

Trapped in Bus Accident

Over Oregon

By the Associated Press

PORTLAND, July 1—The Western Forest Industries association was notified today that senate committee hearings on cooperative sustained yield agreements and O & C land administration will be held at Eugene Sept. 7-10. Sen. Guy Cordon (R-Ore) is a member of the five-man senate sub-committee, a branch of the interior and insular affairs committee. Witnesses at the hearing must file written statements with the committee by Aug. 15.

PORTLAND, July 1—Oregon's egg grading laws, attacked by some dealers and producers, will be discussed at the Pacific States Butter, Egg, Cheese and Poultry association convention here July 12. Dealers have complained that some eggs marked "Grade A" actually include lower grade eggs—chiefly because they are checked in the midwest and not reinspected upon arrival here.

PORTLAND, July 1—Three major Portland department stores will close Saturday afternoons during July and August, but most other retailers will remain open.

ASTORIA, July 1—The hunt for pilchard—caught off the Oregon-Washington coast from mid-July until about mid-September—was underway today. Scout boats and planes began hunting schools of the fish two plants at Warrenton and one at Astoria pack large quantities of the pilchard each year.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 1—Dr. F. Lee Lemly, Dallas, Texas, was unanimously elected president of the National Chiropractic association today. Dr. Harry R. Bybee, Norfolk, Va., was elected vice president and Dr. Justin C. Wood, Salisbury, Md., to the executive board—also without opposition. The national convention closes Saturday.

PORTLAND, July 1—Boeing Airplane company of Seattle is recruiting workers here. The company said several hundred persons, including many war-pilot refugees, have reported to the Portland employment office.

Flood Yields 49th Victim

PORTLAND, Ore., July 1—(AP)—The Pacific Northwest flood yielded its 49th victim today—a 4-year-old Dennis D. Uaene Dike, whose drowned body was found beside river piling.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Dike disappeared from the family houseboat near here May 22, the day the Columbia river passed flood stage here. The receding Columbia is still 5.8 feet above the flood mark.

Besides the 49 known dead, 18 persons are missing from flooded Vanport. Ten of the dead were from Vanport.

Finns Start Trip to Polls

HELSINKI, Finland, July 1—(AP)—Finland's national election began today in fair weather and a calm political atmosphere.

Today and tomorrow 2,000,000 Finns are expected to vote, selecting 200 members of parliament from among six parties for the next three years. Although parliament recently approved a friendship and mutual assistance pact with Soviet Russia, the general expectation was that the communist-dominated popular democratic bloc, which now has 51 seats in parliament, would lose slightly.

Navy Reserve Unit Command Changed at Outdoor Ceremony

Lt. Cmdr. Vernon Gilmore relinquished his command of Salem's organized naval reserve unit to Lt. Cmdr. Samuel Mallicoat in an outdoor ceremony at the naval armory Thursday night.

With the unit's 200 enlisted men and officers standing at attention Gilmore read his retirement order from naval headquarters in Washington, D. C., and said he was leaving the unit "with the greatest regret."

Cmdr. Mallicoat followed Gilmore, reading the order from naval headquarters assigning him to the Salem command. After the two officers shook hands the men were ordered dismissed to quarters for their regular training session.

Cmdr. Gilmore, commander of the unit since its activation last September, was retired because of the age limit governing officers in the organized reserve. He will become a member of the inactive reserve. A veteran of World War II, he served in Colorado and as executive officer aboard the USS Anzules in the Pacific theater.

Mallicoat, a senior at Willamette university law school, entered the navy in 1940 under the V-6 program. He was on the gunboat USS Tulsa in Manila when the Japs attacked. He served on the ship in the Pacific theater for several years before being assigned as training officer on the cruiser USS Montpelier in 1945.

He was graduated from Oregon College of Education before the war and taught at Gresham high school prior to entering the navy.

Trans-Atlantic Jet Flight Postponed

WASHINGTON, July 1—(AP)—A scheduled flight of 18 F-50 jet fighters to England has been postponed from July 7 to about July 14.

The air force said today that one reason is to allow time for sending fuel and other supplies to the bases where the jets will stop. The fighters will go in a series of jumps from the United States to Labrador, Greenland, Iceland and Scotland.

18-2 ARMY INSURES INS
The army has a musical problem. It needs musicians to fill vacancies in the 2nd army band, stationed at Fort Mason, Cal., Lt. Col. H. E. Helliesen, Salem recruiting commander, announced Thursday.

Assignment to the band, serving the San Francisco port of embarkation, is open to qualified musicians with or without previous military training. Non-veterans accepted will receive their training at Fort Mason.

Top Hat Addition To Open Saturday

The just-completed addition to Top Hat restaurant at 1275 State st. will open as an ice cream store in connection with the restaurant Saturday at 11 a.m., proprietors A. W. (Bill) Coon and Lloyd Keene announced Thursday.

The addition virtually doubles the size of the restaurant. The establishment will be open every day from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Plans Laid for Doll Day at Playgrounds

Salem park directors were making plans Thursday for the department's annual Doll day to be held in neighborhood parks on Friday, July 9.

Adults and children alike are invited to enter in the contest in which prizes will be awarded for all types of dolls. Park Director Vernon Gilmore said awards will be given for the oldest, largest, smallest, funniest, best formed, best dressed dolls, and the largest doll group.

The contest will be conducted in individual neighborhood parks, but not at Olinger and Leslie fields. More than 100 persons entered last year's event.

Gilmore also announced that playgrounds will be closed July 4, 5 and 6, but that Leslie and Olinger pools will remain open. The pools will operate from 1 to 9 p. m. on Sunday and from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. on Saturday and Monday.

Depot Tavern Loses License

PORTLAND, July 1—(AP)—The state liquor control commission revoked the license of Bertha Russell, Depot Tavern, Salem, today, charging that the premises were disorderly because of intoxicated customers.

The license of Edward R. Eitrem, Club 99, Roseburg, was revoked on a charge of liquor sales. A 10-day suspension was meted against the El Capitan, Eugene, for liquor sale, and 60-day suspension against the Lakeview Grocery, Triangle Lake, for sale of beer to minors.

A proposal to require all employees serving or mixing drinks to be licensed will be considered at the July 15 commission meeting.
