ALBANY, July 5-Malcolm J. Harper, 32, Springfield logger, set a new world's record at the finals of the fourth annual Timber carni- val competition here Sunday, when he climbed the 110-foot tree and came down half way on his spikes and dropped the last half in 43½ seconds. Al Firchau, 22, in the prelim- inaries Saturday broke his own 1947 world's record of 50½ sec- onds, making it down in 44½ sec- onds. He did not try in the finals after Harper bettered the Satur- day time. Harper also won the tree-top- ping honors, sawing through the 18-inch top of the 110-foot trunk in 4 minutes 18 seconds. Al Fir- chau was a half second behind him and Sylvan Bergezin, Sweet Home, was third in 5 minutes 25 seconds. Ben Lentz of Newberg won the bucking contest, ripping through 30 inch fir log in 2 minutes 43½ seconds; Irwin Lentz, his son, sec- ond, 3 minutes 14½ seconds. R. W. Dimmick of Jefferson chopped through a 14-inch alder log in 1 minute, 30 seconds; Pete Harlan, Albany, 2 minutes, 25½ seconds. Both Lentz and Dimmick were 1947 winners.	7 KOLN KOLN KGW	News Farm Parade KOIN Klock Farm Time Sing Cowboy	Rise & Shine News & Sports News Farm Time Agronsky	News Top o' Morning Bob Garred Old Songs News	Top Trades gTop o' Morning Fred Beck Sam Hayes Zeke Manners
