Several informal social affairs are scheduled for the ensuing week with visitors and brides-elect sharing in much of the entertaining.

Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson has invited guests to a 1:30 o'clock dessert luncheon Wednesday afternoon at her country place on Schurman Road for the pleasure of Miss Mary Parker, August bride-elect of Gerald Robison. A linen shower will fete the bride-to-be and bridge will be in play during the afternoon. Thirty have been bidden and the hostess will use summer garden flowers in decorating.

To Fete Study Club

Mrs. David Bennett Hill has bidden members of the Travel Study club to her beach place at Neskowin on Tuesday for luncheon and to spend the day. Motoring to the coast will be Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. Harry N. Crain, Mrs. Donald C. Roberts, Mrs. Prince W. Byrd, Mrs. E. M. Page, Mrs. Daniel J. McLellan, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. E. J. Scellars and Mrs. Richard Slater.

To Honor Visitors

Dr. and Mrs. Kimball Page will be hosts for an informal at home on Wednesday night at their Portland residence in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Bradford C. Collins of Berkeley, Calif., formerly of Salem, who are visiting in the capital at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins. The Pages formerly lived here and they have invited a group of Salem friends of the honor guests to come up to Portland for the affair.

Dates Are Set . . .

Two more brides-elect have announced dates for their coming marriages.

Miss Leona Klebey and Eric Bergman, who revealed their engagement in the spring, have set Sunday, August 22 as the date for their wedding. The ceremony will take place at St. Paul's Episcopal church with the Rev. George H. Swift officiating at the 7 o'clock nuptials. A reception will follow the ceremony.

The bride-elect is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Christian Klebey of Independence and the benedict-elect is the son of Mrs. Amie B. Bergman of Salem. Both are employed at the Oregon Statesman and Mr. Bergman will be a senior at Willamette university and editor of the Collegian next year.

To Wed in Fall

On Sunday, September 12 Donald L. Bower, son of Mrs. A. Hugh Bower, will take as his bride Miss Peggy Lee Pickett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Pickett of Portland. The nuptials will be performed at the Westmoreland Presbyterian church in Portland at 4 o'clock with a reception following in the church parlors.

The couple will make their home in Salem, where Mr. Bower is with the Standard Oil Co. Both are graduates of Oregon State college. Miss Pickett is member of Pi Beta Phi and Mr. Bower a Phi Delta Theta. Their engagement was announced on the campus last winter.

Coronation Time . . .

Anniversary Dinner . . .

Celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary on Monday will be Mr. and Mrs. Ervin F. Smith. They have invited thirty of their friends to an anniversary dinner at Winona's Chalet at 7 o'clock. After the dinner the group will go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Shubert on North 21st street for cards. Arrangements of summer flowers and candles will provide the decorative note at the dinner.

Coming from out-of-town for the affair will be Mrs. Fred McFarlin of Superior, Wisconsin, a sister of Mr. Smith, who has already arrived from the east. Dr. and Mrs. Frank Clark of Tacoma, whose 24th wedding anniversary is the same day, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jackson of Seattle, formerly of Salem, and Dr. and Mrs. Albert Caswell of Eugene.

The Smiths were married in Salem at St. Paul's Episcopal church 25 years ago and have resided here ever since. They have a son, Ervin Smith, jr.

Travel in Mexico . . .

Leaving for a summer's tour of Mexico on Tuesday will be Miss Pauline Morse, daughter of the Paul W. Morse, and Miss Patricia Zahare, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Zahare. The Willamette university coeds are going by Trailways bus to Mexico City. In Irapuato they will visit Miss Morse's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Rafael Venegas (Sarah Morse) and daughters, Lucia and Marie Elena. The girls will travel over Mexico before returning home the first of September.

Reveal Plans . . .

Naming their bridal attendants and plans for their July weddings are Miss Marilyn Morse and Miss Lorita Garrett.

Miss Morse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Morse, will be married on July 25 to Robert W. Hartley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hartley, at a 3 o'clock ceremony in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church. The Rev. Brooks Morse will officiate and the bride-elect's cousin, Mrs. William Morse of Harrisburg, will sing.

Mr. Morse will give his daughter in marriage and her only attendant will be Miss Jean McMahan of Eugene. James Hartley will be his brother's best man and ushers will be Winfield Morse, brother of the bride-to-be, and Lewis Sturges. A reception will follow the rites.

A Garden Ceremony

A garden wedding is planned for Miss Lorita Garrett and Don Graves, whose marriage will take place on July 26 at a morning ceremony in the garden of the North 4th street home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon J. Garrett. Mr. Graves is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Graves. Dr. Charles Durden will officiate at the 10 o'clock rites. Miss Peggy Frantz will sing and will be accompanied by Miss Germonde Lamkin, violin, and Miss Sharon Lamkin, marimba.

Miss Eleanor Hewitt will be the honor attendant for the bride, who will be given in marriage by her father. Ring bearer will be Kenneth Graves, the groom's brother. Judy Frantz will be train bearer, and Roberts Ausderheide will be flower girl for her cousin, Jerry Graves will serve as his brother's best man. A reception will follow in the garden.
