

Miss Gwenn Rust to Marry

Exchanging marriage vows at an afternoon ceremony today will be Miss Gwenn Rust and Keith Morris. The wedding will take place at the First Presbyterian church with Dr. Chester W. Hamblin officiating at the 2 o'clock rites. It will be an all white wedding, except for the pastel flowers at the altar, as the bride and her attendants will be in white gowns. Miss Grace Ashford will be the soloist and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs the organist. Just before the bridal party enters Miss Patricia Ray and Miss Barbara Hendrickson in white tulle taffeta dresses, will light the candles.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rust, will be given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown is of white tulle fashioned with a high neckline, buttons down the front of the bodice and long pointed sleeves. The full, gathered skirt is enhanced with a panel in back of tiered ruffles cascading from waistline to the end of the train. A Juliet cap, wreathed with bouvardia across the top, will hold in place her fingertip length illusion veil. She will carry a cascade bouquet of white sweetpeas, bouvardia combined with maline and centered with a white orchid.

The Bridal Party

Preceding the bride to the altar will be Miss Barbara King, the honor maid, Miss Joanne Adolph and Miss Wanda Hathaway, bridesmaids. The latter two will wear white tulle taffeta frocks made with bertha collars, low necklines, full skirts with a bow at the nipline and one shoulder. The honor attendant's dress is also of tulle and is made with paniers and boat shaped neckline. The girls will all wear mating matts and crowns of ruffled net and flowers in their hair. Their cascade bouquets will be of rubrum lilies and pink gladioli.

Daryl Jones will serve as best man for the benedict, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Morris. Ushers will be Carroll Mason, Ernest Miller, James R. Phillips and Evan Boase.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Rust has chosen an aqua shadow print dress with white accessories and corsage of spray orchids. Mrs. Morris will attend the rites in a pink dress with gold and brown accessories, pink hat with brown veiling and velvet ribbon trim. Her flowers will be spray orchids.

The reception will be held in the church parlors. Miss Luella Campbell will pour and assisting will be the Misses Donna Lawrence, Marilyn Hill, Joan Bixhall, Nancy Rust, Joyce Smith, Mrs. James Erickson and Mrs. Harry Loveall, Jr. Miss Robert E. Jones will cut the cake.

The couple will motor south to California, stopping in San Francisco and Los Angeles on their wedding trip. After traveling the bride will wear a pink tulle suit with white accessories and orchid corsage. On their return they will be at home at 919 S. 13th street.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service circles, of the Jason Lee Methodist church, will meet on Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. for desert luncheons at the following homes—January-July circle, Mrs. Robert Klemple, 3215 Center st. February-August circle, Mrs. Ina Thornquist, 1370 N. 15th st. March-September circle, Mrs. C. M. Roberts, 815 Shipping. April-October circle, Mrs. Elva Duncan, 1060 Norway. May and June circles will have no meetings this month.

Legion Post Honors Members

The American Legion Post Number 149 held a social dinner meeting at the new American Legion hall June 17 at 6:30. The dinner was given honoring Miss Grace Marck, laboratory technician at memorial hospital, who is leaving for a similar post at Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Mrs. Julius Guintoni, a member of the Salem veteran's administration, who is transferring to Klamath Falls and Miss Fernie Jones, who is returning after a year of study at Cleveland. Miss Jones has accepted a position as anesthetist at the Salem General hospital.

Speakers were Mrs. Harriett Belcher, Miss Ann Raffael, all of Post Number 149, and Mrs. Lois Price of Portland.

Miss Nell Knittel reported on the post library book project for the boy's training school at Woodburn.

Sisters Wed Brothers

At a double ceremony Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Joseph's Catholic church two sisters, Miss Arlene and Miss Maxine Widowsky, daughters of Mrs. Robert Kyle and Paul Widowsky of Saginaw, Mich., became the brides of two brothers, Bruce F. Weisner and Henry J. Weisner, respectively, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weisner, all of Salem. Father Louis Rodakowski performed the double ceremonies. Miss Lorraine Binkler was the soloist and Wayne Meusey the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by their fathers, wore identical gowns of white satin embellished with lace trim in front and lace edging the trains, fitted bodices and sweetheart necklines. Their fingertip veils fell from crowns adorned with a star. Their only ornament was a double strand pearl necklace. Yellow roses formed their bridal bouquets.

Mrs. Frank Logan was honor attendant for Miss Arlene and wore blue taffeta. Miss Theresa Mullins was maid of honor for Miss Maxine and she wore pink taffeta. The brides wore dresses similar with bustles and full skirts. Their bouquets were of sweetpeas. Joyce Weisner was the flower girl.

Paul Widowsky, Jr. was best man for Bruce Weisner and Larry Weisner stood with Harry Weisner as best man. Ushers were Charles Straw and Frank Logan. Mrs. Kyle wore a blue suit with grey accessories and corsage of red roses for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Weisner chose a pink dress with white accessories and corsage of yellow roses for the marriage of her sons.

The two couples greeted their guests at a reception in the Mayflower hall. Mrs. Alfred Mundt poured and Mrs. David O'Hara cut the cake.

The new Mrs. Bruce Weisner wore a pearl grey suit with red accessories and orchid corsage for going away. They will be at home in Salem at 1135 N. 13th street. Mrs. Henry Weisner wore a beige suit with black accessories and corsage of orchids for traveling. Their new address will be 1130 Madison street. The two couples will spend their honeymoons along the Oregon coast.

Salem Junior Woman's club members will hold their annual picnic Monday night at the W. W. Chadwick ranch. Club members will meet at the clubhouse at 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. Allen Knight is in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Rites Read At Church

The Rev. Dudley Strain performed the 8 o'clock ceremony at the First Christian church Saturday night which united in marriage Miss Betty Lockhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman C. Lockhart, and Charles Lauderdale, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale of Jennings Lodge. Peter Larson was the soloist and Lois Plummer Schimdt the organist. Candlelighters were Marybelle Morrison and Phil Hoffman of Portland.

Mr. Lockhart gave his daughter in marriage and her bridal gown, which she designed and made herself, was of white satin combined with lace insertion and ruffling on the bodice. The full skirt ended in a train and the sleeves were long. Her fingertip veil was caught to a wreath of mock orange blossoms and she carried a white bible marked with a white orchid.

Miss Patricia Lockhart was the maid of honor and wore blue brocade taffeta. Bridesmaids were Miss Caroline Lockhart and Miss Lee Lauderdale, who wore pink and yellow brocade taffeta frocks. They all carried colonial nosegays of roses. Joan White of Jennings Lodge, in yellow, was flower girl and Danny Harris was ring bearer.

Larry Lauderdale was his brother's best man and ushers were Rudolph Lockhart, Robert Lauderdale and Robert Lockhart. Mrs. Lockhart wore a green flowered print and the groom's mother chose blue velvet for the wedding. Their corsages were of roses.

At the reception in the church parlors Miss Mary Zinger cut the cake and assisting were Misses Charlotte Johnson, Lucille Heesacker, Jonita Lorentzen and Mary Massee.

The newlyweds have gone east on their honeymoon and for the summer will be at home in Detroit, Mich., where he will be engaged in the steel industry. In the fall Mr. Lauderdale and his bride will return west and will live in Corvallis, where both are juniors at Oregon State college. For traveling the bride wore a brown tweed suit with white accessories and orchid corsage.

PEDEE — Margaret Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Berry, Valselt, and Raymond V. Bush, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Bush, Tillamook, all former residents, were married June 13 at the Trinity Lutheran church, Dallas. They will reside in Tillamook where he is in business.
