

Swim Classes Begin Tuesday

GERVAIS, July 10—Carl Jorgensen who is the swimming pool life-guard and instructor at Settlement park in Woodburn, will begin free teaching to beginners and intermediate swimmers on Tuesday, July 13. The class for intermediate swimmers will be held from 10 to 11 a.m. Qualifications for that class require that the person be able to swim one length of the 105-foot pool. Four swimming strokes and various skills will also be taught in that class. Two classes will be held for beginners, the first one from 11 to 11:30 a.m. for those who are able to swim the width of the 40-foot pool. The second class, for those unable to swim, will be from 11:30 a.m. to noon.

Anyone interested in attending the classes should register with the matron at the pool, Mrs. Etta Avin, by July 11.
