

Married at a garden wedding on July 10 were Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Beach (Lucille Roth). The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Roth. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Beach of Seattle. The newlyweds will live in Portland. (Jessen-Miller).

Luncheons, Dinners, Slated

Luncheons and dinner parties highlight the social news during the summer season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Lester Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Meyer will be hosts for a dinner party tonight at the Legion hall for a large group of their friends. Covers will be placed for sixty guests at tables decorated with bouquets of summer garden flowers. Dancing will be enjoyed following the dinner hour.

Mrs. George Aiken will preside at a bridge luncheon this afternoon at her E street home for twelve of her friends. This is the first in a series of luncheons the hostess is planning.

Brunch for Visitor

Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding and Mrs. Carl Chambers were hostesses for a brunch Thursday morning at the Spaulding home on Court street in compliment to Mrs. John H. Lauterman of Portland, who is visiting in Salem this week. The buffet table was centered with zinnias and the individual tables were decorated with bouquets of garden flowers. Mrs. Edgar A. Linden won the prize in bridge.

Covers were placed for Mesdames John Lauterman, J. M. Devers, Oscar Cutler, J. N. Chambers, Edgar A. Linden, Claude Murphy, W. E. Hutchens, David H. Cameron, Henry Hansen, Fred Stump, Earl Newby, Harlan Pearson, Charles A. Sprague, Homer Goulet, sr., Percy R. Kelley, Charles E. Stricklin and the hostesses.

Baptist Church Scene of Rites

AMITY — First Baptist church was the scene of the wedding July 16 at 8 p.m. of Miss Elsie Rogers, daughter of Mrs. Dallas Christensen of Beaver, and William E. Rogers of Amity. The young couple exchanged their vows in a double ring ceremony read by the Rev. C. E. Brickwedel. The bride wore a gown of traditional ivory satin fashioned with slight train, and short sleeves, and headress of seed pearls, holding her fingertip veil of French illusion edged with Swiss lace. She was given in marriage by her father. Maid of honor was Miss Geraldine Jones, cousin of the bride, gowned in an aqua blue, bustle back, floor length dress, and carrying a nosegay of white, pink and blue. Bridesmaids were Miss Thelma Anderson, wearing yellow organza, and Mrs. Lyle Williams, wearing green sheer nylon. They all carried nosegays. Best man was Ted Lehman, brother of the groom. Ushers were Robert Lehman and Norman Green. Misses Doris Newman and Ruth Ohlinger, wearing blue taffeta and sheer pink nylon formal, lighted the candles. Fred

Withers, Jr. sang and accompanist was Mrs. Ralph Konzelman. A reception was held in the social hall of the church. Mrs. M. J. Lehman, aunt of the groom, cut the cake and Mrs. Joe Bowen of Albany, cousin of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mesdames Norman Green, Eugene, John Love, Salem, and Ted Lehman assisted. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Christensen chose a green dressmaker suit, gold trim, white accessories and corsage of gardenias. Mrs. William E. Rogers wore a black costume, white accessories and gardenias. For going away the bride was wearing a maroon suit, white accessories and orchid corsage. She is a graduate of the Amity high school and Mr. Lehman attended the Amity schools. They will be at home August 1 on their farm west of Amity.
