

They'll Be Here for the Big Bang Session

When over 400 talented marksmen from all over the country convene here this week for the Grand Pacific Trapshooting tournament, this quartet of topnotchers will be included. From left to right they are Cal and Mrs. Ray, noted Eugene shooters; Earl Colson, Jr., of Tacoma, who is top man in the entire Northwest, and Phil Miller of Kansas City, Mo., who has been three times a national title. The big meet opens Thursday on the Salem Trapshooters club range.

Beavers Belt Padres Again

By the Associated Press
The Portland Beavers, punching out 12 hits, downed the San Diego Padres, 5-1, Saturday night as Duane Pillette came through with a seven-inning. Harv Storey and Johnny Rucker homered for the Bevs.

Caps vs. Albany

SALEM'S Capitols, anxious to wave the 1948 State baseball league pennant when they jump into Oregon semipro tournament play in Portland later this month, tangle with the Albany Alcos in a 6:30 o'clock doubleheader tonight at Waters park. And if the front-running Caps can master the potent Alcos twice, there's little left in the way of their title aspirations. Johnny Lewis' gang is now 1 1/2 games up on the Alcos as a result of the narrow 3-2 and 4-3 decisions captured in the last two mixes here, both of them Pete Jonas vs. Stu Fredericks hurling duels.
It will be Jonas vs. Fredericks again in one of tonight's crucial. In the other Lefty Charley Sau-

Solons Win Again; Home Tuesday; Gregg Sweeps Midget Race Program

PARKER FIELD, Yakima, July 10—(Special)—The Salem Senators again called upon the big inning tonight, just as they did last night in their 14-3 win, and for the second straight time bounced the Yakima Packers, 9 to 4. The Senators, who seem to get fat on the Yak pitching, belted across six runs in the sixth inning to break a 1-1 tie. Mel Nung's double with the bases loaded was the big spark in the game-winning frame.
In fact the Solons cracked out six doubles in their 10 hits off three Yakima flingers, two by Ralph Samhammer and one each by Bob Stumpf, Al Spaeter, Nunes and Dick Sinovic. Yak Starter Bob Drilling was recipient of most of the blousing. Sinovic went for the circuit in the ninth with one runner aboard, clouting his tenth homer of the season, a 370-footer, off Lefty Bob Freeman.
Now hot to leave their seventh place perch behind, the Senators Sunday play the Packers twice, then take Monday off and head for Salem where they open a 14-game home stand with Yakima again Tuesday night.
Hal Saltzman went the route for the Solons tonight for his second win since joining the Salem team. He yielded nine hits. Samhammer was the big gun for the Senators at bat, with three hits. Sinovic kept up his terrific pace with two bingles and Spaeter also had a pair.

Fonville Loses Out in Shot

Dillard Dubs Chance For Hurdles Berth

By Ted Smith
EVANSTON, Ill. July 10—(AP)—Two mighty sprinters, Barney Ewell and Mel Patton, and a middle distance double winner, Mal Whitfield, won the right today to lead one of the strongest of all American Olympic track teams to the games of the fourteenth Olympiad in London starting July 29.

A series of disasters, however, eliminated some of the greatest names of trackdom.
Charles Fonville of Michigan, who has made 58 feet 1/4 inch in the shot, almost a foot better than

Rasmussen Misses

EVANSTON, Ill., July 10 (AP) George Rasmussen of the University of Oregon wound up as an also-ran tie for sixth place in his bid for a pole vault berth on the U. S. Olympic team. His vault was 13 feet, 6 1/4 inches.

the world record, will be left behind, as will Gil Dodds, the peer of the millers, Harrison Dillard of Baldwin, Wallace, regarded as the best high hurdler in the world, qualified for the 100 meter dash but quit in despair in the hurdle final.

Despite these blows Head Coach Dean Cromwell was happy and confident. "We will win seven or eight firsts for sure," he said, and named a total of 14 events in which America has good chances.
Long striding, Pel-Mel Patton from the University of Southern California won the 200 meter final from Ewell, the 31 year old Penn State alum, to reverse the order of finish in yesterday's 100 meter dash. Thus both became double qualifiers and both showed performances in line with the great sprint traditions of the United States.

Patton won the 200 in 20.7, which equals the unofficial world record for the race around a curve. Ewell's 100 meter time was 10.2, which also equals the world mark.
In all, 33 places were filled in 11 final tryout events before a crowd of 20,000 in Dyche stadium, rounding out the team which comprises three athletes for each of 22 track and field events, plus two relay teams. The weather was hot and muggy, but the athletes performed with zeal.

Albany Legion Trips Salem

ALBANY, July 10—(Special)—The Albany American Legion Junior baseball gang tonight took full advantage of sloppy playing by the Salems and ran up a 13-1 victory. Bob Vannice of the Albany team held Salem to two hits, by Bud DeVal and Jim Stuart. Miles Mitchell went the route for Salem and yielded 10 bingles. There were eight errors behind him.
Salem plays Silverton Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in a district two game at Waters park in Salem.

Golden Staters Net Finalists

PORTLAND, Ore., July 10—(AP)—Two Californians will battle here tomorrow for the men's singles tennis championship in the Oregon golden jubilee tournament.
Frank Frister, San Francisco, moved today to the final by defeating Harry Buttiner, also San Francisco, 6-2, 6-2, 6-1. Pfister will battle for the title against Arnold Beisser of Santa Ana, Calif.
Nineteen-year-old Rhoda Joan Hopkins, Forest Hills, N. Y., will challenge Arvilla McGuire, Piedmont, Calif., tomorrow for the women's singles title.
Neale and Beisser teamed up today to eliminate Claude Hockley and Sam Lee, Portland, 6-3, 6-1, 3-6, 6-1, in the men's doubles semi-final.

Cerdan Regains European Title

BRUSSELS, July 10—(AP)—Marek Cerdan regained his European middleweight championship tonight by defeating Cyrille Delannoit of Belgium, on points in a gruelling 15 round fight before 15,000 fans at the Palais Des Sports. It was a close decision and the crowd booted the three officials.
Delannoit won the title from Cerdan in a surprise victory last May 23 and he gave the veteran Frenchman a terrific tussle tonight. The hard-won victory kept Cerdan in line for a title fight against Tony Zale sometime this summer.

Hood Climb Set

The one national event in which any novice may climb a major U. S. peak will again be staged this year at the 24th annual Mt. Hood Legion climb on July 17-18.
Sponsored by Hood River American Legion post 22, the climb is expected to draw possibly 5,000 people. Most of these attend to watch the climb "strings" make an eight-hour trek to Hood's top (elevation 11,232 feet) and return.

Verdeur, Curtis Grab Olympic Stroke Berths

DETROIT, July 10—(AP)—Philadelphia Joe Verdeur and California's Ann Curtis, 22-year-old collegians, beat Olympic records today in tests at River Rouge park for berths on the American swimming team leaving next week for the 1948 games in London.
Verdeur set an American long-course (50-meter) record for the men's 200-meter breast stroke at 2 minutes 35.3 seconds to win his place on the American team. His time was 6.2 seconds better than the mark set at the 1936 Berlin Olympics by Tetsuo Hamuro of Japan.
Keith Carter of Purdue university, already a member of the London-bound team as the result of winning second in the 100-meter free style finals two days ago, chased Verdeur to the finish touch in second place, and will swim in two races—breast-stroke and free style—at the London Wembley pool competitions opening July 29. Third and last place to qualify for the London Olympics in the breast stroke went to Bob Sohl of the University of Michigan.
Suanne Zimmerman of Portland, Ore., main contender for the Olympic women's backstroke title last year by an American when Eleanor Holm took it at Los Angeles in 1932, qualified first for the final in her event tomorrow.

Over 400 Gunners to Fire In 15th Annual Tournament

The 15th Annual Grand Pacific Trapshooting tournament, second only to the Grand National each year in Vandalla, O., opens its four-day stand on the Salem Trapshooters club range next Thursday at 10 a.m. Upwards of 400 dead-eyed scattergunners, some of them from as far away as Boston, Mass., are registered to vie for the $7000 added cash prizes and numerous other valuable awards corralled by the local sponsoring club. No less than 122 business firms in Salem have contributed to the terrific prize list.

The dozens of shooters, some of them nationally famous, will go for championships in singles, doubles and handicaps in all four classes, A, B, C and D. Women and juniors (under 17 years old) will also have their shootoffs. The classic will end next Sunday with the Grand Pacific Handicap event.

Governor John Hall will open the tournament Thursday morning by firing the first shot. The field will then commence competition in the 16-yard singles and championship doubles events.
Salem club officers who have been busy for weeks preparing for the classic are P. H. Thebe, president; Don Cannon, vice president; Clarence Townsend, secretary; Kehne Wain, treasurer, and Douglas Yeater, C. G. Hiltbrand, Creighton Jones, Harold Busick and Vince Rodakowski, directors.

Braves Hike Margin; A's Lose, Yanks Win

The highflying Boston Braves increased their National league lead to 4 1/2 games Saturday via a 4-3 win over the Philadelphia Phils while the runner-up Pittsburgh Pirates were losing to the Chicago Cubs. Bill Voiselle pitched the Braves win, scattering nine Phils blows. Shortstop Al Dark of the Boston hit safely in 22nd consecutive game. Bill Nicholson's two-run triple in the eighth inning sent the Cubs to a 4-2 victory over the Pirates, Johnny Schmitz holding the Phils to two hits. The third-place St. Louis Cardinals lost a chance to gain by bowing to the Cincinnati Reds, 4-3. Johnny Vander Meer scattered 10 Red Bird hits. The Brooklyn Dodgers moved into the first division by outlasting the New York Giants, 15-10.

Kelly, Huskies Oar Victors

PRINCETON, N.J., July 10—(AP) Philadelphia's young Jack Kelly and the University of Washington's junior varsity oarsmen who made up a four-oared crew with coxswain did just what was expected of them today as they turned in the outstanding performance of the final Olympic rowing tryouts on Lake Carnegie.
Kelly, son of the 1920 Olympic scull champion and winner himself of most of the world's top sculling honors, won as he pleased in his specialty from another young Philadelphian, Jack Trinsley.
The Washington four had somewhat stronger competition but it didn't have much trouble whipping Yale's good crew by a length and a half with the West Side club from Buffalo, N.Y., a distant third.

The other winners, all of whom automatically earned places on the Olympic squad were Yale's entries in the four-oared shells without coxswain and pairs without coxswain, the Vesper boat club of Philadelphia in pairs with coxswain and a combination club entry of Arthur Callagher of the Penn. A.C., Philadelphia, and Joseph Angyal of the New York Athletic club in doubles.

Barrett Named Mt. Angel Boss

MT. ANGEL, July 10—(Special)—Gene Barrett, a football star at Portland university for four years, is the new Mt. Angel Prep coach, replacing Verdel Ragsdale, who has gone to Medford. Father Edward Spear of the Mt. Angel College and Seminary made the announcement today. Barrett will coach football, basketball and baseball at the prep school.
From Trinity high school in Sioux City, Ia., Barrett played Portland U football in 1940 and '41, and then spent three years in the navy with the Pacific fleet. He returned to the "U" in '46-47 and last season was captain of the team. He was also president of the student body and senior class.
