Saltzman Sharp in Notching Win, Great Sinovic Catch Saves Game

By Al Lightner

They still have what it takes, when the pitching is good. The town Senators exhibited same, with emphasis, last night at Waters park by taking the final game of the series with Spokane, 3 to 2, thus putting again a dent in the string of losses that has plagued them the last month. Spokane did spear the series, 3-2, however and today the two clubs are en route to the Inland Empire villa for four more games, starting with one tonight.

Plastered by the Spokes only two nights previously, Ex-U of Oregon flinger Hal Saltzman came back at 'em last night with a vengeance. Hal went the route, and although in a bit of trouble here and there along the way, it wasn't until the eighth inning that he finally was scored upon. By then it was 3-0 for the townies, however, and the two runs the enemy picked up merely made the brawl one of the better rascles of the semester in the local orchard.

Again performing like anything but a club that had blown the duke 16 out of 17 times, Salem tallied three times off Lefty Jack Teagan in the second inning, on four consecutive hits. And one of these was by Saltzman himself, who was determined to show his new club he was the pitcher it expected him to be.

This was the only run-producing threat of the evening for Salem, but it was enough. Saltzman went on from there and gave the small gathering of 557 something to cheer about.

Mgr. Buddy Ryan's crew threatened in the ninth, but Dick Sinovic in center field took care of that. After Gene Petralli had singled with one out and Leo Thomas had skied to make it two, Big Bill Wright, a deep thorn in the Salem side last week, clouded a terrific liner into deep left center. It was at least a double when it started, and Petralli would have scored on the wallop easily. But Sinovic raced far back and to his right, and on the dead run hauled down the serve with a great catch. Manager Jack Wilson had just waved to Sinovic to play deeper before Wright swung.

Saltzman had a really serious moment in the two-run Spokane eighth when no less than Woody Salmon, big gun on the 1946 Salem team, was called in to pinch-hit for Teagan with two out, two men on and the two runs already in. Wilson issued brief instructions to Saltzman and on the first pitch Big Woody tapped a one-bouncer back to Hal for an easy third out.

Wilson will open with Lefty Cal McIrvine in Spokane tonight.

Elfs, Corners Still Unbeaten

The Four Corners and Elfs clubs racked up their second straight wins in Junior B league play last night. The Elfs, who had been the one-hit pitching of Brown. The only blow off Brown was Whipper's homer. The Elfs downed Keizer Merchants, 9-7, with the aid of a 12-hit attack. Yeaters grabbed their initial win with an 8-2 victory over Salem Sand, Whipper tossing a three-hitter and Baggett homering for the winners.

GP's Suffer First Setback

The Golden Pheasants of the National softball division last night suffered their first setback after five straight wins as they were tripped by the Master Breads, 4-1. Clancy Applegate handed the Pheasants but two hits, one of them a homer by Bob Warren, while the Bakers were nipping Miller for seven. In the American league the Campbell Rock Wools edged Warner Motors, 4-3, with Bob Knight allowing the Motormen but three bingles.

Midget Racing Task Tougher

The opening of the midget racing strip Sunday night at Portland's long-wooded Jantzen beach has its significance here as well as in Portland.

Now that Jantzen is opening again, the lure of two tracks will doubtless have a large number of the out-of-state speed zanyies coming in to make the Saturday night competition here extremely tough.

Another possible Senator acquisition is Pitcher Tommy Rose of Wenatche. The Chiefs are seeking a first-baseman, and it is possible Portland may dig up one to give them for the young Rose.

McMillan, who hit over 300 during his tenure with the club, but who couldn't win himself a regular berth, said yesterday he too likely would not report to the Chiefs. McNulty will join the Senators in Spokane today, however.

Pafko's Homer Licks Cards; Yankees Knock Over Red Sox

By the Associated Press

Johnny Sain of the Boston Braves became the first National league pitcher to hit 10 wins Thursday as he avenged his leading Boston to a four-hit 4-1 victory over the New York Giants. The triumph jumped the Braves' margin over the runner-up St. Louis Cardinals to 2 1/2 games as the Cards bowed to the Chicago Cubs, 4-3. Andy Pafko's three-run seventh inning homer provided the Bruins with the win. The Pittsburgh Pirates climbed to within half a game of the Cardinals by stopping the Cincinnati Reds, 5-2, as Frits Ostermuller came through with a six-hitter. The Brooklyn Dodgers dropped their fifth straight contest as they fell before the Philadelphia Phils, 4-2. Schoolboy Rowe set the Bums down with eight bawls.

In the American circuit, the Detroit Tigers socked the pace-setting Cleveland Indians, 9-5, as Hal Newhouser rescued the tilt for the Bengals with an eighth inning relief appearance. The Philadelphia Athletics moved within half a game of the Tribe by noting the Washington Senators, 3-2. The New York Yankees whipped the Boston Red Sox, 10-7, despite homers by Bobby Deer, Johnny Pesky and Vern Stephens. St. Louis' Browns dumped the Chicago White Sox, 8-5.

Rolling Along by Jerry Stone

Hats off to the Salem Golf Men's club. They've come through in fine style on the $1500 guarantee necessary to lure the big Northwest Professional meet here August 11 and 12. That event will draw the northwest's best swingers and likely to be on hand in the favored role will be Tacoma's Chuck Condon. Chuck, who seems to improve with age, shot er's vacated throne. BUT Walcott and Gus are very old men as far as the ring game goes. They have no more than a good year left unless they've by chance happened onto the Fountain of Youth. So the spotlight turns to the younger ringsters—the guys who have four or five years left in which to bang their fists against the four to the throne room. There aren't too many of 'em and they're all tarnished by mediocrity—barely belting out a living these past few years while the King ruled. Among them are Joey Maxum, Joe Bakst, Timmy Bivins and Esnard Charles and then there are Kahut, Roy Hawkins and Bill Peterson, etc.

No one of them stands out greatly above the rest in ability though of course Maxum boasts decisions over Kahut, Peterson and Hawkins. Beyond a doubt Maxum is the classiest boxer of the younger aspirants but he's no socker and he also is not immune to a kaye punch. And Kahut and some of the others do boast dynamite in their equipment — and that could be a handy item in any future free-for-all heavyweight elimination tourney. Yes, a couple of lucky wallops at the proper moment might propel Woodburn's slugger right into the midst of things. Hebbe the folks up Woodburn way are dreaming, too.

Don't be surprised to see the St. Louis Browns franchise moved to either Los Angeles or San Francisco in the not-too-distant future. Brownie owner Dick Muckerman is just about fed up with the heavy game that have been the lot of his club for the past two years.

The boys whose opinions are valued give Ted Williams, the Soxos clover, a great chance to flash above 400 this season. Their reason being that (1) Ted is cutting 50 per cent of his hits to right and (2) that he's not going to experience the slump which plagues other and lesser rappers. As for the last reason, it's figured that while Williams may fall into an impotent streak, he's still walked as much by nervous hitters that his average won't suffer to any great degree.

It's easy to muse and dream in the current heat — and perhaps some of the thoughts a feller acquires are a bit on the odd side. But (and don't laugh) did you ever stop to consider that through a minimum of miracles Woodburn's Joe Kahut could be right in there gunning for the world's heavyweight title? The current heavyweight picture is so much a scrambled up mess that, as the saying goes, just about anything can happen. Louis is definitely out of the picture. What does that leave? Well, there are Joe Walcott and the guy who seems to be the crown of the present — Gus Lesnevich. Logically enough, this pair are put forth as the top contenders for the Brown Bomb-
