California City Set to Honor Gov. Warren

SACRAMENTO, Calif., July 5—(P)—Gov. Earl Warren, who came home from the east before Sacramento had prepared its welcome, will be officially honored tomorrow for winning the republican vice presidential nomination. The celebration will begin when the Southern Pacific's Overland arrives with Mrs. Warren and their daughters, Virginia, Dorothy and Nina, aboard. With them will be the governor, too. To oblige capitol city officials, he consented to board the train before it reaches the city. Then, with Mrs. Warren and the girls, he will officially step off.

Relief Sent to Flooded Areas

DENVER, July 5—(P)—Approximately $60,000 in surplus war property from Colorado, Utah and New Mexico has been transferred to the Columbia river disaster area for relief of flood victims. Regional Director John A. Skeen of the war assets administration said the transfers were made without charge in compliance with President Truman's orders.
