In a surging mood after knock-ing over Spokane twice on Sun-day, Salem's Senators were Monday waylaid by an old jinx-rain -as they attempted to play a doubleheader with the Wenatchee Chiefs at Wenatchee. The rain washed out both games, and another twin bill is booked for tonight in the Washington city. Now on their longest win binge in the last three weeks, the Sol-ons are keyed to knock off the Chiefs in the five-game series and over sixth place in the WIL standings. Manager Jack Wilson intends opening with Hal Saltzman and Gene Peterson against the Chiefs tonight. Bob Stevenson struck his best form of the season in Sunday's first game at Spokane and blank-ed the Indians with five hits for a 4-0 nod. Steve had great stuff all the way. Big Jim Olsen then followed through by coasting to his elusive 10th win of the cam-paign, 15-7. Jim had a 14-1 lead at one time and broke a losing streak of three games. The Senators uncorked a smashing batting attack in the second game.

Business Manager George

Emigh of the club reported last

Bob Pirack deal is off with Yakima, since Wyatt will not report the Packers. Consequently, Wyatt's fate is apt to be a sus-pension, if some other deal isn't made for him soon. There has been no further word on the ac-quisition of Wenatchee Pitcher Tommy Rose. Final word on this must come from the Wenatcheeoperating Sacramento club. Emigh furthered that he is hot on the trail of one or two other player deals and may have announcements to make shortly.

Angello, Jones in Main Mix

It's Bruising Bruno Angello against Rowdy Rufus Jones in the Ferry Street Garden mat mainer tonight, and if Matchmaker Elton Owen doesn't miss his guess (he seldom does), the crunch customers are in for one of the livelier roughietoughie sessions ! of the summer. Owen installed the nasty vs. nasty feature especially as a measure of repentence for last week's foul-up, when Jack Kiser Frank Stojack forgot to show up.

In fact, Owen has taken extraspecial means in lining up tonight's entire card. He insists both prelims offer dandy matches also. In the first one, starting the show at 8:30 o'clock, it will be Milt Olson opposite Billy Hunter, of Vancouver, B. C. Both are crowd-pleasers and like their action fast. Then Jack (Tiger) Kiser, who certainly doesn't at-tract any flies with his bicepping, jumps in with Glen (Baldy) Knox, the do-no-right nasty who has been just about the captain of the crew here in recent weeks. Both of these brawls will be limited to 30 minutes. The mainer is the usual hour-limited session. Owen himself will referee.
