

Portland Rites of Interest

Salem friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar F. Pearson of Portland are interested to hear of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Barbara Durbin Pearson, to William A. Healy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Healy of Portland, on Friday, June 25. The high noon rites were solemnized at St. Thomas More chapel with a reception following at the Waverly Country club at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Pearson gave his daughter in marriage and her wedding gown was a Chantilly lace bodice and full net ivory skirt. Her veil was three-quarter length and she carried a white prayer book topped with white orchids.

Miss Helen Ann Healy, sister of the groom, was maid of honor and bridesmaid. The bridesmaids were Misses Mary Barnett, Marjorie Cowlin, Ann Winkler, Nancy Baker and Mrs. Donald Stanton. They wore aqua faille frocks with garden hats of horsehair braid trimmed with purple and wood violet irises. Their bouquets were of irises.

At the reception among those pouring were Mrs. Frank Healy of Salem, aunt of the groom, Mrs. Curtis Cross, aunt of the bride, and the bride's other aunt, Mrs. Frank Durbin, who came up from Pittsburgh, Calif.

The newlyweds will honeymoon at Carmel and for going away she donned a bisque wool suit with deep brown accessories and corsage of green orchids.

The bride is a graduate of the Catlin School for Girls in Portland and the University of Oregon. Her sorority is Kappa Kappa Gamma. Mr. Healy served with the 10th mountain division during the war and is a senior at the University of Michigan.

Others attending the wedding from Salem were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cross and daughter, Cordelia, Mrs. William Connell Dyer, Mr. Frank Healy and Mrs. Richard Peters of Lebanon.
