Housecleaning in Desk Reveals Ideas For Cooking, Mothproofing, Eating

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Housecleaning in our office desk drawers produces many less for homemaking, which we now pass on to our readers.

We find a bulletin titled "Food for Families With School Children" put out by the U.S. department of agriculture and available from the U.S. government department of publications—or perhaps from your county home demonstration agent.

Lucy Lane, OSC extension specialist in textiles, suggests that winter clothing should be cleaned before stored for the winter, to aid in guarding against moth damage.

Clothes closets, too, she says, should be thoroughly cleaned and de-mothed.

Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. Harris Lietz. Miss Miller will leave in a few days by plane for Akron, Ohio, returning in several weeks to remain here for the summer at the Hunter home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Franko of Aberdeen, Wash., will leave today for their home following a short stay in Salem with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Reeher.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Loucks are her brother and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schreiber of San Diego, Calif., who have come north on their honeymoon. They will be here a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peder Halvorsen of Bergen, Norway arrived in the capital Sunday for an extended visit with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eling Halvorsen. They plan to be in the states until October.

Mrs. Virgil Spence of LaGrande has been visiting in the capital with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shafer. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Hill, III are entertaining as their house guests at their country home, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Dillinger of Buffalo, Wyoming. The Dillingers are on their honeymoon, planning to visit along the coast before returning to Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jory have as their guests their two daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Clawson (Evelyn Jory) of San Jose, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Nicholson, (Betty Jean Jory) of Bend. The Clawsons plan to remain a fortnight and the Nicholsons returned to Bend after the weekend.

Paintings on Display
An exhibit of children's non-objective paintings is now on display at Gevurtz furniture store this week. There are twenty-five paintings of oil, water color and pencil done by children between the ages of six and twelve. Miss Frances Sopp was the first instructor of the children's class, which later was taken over by Mrs. S. B. Laughlin.

SILVERTON — Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cosovich (Elizabeth Keene), of Astoria, who have been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Keene, have gone south to San Francisco to visit her sister, Miss Frances Keene.

Miss Conlee Weds Astoria Doctor

Of interest to the bride's many Salem friends is announcement of the marriage of Miss Lorraine Morrow Conlee to Dr. Frank Edgar Fowler of Astoria which was solemnized Saturday, June 26, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Reuben Conlee in Oswego. Dr. Thomas Franklyn Hudson officiated in the presence of only members of the two families.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of mist gray chiffon with crystal beading and corsage of purple orchids. Her only attendant was Mrs. Vernon E. Fowler. Dr. Vernon E. Fowler, also of Astoria, was best man for his brother.

Dr. and Mrs. Fowler left afterward for a motor trip to California. On their return July 15 they will be at home at 650 Jerome avenue, Astoria.

The new Mrs. Fowler is well known in the capital, having served with many sessions of the legislature as a lobbyist and in a legal capacity.
