Visitors in Capital

A number of out-of-town guests are arriving in the capital this weekend for the marriage of Miss Joan Beakey and Roger Schnell on Saturday night at St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Mrs. Roger Mything of Seattle, who formerly resided in Salem, will arrive in the capital by plane Saturday for the nuptials.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Vexley and son, Ronald, of Astoria will be up for the wedding of the former's niece. The bride-elect's other uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd S. Arnold, and cousin, Miss Barbara Jean Arnold of Ephrata, Wash., are here for the rites.

Here from South
Mrs. John B. Lynch (Margaret Nelson) and daughter, Catherine, of San Francisco, are visiting in Salem for several weeks as guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Nelson.

Mrs. James W. Anthony of Lynbrook, New York left by plane Sunday for the east following a five weeks visit in Salem with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Windsor. Miss Julie West flew down from her home in Seattle for a several days visit with Mrs. Lynbrook prior to her departure.

Birthday Party For Mrs. Clark
The home of Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott was the scene of a party Wednesday, when 45 of the neighbors of Woodcraft gathered to honor Mrs. Pauline Clark on her birthday. A no-host supper was served.

A large birthday cake honored Mrs. Clark and Reid Shelton led the group. The evening was spent in singing and cards.

Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Henderson and their daughter, Dona, returned home from a vacation trip. They visited Yellowstone park, Sun Valley and Craters of the Moon. While in Wyoming they were registered at the Square-G Dude-Ranch at the foot of the Grand Teton mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Meyer have returned from a week's stay in Seattle.

Painting Classes Being Formed

Inspiration for new interest in the painting classes at Willamette university art department is Carl Hall, nationally recognized artist who is instructor there. Hall gained special note when an article and several color photos of him and his work appeared in Life magazine. He is currently exhibiting in the annual summer show of American Painters of note in Chicago.

Hall is teaching two courses in painting and design in WU summer school. Several all day sketching trips to the mountains and seacoast are being planned during the summer. Techniques will be studied in the studio.

In the design class the students are working in pattern, textiles, furniture design, landscape, and interiors design. Textiles are being printed and original problems being worked out.

Registration for these art courses will be open through Monday.

Scotts Mills Rites Of Interest

At the Scotts Mills Friends church on June 20, Miss Barbara Magee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Magee of route 1, Silverton, and John W. Hays of Newberg, exchanged marriage vows.

The bride, who wore a gown of white satin with sweetheart neckline and train and a finger tip veil which fell from a seed - pearl trimmed coronet, was given in marriage by her father. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

The Rev. Calvin Hull performed the ceremony. Barbara Jean and Jack Snow of Portland, were organists. Barbara Jean and Oscar N. Brown of Salem, were soloists. Lighting the candles were Gale Johnson of Monmouth, and Jessie Wakefield of Newberg.

In identical pink frocks were the matron of honor, Mrs. Verlyn Thomsberry of Longview, Wash., and the bridesmaid, Imogene Hays of Newberg.

William Hays was best man for his brother, and ushers were Maurice Magee, Silverton, and George Gerrick, Newberg.

A feature of the reception following the ceremony was a surprise wedding cake and presents for the bride's parents, who were celebrating their silver wedding anniversary. Aunts of the bride, Mrs. Mary Nicholson, Silverton, Mrs. Ivan Smith, Scotts Mills, Mrs. Lowell Hirtzel, Bend, and Mrs. Oscar N. Brown, Salem, presided at the reception, assisted by Jerald and Harold Magee, brothers of the bride and Mrs. Rex Nicholson.

The groom graduated in May from Linfield college and the bride has been teaching at the Scotts Mills school. After a week's trip to the Oregon beaches they will make their home at Newberg.

Mrs. Earl Burch entertained members of her bridge club at her state street home Wednesday night. A dessert supper preceded several hours of cards. Mrs. Carl W. Emmons and Mrs. Elmore Hill were additional guests.

Garden Wedding Unites Couple

TURNER — At a 2 o'clock ceremony on June 5 in the A. L. Bones garden on South High street in Salem, Miss Evelyn Klokstad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Klokstad of Turner, became the bride of Lester Bones, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Bones of Turner. The Rev. Brooks Moore officiated. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white ballerina suit with pastel blue accessories and corsage of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Virgil Shuett, of Salem was matron of honor and wore a blue suit with white accessories and corsage of gardenias and roses. Ercei Mundinger, cousin of the groom, was best man.

Mrs. Klokstad wore a grey print with white accessories and Mrs. Bones chose a beige crepe with brown accessories. Their corsages were of carnations.

A reception followed with Mesdames Ercei Mundinger, Adolph Nelson, Chester Stewart, George Nelson, Jack LaRoute, Earl Sherwood, Melvin Holt and Miss Jean Farnen assisting.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride wore a brown and white pin striped suit with white accessories. The bride and groom are graduates of Turner high school and will live in Turner.

Soon to be welcomed back to the capital are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Paulson, Jr., (Florence Upjohn) and children, Stephen Michael and Karen Louise, who have been residing in Corvallis. Mr. Paulson graduated from Oregon State college this June. The Paulsons will move to Salem next week and he will be with the West Salem Fuel Co.

Republicans to Postpone Meet

Marion county Republican Federation of Women has postponed its June meeting until July, where there will be a combined meeting of all Republican groups in Salem when the delegates to the national convention will give reports.

Mrs. William Burns of Portland, state president of the Oregon Federation of Republican Women, is now in the east attending the national convention and will attend the national board meeting of the National Federation of Republican Women, which will be held in Philadelphia at the close of the convention. Also at the board meeting will be Mrs. Roy T. Bishop, Portland, second vice-president of the national federation.
