A Garden Ceremony Saturday

In the garden of the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Roth, on Saturday afternoon Miss Lucille Roth, became the bride of Robert W. Beach, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Beach of Seattle. It was at 4 o'clock that Dr. Ralph Walker, pastor of the White Temple Baptist church in Portland, performed the ceremony. Homer Welty sang and Mrs. Welty played the wedding music.

On the arm of her father, the bride walked through the garden to the improvised altar. Her white satin gown was fashioned on traditional lines with train, long sleeves and a square neckline embellished with seed pearl design. She carried a white Bible marked with orchids and Stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert Nelson of Portland was the honor matron and bridesmaids were Mrs. Carl May and Mrs. Leonard Roth. Their marquisette frocks were made with full skirts with a deep ruffle at the bottom, ruffling around the neckline and short sleeves. The honor attendant wore yellow and the bridesmaids were in orchid. They wore matching hats of marquisette and carried wedding rings adorned with sweet peas and other summer flowers in contrasting shades.

Robert Nelson stood with the groom as best man and ushering the guests into the garden were the bride's brothers, Robert and Leonard Roth.

For her daughter's nuptials

Mrs. Roth chose a black dress trimmed in pink and pink and black accessories. Mrs. Beach attended her son's marriage in a grey dress and both had corsages of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

The newlyweds greeted their guests in the garden, where the reception was also held. Mrs. Robert L. Elstrom was in charge of the bride's table and pouring were Mrs. Edward Lelay, Portland and Mrs. Ernest Roth, Mrs. Elvin Herr, served the ices and the groom's sister, Mrs. J. G. Condon of Seattle, cut the bride's cake. Mrs. C. L. Simmons cut the groom's cake. Assisting were Mrs. L. T. Arrell, Mrs. Paul Riensche, Mrs. Earl Schar, Mrs. Carl Johnson, Misses Joanne Roth, Doris Roth, Shirley Roth, Carmen Roth and Hulda Gerig.

Mr. Beach and his bride have gone north to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., on their honeymoon and for traveling she donned a beige gabardine suit with pink blouse and gloves and brown satin hat. The couple will live in Portland, where he is in business.

Mrs. Helen McLeod will be hostess to members of the executive board, appointive officers, and committee chairman of Capital unit, American Legion auxiliary at a no-host picnic dinner at the Chester Zumwalt residence, 845 Hood, 8:15 p. m. Monday. Picture will be taken for the history. The regular board meeting will follow the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bond and daughter, Suzanne, of Seattle are arriving in Salem today for several days stay with his mother, Mrs. Harvey Bond, and Mrs. Charles Weller. The Bonds are on vacation and enroute to southern Oregon and the beaches.

Salem Man To Take Bride

The Lebanon Methodist church will be the setting for the wedding this afternoon of Miss Norman Wyvette Schliske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Schliske of Lebanon, and William Rienert Habernicht, son of Mrs. W. L. Habernicht of Salem. The 3 o'clock nuptials will be performed by the Rev. Carl Mason. Mrs. Joel C. Booth will be the organist and Michael Carolan will be the soloist. Lighting the tapers will be Miss Barbara Mason, the bride's cousin, and Mrs. Carroll Day.

Mr. Schliske will give his daughter in marriage and for her wedding she has selected a white slipper satin gown designed with a court train, long sleeves and a wide lace yoke on the bodice. Her fingertip length tulle veil is edged in lace and she will carry a bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid.

Mrs. E. L. Leonard, the matron of honor, will wear green marquisette with yellow trim and green mitts and hat. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. W. L. Valentine and Mrs. H. C. Knapp, jr., who will have yellow marquisette frocks with green trim, yellow mitts and hats.

Donald L. Schliske, brother of the bride, will serve as best man and ushers include Robert Faland of Condon and Jerry S. Anderson of Salem.

Mrs. Schliske has chosen an aqua crepe gown with white accessories for the wedding and the groom's mother will wear a grey crepe gown with pink accessories. Their corsages will be of baby orchids.

A reception will follow in the church parlors and pouring will be Mrs. Frank Patchell and Mrs. Donald Schliske. Mrs. C. G. Mason will cut her niece's cake. Assisting will be Mesdames William Olds, R. H. Olds, Wilbur Mishler, William F. Peden and Miss Ruth Schackman.

Mr. Habernicht and his bride will go to Yellowstone National park, Cheyenne and Salt Lake City on their honeymoon. For traveling the bride will wear a white gabardine dressmaker suit with white and gold accessories. The couple will be at home in Salem at 1925 Myrtle avenue after August 1.
