OREGON CITY, June 25—(P)—The body of Dr. John McLoughlin, Hudson's Bay company factor in early Oregon and founder of Oregon City, has been exhumed for re-burial. A Catholic church official disclosed today.

The casket was dug up from its resting place of 90 years at St. John's Catholic church.

The Rev. John R. Laidlaw, pastor of Immaculate Heart parish, Portland, said it would be reburied at the church's new site in the Oregon City hill section.

School Board Reassigns 2 Principals

Reassignment of two elementary school principals was authorized Friday night by the Salem school board. Gladys Follis will change from Washington to Highland, and Gladys B. Tipton will supervise Washington as well as Grant, where she is now principal.

The change was necessitated by the recent resignation of Lourdes M. Brock as Highland principal. The double assignment to Miss Tipton was made since both Grant and Washington are only six-year schools and since the latter building is scheduled for abandonment as soon as no longer needed.

The board also authorized building 10,000 sq. ft. of new building and grading in order to create new athletic ground at West Salem junior high school site. Part of the June 21 election, which named Gardner Knapp as a trustee, opposed addition of kindergarten to public schools and rejected consolidation with Mariposa View district, revealing changes in the results earlier announced.

Roy Harand, whose term ends June 30, turned the chairmanship over to Don Young, next in seniority.

Detroit Dam Fund Assured

WASHINGTON, June 25—(AP)—President Truman signed today an appropriation bill carrying $641,255,000, including $40,236,000 for Oregon and Washington projects, for army civil functions for the 12 months beginning July 1.

More than half of the Oregon-Washington item total was accounted for by a $22,000,000 item for McNary dam on the Columbia river. The Detroit reservoir received $3,500,000.

The bill provides a record $573,000,000 to the army engineers for the most extensive program of flood control and navigation projects ever undertaken in a single year. Construction funds are provided for 200 flood control projects and 78 rivers and harbors improvement jobs throughout the country. Additional sums are provided for planning future construction.

Other Oregon items included in the bill were: Dorena reservoir, $3,000,000; Fern Ridge reservoir, $155,000; Lookout Point reservoir, $35,000,000; Nehalem river, $15,000; Umpqua river tributaries, $14,000; Willamette river (bank protection), $500,000. Rivers and harbors clauses gave Columbia river between Vancouver and The Dalles $326,000; Columbia at Bonneville $700,000; Columbia below Vancouver and Portland, $775,000.

Truman Raps, Signs DP Bill

WASHINGTON, June 25—(AP)—President Truman today reluctantly signed and then bitterly criticized a bill to let 205,000 European war refugees enter the United States in the next two years.

The additions to America's melting pot will be carefully screened men, women and children who fled to the now-occupied zones of Germany or Austria and to Italy between Sept. 1, 1939 and Dec. 22, 1945, and who stayed until January 1.

Many will be persons whose native lands are now behind Russia's iron curtain.

The president said most of the Jews who entered any of these countries by 1945 already have left, and most of the Jews now there arrived after 1945 and hence are denied a chance to come to the United States.

U. N. Board Leaves Jews Free to Push Convoy Through

TEL AVIV, Israel, June 25—(AP)—Jewish authorities were advised by the U. N. truce commission here today they were "free to act as they saw fit to push a convoy to the Negev desert in southern Palestine," an Israeli announcement said.

A communique issued tonight said the Israeli government would take action "in a manner and at a time and place which its general staff will deem suitable."

The announcement concerning the truce mission's attitude was made after a U. N. spokesman disclosed the Egyptians had refused to let a convoy pass and had fired on a white U. N. plane piloted by an American, Lt. Col. M. L. Martin.

NO FENDERS, ARRESTED

Carl L. Pruitt, 575 Patterson st., West Salem, was cited to appear in Salem municipal court this morning by city police after his arrest in the 900 block on South Liberty street Friday night. He is charged with having no fenders on the front of his car, police records show.

County D.A. to Vice Presidential Candidate---Gov. Warren

EARL WARREN was born in Los Angeles in 1891, his father Norway-born, his mother of Swedish parentage.

EARL, at 6 (above), had moved to Bakersfield. In Los Angeles his railroad job in Los Angeles after a strike.

THE FUTURE GOVERNOR graduated from U. C. law school and was elected Alameda county district attorney three times.

SWORN IN (above) as state attorney general, he extended his interest in better police work. That year (1938) his interest gained a personal drive. His father was bludgeoned to death and the crime never has been solved.

HE IS FIRST governor of California to be elected with nomination of both parties. Here he sits at his desk.

Coast-to-Coast Combination First for GOP

By D. Harold Oliver
WASHINGTON, June 25—(AP)—The republican party has picked in Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Earl Warren of California its first east-west, coast-to-coast presidential ticket since its first national convention in 1856.

It established a precedent by giving Dewey a second nomination after having lost his presidential bid in 1944.

In naming two governors to top its ticket, the party has taken another rare step, although in 1944 it also had an all-governor slate in Dewey and John W. Bricker, then governor of Ohio. Bricker is a senator now.

But along with these "firsts" and "near firsts," the GOP adhered to the time-honored custom of selecting standard bearers who hail from states with big electoral votes.

New York has 47 and California 25 electoral votes for a total of 72. A total of 266 is needed to win.

Dewey had a plurality of close to 688,000 in beating Senator James M. Mead in New York in 1946 for another term in Albany. Warren confounded the politicians by taking both major party nominations in California, and coasting to a second governorship term at Sacramento.

And, the republicans have not lost sight of the fact that the democrats are not any too well unified in New York and California this year.

Win or lose, Dewey and Warren will stay in public office next year. Their present gubernatorial terms do not expire until 1951.

In the 24 conventions of the party there have been 16 east-midwest tickets linking states like New York and Indiana four times, Ohio and New York six times, Illinois and Maine, Ohio and Massachusetts, and so on.

Of these 16 east-midwest tickets, 11 won in November.

Pope Asked to Rule on Beauty Contest Status

MOUNDSVILLE, W.Va., June 25—(AP)—Sponsors of the annual West Virginia beauty pageant today asked Pope Pius VII to express his position on Bishop John J. Swain's ruling that any Catholic girl entering the contest faces excommunication.

The appeal was made in a cablegram addressed to the Vatican by William J. D. Miller, public relations man for the pageant. Two Catholic girls withdrew after the Bishop of Wheeling denounced such contests as "totally pagan" and "absolutely immoral" and said "if nakedness were eliminated the whole thing would fall to pieces."

Miller's cable explained that talent is stressed and indecent exposure prohibited in the contest and said Bishop Swain's ruling "threatens success of a civic enterprise (whose proceeds) go to worthy charities."

In conclusion: "Appreciation expression your position this worthy cause."

Warren Family at the Convention

Wives of GOP Nominees Stay Out of Politics

By Cynthia Lowry
PHILADELPHIA, June 25—(AP)—Mrs. Thomas Dewey sighed and thought, "Oh, dear," when her husband won the republican nomination for president.

Mrs. Earl Warren, seated with her children in the convention hall balcony, heard her husband nominated for vice president with tear-filled eyes and a genuine feeling of surprise.

"I'd heard his name mentioned, of course," the light-haired Swedish-born wife of the California governor said, "but I hadn't heard anything definite. I didn't believe it until one of the California delegation caught my eye and shook hands with himself."

Mrs. Dewey said that her first reaction was a worried expression. She thought of the big responsibility it put on her husband.

The two women, first ladies of states on opposite ends of the nation, are very much alike in many ways—and have been friends for some time.

Neither takes part publicly in politics. Both are devoted mothers: the Deweys have two children, the Warrens, six. They both renovated their respective governors' mansions, and enjoyed doing it. Both dress well.

Mrs. Warren said she had not expected things to happen the way they did.

None in "Sunday Best" Nina (the youngest daughter) had on a cotton dress—none of us was in our Sunday best," she said. Nevertheless she looked fashionable and handsome in a sheer navy blue dress with a white hat trimmed with maline.

After accepting congratulations from the crowd, Mrs. Warren, with daughters Virginia, 19; Dorothy, 17, and Nina—called "Honeybear"—who is 14, had luncheon with a friend and then planned to attend a small reception given by the California delegation.

TWO RADIOS TAKEN
D. Holtzman, 1485 N. Summer st., reported to Salem police Friday night that someone entered his house through a basement window Thursday night and taken two radios from an upstairs room. Nothing else was touched, the report said.

GOP Meet Sends Note of Gratitude To MacArthur

CONVENTION HALL, Philadelphia, June 25—(P)—A resolution of "gratitude and appreciation" for the "heroic role" Gen. Douglas MacArthur has played in war and peace was one of the last bits of business at the republican convention.

It went through unanimously. Senator Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin offered it. He said he didn't want Japan to get the wrong idea because MacArthur got so few votes for the presidential nomination.

MacArthur got 11 votes, 8 of them from Wisconsin, on the first ballot yesterday. He got 7, all but 1 of them from Wisconsin, on the second.

Swimmer Sets U.S. Record

SAN DIEGO, Calif., June 25—(AP)—Suzanne Zimmerman of Portland, breaking her own American record in the 200-meter backstroke, and favored Ann Curtis of San Francisco headed the array of winners as initial competition came to a close tonight in the women's national swimming and diving championships.

Miss Zimmerman, of the Multnomah Athletic club, won the backstroke, last event on the card, in 2 minutes 47.3 seconds, breaking the time of 2 minutes 48.7 seconds she set in 1946.

The Rosetta Stone, containing inscriptions in three ancient languages, provided the key that unlocked the mystery of ancient Egyptian hieroglyphics.
