wore a blue dress and her accessories were of white.

The bride is a graduate of Stayton high school and was last year's Santiam Bean Festival queen. The groom served three years in the Pacific during the war. The couple will make their home in Mehama.

Parties For Visitors

The many visitors in the capital are being entertained at informal affairs during the week.

Mrs. Herbert Rahe and Mrs. Charles H. Johnson were hosts for an informal tea Monday afternoon at the former's North Winter street home in compliment to Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney of Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. Frank Erickson and her daughter, Dr. Mary Erickson of Santa Barbara, Calif. Mrs. Doney accompanied Dr. Doney west for the Willamette university commencement at which he was the speaker. Dr. Erickson came north with his wife and daughter for the commencement festivities and to visit with the Doney.

A group of faculty wives, who belonged to the same sewing group when Mrs. Doney and Mrs. Erickson were here, were bidden to the informal affair. The visitors are also being feted at numerous dinner and luncheons during their stay here this week.

Halls Are Visitors
General and Mrs. Elmer Hall, en route from Washington, D.C., to San Diego, Calif., were luncheon guests at the country home of the Hollis Huntingtons on Tuesday. General Hall, who served with the U.S. Marines before his retirement, has been with the Red Cross in Washington for the past six months. The Halls are on their way to visit Col. and Mrs. George Dutton in San Diego, formerly of Salem.

Jean Fidler to Convention
Miss Jean Fidler, daughter of the Mervin Fidlers, will be among the Delta Delta Delta sorority girls attending the annual convention June 24-29 at Banff Springs in the Canadian Rockies.

Three other coeds attending from the University of Oregon, Miss Beth Basler, president, Portland, Miss Joan Rambo, Portland, and Miss Sara Bjorset, Cottage Grove, will arrive in Salem next weekend to spend several days at the home of Miss Fidler prior to flying north to Vancouver, B. C., on June 23. At Vancouver all convention delegates will board the special Tri-Delt train for Banff. Convention sessions will be at the Banff Springs hotel.

Women's Council of the First Christian church will entertain with a welfare luncheon at noon on Thursday at the church with a business meeting at 1 p.m. and program at 2 p.m. Teachers of the Bible school will be honored and special guests will be teachers of the vacation Bible school. Mrs. B. F. Schmoker and Mrs. Roy Lockenour will speak on "Our Children in Mission."

Organ Recital
Emmaline Joan Bair, organ pupil of William Fawk, will be presented in recital at the First Evangelical United Brethren church at 8 o'clock Thursday night. Assisting will be Germond Lamkin, violinist, and Bernice Kleihege, mezzo soprano.

Public is invited. The program is as follows: Sonata, Ich Stene Mit Eriem, Fuss im Grabe, Bach; Air from Water Music, Mandel; Introduction and Choral from Suite Gothique, Bellman; Liebestraud, Kreisler; Legende de Ballet, Wienawski; Scenes de Mas Lamkin, Beriot; The Gentle Maiden, Newton; Old Irish Air, Sibellus; Prayer, Miss Bair; Der Tod Das Madchen, Schubert; Wonder As I Wander, Niles; I'm in Through Penn, Edson; What's in the Air Today? Miss Kleihege; Meditation, St. Clair; At Eventide, Harris; Arioso, Miss Bair, Handel.

Mrs. Harry U. Miller has left for the Metolus river, where she will spend the summer with her family at their country place.

Women's Council of the First Christian church will entertain with a welfare luncheon at noon on Thursday at the church with a business meeting at 1 p.m. and program at 2 p.m. Teachers of the Bible school will be honored and special guests will be teachers of the vacation Bible school. Mrs. B. F. Schmoker and Mrs. Roy Lockenour will speak on "Our Children in Mission."

Organ Recital
Emmaline Joan Bair, organ pupil of William Fawk, will be presented in recital at the First Evangelical United Brethren church at 8 o'clock Thursday night. Assisting will be Germond Lamkin, violinist, and Bernice Kleihege, mezzo soprano.

Public is invited. The program is as follows: Sonata, Ich Stene Mit Eriem, Fuss im Grabe, Bach; Air from Water Music, Mandel; Introduction and Choral from Suite Gothique, Bellman; Liebestraud, Kreisler; Legende de Ballet, Wienawski; Scenes de Mas Lamkin, Beriot; The Gentle Maiden, Newton; Old Irish Air, Sibellus; Prayer, Miss Bair; Der Tod Das Madchen, Schubert; Wonder As I Wander, Niles; I'm in Through Penn, Edson; What's in the Air Today? Miss Kleihege; Meditation, St. Clair; At Eventide, Harris; Arioso, Miss Bair, Handel.

Mrs. Harry U. Miller has left for the Metolus river, where she will spend the summer with her family at their country place.

Women's Council of the First Christian church will entertain with a welfare luncheon at noon on Thursday at the church with a business meeting at 1 p.m. and program at 2 p.m. Teachers of the Bible school will be honored and special guests will be teachers of the vacation Bible school. Mrs. B. F. Schmoker and Mrs. Roy Lockenour will speak on "Our Children in Mission."

Organ Recital
Emmaline Joan Bair, organ pupil of William Fawk, will be presented in recital at the First Evangelical United Brethren church at 8 o'clock Thursday night. Assisting will be Germond Lamkin, violinist, and Bernice Kleihege, mezzo soprano.

Public is invited. The program is as follows: Sonata, Ich Stene Mit Eriem, Fuss im Grabe, Bach; Air from Water Music, Mandel; Introduction and Choral from Suite Gothique, Bellman; Liebestraud, Kreisler; Legende de Ballet, Wienawski; Scenes de Mas Lamkin, Beriot; The Gentle Maiden, Newton; Old Irish Air, Sibellus; Prayer, Miss Bair; Der Tod Das Madchen, Schubert; Wonder As I Wander, Niles; I'm in Through Penn, Edson; What's in the Air Today? Miss Kleihege; Meditation, St. Clair; At Eventide, Harris; Arioso, Miss Bair, Handel.

Mrs. Harry U. Miller has left for the Metolus river, where she will spend the summer with her family at their country place.

Women's Council of the First Christian church will entertain with a welfare luncheon at noon on Thursday at the church with a business meeting at 1 p.m. and program at 2 p.m. Teachers of the Bible school will be honored and special guests will be teachers of the vacation Bible school. Mrs. B. F. Schmoker and Mrs. Roy Lockenour will speak on "Our Children in Mission."

Organ Recital
Emmaline Joan Bair, organ pupil of William Fawk, will be presented in recital at the First Evangelical United Brethren church at 8 o'clock Thursday night. Assisting will be Germond Lamkin, violinist, and Bernice Kleihege, mezzo soprano.

Public is invited. The program is as follows: Sonata, Ich Stene Mit Eriem, Fuss im Grabe, Bach; Air from Water Music, Mandel; Introduction and Choral from Suite Gothique, Bellman; Liebestraud, Kreisler; Legende de Ballet, Wienawski; Scenes de Mas Lamkin, Beriot; The Gentle Maiden, Newton; Old Irish Air, Sibellus; Prayer, Miss Bair; Der Tod Das Madchen, Schubert; Wonder As I Wander, Niles; I'm in Through Penn, Edson; What's in the Air Today? Miss Kleihege; Meditation, St. Clair; At Eventide, Harris; Arioso, Miss Bair, Handel.

Hostesses to Fete Clubs

Mrs. Bingham Powell has invited members of her bridge club to her beach place at Neskowin today. Luncheon will be served at noon by the hostess with cards in play following.

Motoring to Neskowin for the day will be Mesdames Ralph Nohlgren, Edwin McEwen, Andrew Halvorson, Robert Powell, Kenneth Gallagher, Wayne Dobson, Roland Nohlgren and John Taylor.

Mrs. Harold O. Schneider and Mrs. Paul S. Wolfe will be hostesses for an informal party Friday night at the former's home in Morningside in compliment to Mrs. Lewis Clark.

Guests have been bidden to a desert supper with several hours of bridge to follow. A shower will fete Mrs. Clark during the evening. The hostesses will use bouquets of summer garden flowers for decorating.

Honoring Mrs. Clark will be Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. Maynard Shiffer, Mrs. Horace McGee, Mrs. Robert Wulf, Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mrs. Gerald Wing, Mrs. Charles Feike, Mrs. Virgil Sexton, Mrs. William Lidbeck, Mrs. Eugene Tupker, Mrs. Tom Dunham and the hostesses.

Alice Rossiter Is Married

Mrs. Eugene E. Maschal announces the marriage of her daughter, Alice Rossiter, widow of the late J. T. Rossiter, to Albert V. Simons, son of George Simons of Lebanon, at 6 o'clock on the evening of June 10 in the fireplace room of the First Congregational church. Dr. Seth Huntington officiated at the ceremony before a small gathering of friends and relatives.

Lorene Rossiter, daughter of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and George Simons, II, son of the groom, was best man. Following the ceremony, wedding dinner was held at the Golden Pheasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Simons have gone on a short trip, after which they will spend the remainder of the summer at the lookout on Monument peak. They will be at home in Lebanon after the middle of September. Mr. Simons is a teacher in the junior high school at Lebanon.

Salem Junior Woman's club members will entertain with their annual picnic on Monday, June 21 at the W. W. Chadwick ranch. The group will meet at the clubhouse at 6:30 p.m. The committee includes Mrs. Allen Knight, chairman, Mesdames Phil Brownell, Jack Strickland, Wesley Goodrich, Fred C. Gast and J. Garth Wilkinson.

Install Officers At Zonta Meeting

Salem Zonta club met Thursday night at the home of Miss Eleanor Trindle with Mrs. Christian Lachelle and Miss Bertha Kohlhausen as assisting hostesses.

Mrs. I. N. Bacon was installed as the president for the coming year and two new members, Mrs. Harry Miller and Mrs. Walter Musgrave, were initiated.

Mrs. Paul Reidy and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidy.

Visiting in the capital are Mrs. Louis B. Hodak (Honora Reidy) and daughter, Kathy, of Detroit, Mich., who are guests of her brothers and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidy.

Hostesses to Fete Clubs

Mrs. Bingham Powell has invited members of her bridge club to her beach place at Neskowin today. Luncheon will be served at noon by the hostess with cards in play following.

Motoring to Neskowin for the day will be Mesdames Ralph Nohlgren, Edwin McEwen, Andrew Halvorson, Robert Powell, Kenneth Gallagher, Wayne Dobson, Roland Nohlgren and John Taylor.

Mrs. Harold O. Schneider and Mrs. Paul S. Wolfe will be hostesses for an informal party Friday night at the former's home in Morningside in compliment to Mrs. Lewis Clark.

Guests have been bidden to a desert supper with several hours of bridge to follow. A shower will fete Mrs. Clark during the evening. The hostesses will use bouquets of summer garden flowers for decorating.

Honoring Mrs. Clark will be Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. Maynard Shiffer, Mrs. Horace McGee, Mrs. Robert Wulf, Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mrs. Gerald Wing, Mrs. Charles Feike, Mrs. Virgil Sexton, Mrs. William Lidbeck, Mrs. Eugene Tupker, Mrs. Tom Dunham and the hostesses.

Alice Rossiter Is Married

Mrs. Eugene E. Maschal announces the marriage of her daughter, Alice Rossiter, widow of the late J. T. Rossiter, to Albert V. Simons, son of George Simons of Lebanon, at 6 o'clock on the evening of June 10 in the fireplace room of the First Congregational church. Dr. Seth Huntington officiated at the ceremony before a small gathering of friends and relatives.

Lorene Rossiter, daughter of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and George Simons, II, son of the groom, was best man. Following the ceremony, wedding dinner was held at the Golden Pheasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Simons have gone on a short trip, after which they will spend the remainder of the summer at the lookout on Monument peak. They will be at home in Lebanon after the middle of September. Mr. Simons is a teacher in the junior high school at Lebanon.

Salem Junior Woman's club members will entertain with their annual picnic on Monday, June 21 at the W. W. Chadwick ranch. The group will meet at the clubhouse at 6:30 p.m. The committee includes Mrs. Allen Knight, chairman, Mesdames Phil Brownell, Jack Strickland, Wesley Goodrich, Fred C. Gast and J. Garth Wilkinson.

Visiting in the capital are Mrs. Louis