Visitors Are Guests in Capital

Summer visitors in the capital are continuing to share in much of the entertaining.

Mrs. Bailey Savage of Seattle, formerly of Salem, is visiting here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Madison. Mrs. Savage will leave Saturday for her home. She has been in New York and returned west via the southern coast route.

This afternoon Mrs. Cooley will entertain at luncheon for Mrs. Savage at Silver Creek Falls lodge. Other guests will be three of her former friends including Mrs. W. I. Needham, Mrs. I. M. Doughton and Mrs. Lee Canfield.

Mrs. Donald Madison will be hostess for an informal open house tonight at her North Capital street residence for the pleasure of Mrs. Savage and a group of her friends, who have been invited to call after 8 o'clock.

Here From California
Visiting in the capital for a month are Mrs. Ralph Eggstaff and children, Sally and Phil, who came north from their home in Monrovia, Calif. The Eggstoffs formerly resided here and they are guests at the home of her mother, Mrs. T. E. Waldorf. Mr. Eggstaff hopes to come north to accompany his family home.

Arriving in Salem Saturday for a several weeks visit will be Mrs. Fred McFarlin of Superior, Wisconsin, who will be the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mrs. and Mrs. Ervin F. Smith.

Vacationing here for fortnight are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Keeney and sons, Mike and Mac, of Oakland, Calif., who are guests of their parents, Mrs. M. E. Keeney and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cladek. Mr. Keeney is a real estate broker in the bay city.

Miss Gerth Announces Betrothal

From the south comes news of the engagement of a Willamette university couple. Miss Mary Phyllis Gerth of Palo Alto, Calif., and Wallace E. Baumer of Portland announced their betrothal last week at a luncheon and swimming party at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Gerth, on Page Mill Road, Palo Alto. The wedding is set for late August.

The bride-to-be graduated from Willamette university in June and is a member of Phi Beta Phi sorority. The bride-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baumer of Portland. He is a senior at Willamette and his fraternity is Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The couple will live in Oregon after their marriage.

Girl Scouts on Walk

Girl Scouts and Brownies went to the G. E. Boatwright ranch Tuesday. They cooked lunch over the fire, and later went on a nature study walk.

Charles Ladd of the state forestry department and Orville Cox were special guests. Mr. Ladd supervising the fire building and tree study. Mr. Cox took pictures. The next get-together for Girl Scouts and Brownies will be a family picnic at Smith Creek camp July 18.

The United Commercial Travelers held their regular monthly meeting Saturday at the Woman's clubhouse. After a short business meeting the women joined their husbands for an evening of bingo and refreshments. The annual picnic was planned for July 25 at Dallas park. The next regular meeting will be held July 24 and arrangements will be made for transportation for members and guests.

Jim Loder, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Loder, has left for a three week's trip which will take him on a visit to the Oldsmobile factory, to Detroit, Mich., Niagara Falls, New York City and other of the larger cities east.
