

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

AP Newsfeatures
Construction tested, this budget house has been built from this plan, both with and without the second floor finished. It is Plan 2537 by Rudolph A. Matern Architectural Associates, 90-04 161st st., Jamaica 2, N. Y. The house covers an area of 912 square feet in which good sized rooms are efficiently arranged. Living room and dining room open on either side of the entrance foyer. Kitchen is on the driveway service side of the house. The large bay window and corner windows add to livability. A brick exterior, white trim and asphalt shingles are suggested.

Monmouth Resident Observes 72nd Birthday There June 28

By Beulah Craven
Statesman Correspondent
MONMOUTH — Mrs. Ragna Jensen observed her 72nd birthday June 28. Ragna Ringberg was born June 28, 1876, in Sacred Heart, Minn. Her parents moved, when she was 8, to North Dakota where she was married in 1896 to Halvor Jensen. They came west to Paulton, Wash., and later lived at Kallspeil, Mont., coming to Monmouth in 1926 where she has since resided.
Victim of arthritis, she has been forced to live for the last 21 years in a wheel chair, but is an inspiration to her friends and neighbors. She crochets, knits and carries on a voluminous correspondence. Her children are a great source of comfort to her, contributing largely toward her happiness and enjoyment of life. They are Mrs. Siebert Williamson of Monmouth, a member of the Dallas teaching staff; John Jensen, principal last year of the Marshall school in Vanport; William Jensen of Halsey, also a teacher; Helmer Jensen of Great Falls, Mont., bookkeeper for the Great Northern railway; Elmo Jensen, government employe in Washington, D. C., and Mrs. John Bostrack of Jefferson.

In 1946 Mrs. Jensen accompanied her sons to Montana on an automobile trip, and last Sunday attended the wedding of her granddaughter, Melva Williamson to Paul Cookingham at Calvary Baptist church in Salem. She has nine grandchildren, two step grandchildren and four great grandchildren.
The Baptist church women gave Mrs. Jensen a birthday card shower Monday.

Stouts Grove Scene Of Baptist Picnic For Independence Day

STAYTON — Fourth of July will be the occasion of an all-church picnic at Stout's grove for the Stayton Baptist church, when Sunday school and morning service will be held at the church as usual.

Picnic dinner is scheduled for 1 p.m., when the group will go to the grove in a body after the morning service.
Old style camp meeting with special music will be held, with Dr. C. M. Cline, a one-time circuit rider who is now professor of theology at Western Baptist seminary in Portland, addressing the meeting in the afternoon.

Supper will be served and an evening campfire service will be held, with Dr. Cline again as speaker. The public is invited to join with the members for the day's activities. Each is asked to bring food and table service.

Silvertown Physician Observes Anniversary

SILVERTON — Dr. P. A. Loar observed his 45th anniversary as a practicing physician and surgeon Thursday by going to his Silvertown Hills farm and working out of doors for the day.
Dr. Loar began his practice in Kentucky and seven years later moved to Silvertown where he has maintained his office since. Following World War II he took a younger partner, Dr. W. E. Grodrian into his office.
