Rain Cancels Midget Races

The stands were rapidly filling up and Les Anderson, just home from his Indianapolis classic try, managed to get in the only time trial of the night when rain intervened and washed out the midget racing program at Hollywood Bowl last night. Anderson was the only one of the 22 drivers on hand who had a chance to tour the track.

There were 22 cars on hand for the meet, three from Seattle, Also, Bob Gregg, extrimely disappointed, was primed to crack the record. He has been working all week on his No. 25 Smith Special, and other drivers also expressed outright disappointment, as they too had been sprucing up their pet buzz buggies for last night's run.

Promoter Jimmy Ryan will install another meet next Saturday night.

Junior Loops Wait 'Go'

Salem's annual Junior Baseball leagues, three of same this year, finally get into 1948 play this week, with games booked for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, the regular days the circuits will operate each week. On Tuesday, starting at six o'clock, it will be the "C" league in action on two fronts. The Four Corners entry goes against Midget Market at Olinger field and the Keizer Kats try Master Bread at Leslie. On Wednesday, also at six o'clock, the Class "A" leaguers set forth with the Shrock Motors playing Mayflower Milk at Olinger and the Eagles Lodgers vieing with Valley Motors at Leslie. Class "B" action Thursday sends the defending champion Four Corners crew against Yeater Appliance at Olinger. Salem Realtors against Keizer, also at Olinger, and Salem Sand and Gravel against Elfstrom's at Leslie. In the "C" division the Walling Sand and Gravels draw a first round bye.

Wyatt, Olsen Jinx Busters Locals Fall Short With Late Rallies

By Al Lightner The town Senators busted loose for a satchel full of runs at Waters park last night, but whatever it is that has the whammy on 'em is still in command today. Despite tallying nine times and collecting 13 assorted base hits, the Senators went down, 10 to 9, to the Bremerton Bluejackets. "Evil Eye" Fleegle couldn't do a worse job on our men, it seems, and they have now lost 10 of their last 12 outings.

Rain fell throughout last night's mix, and may wash out tonight's doubleheader finale. If it doesn't, it will be Lefty Kenny Wyatt and Big Jim Olsen to the for for the Wilson flock in a full-fledged effort to put a stop to the jinx.

The first game starts at 6:30 o'clock. Manager Allan Strange will counter with his ace lefty. Lloyd Hittle, in one of the tilts. The sparse gathering of 673 had little to shout about, other than at the Solons, for most of the mix as the enemy jumped out in front 5-0 in the third and then made it 9-1 in the sixth.
