State Politicos to See Conclave; Hall Hears Filibuster

WASHINGTON, June 19 - (P) Anderson telephoned to his wile Now Gov. John H. Hall of Oregon knows about the filibuster.

He was the guest of Senator Cordon (R-Ore) in the senate last night while Senator Taylor (D-Idaho) held the floor in an attempt to block the draft bill. The governor also was on the senate floor with Cordon again today. The Oregon senator will move Monday that Hall be admitted to practice before the supreme court. Later the two will go to the Republican National convention at Philadelphia. Sen. and Mrs. Morse and their two daughters also will attend the convention.
