Visitors Are Many in Capital

There are many interesting visitors in the capital this summer with parties arranged in their honor.

Mrs. Freda Livesley of Vancouver, B. C. is spending a few days in the capital and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad W. Paulus, Friday afternoon a group of Mrs. Livesley's friends honored her at luncheon at Silver Creek Falls lodge. Covers were placed for Mrs. Livesley, Mrs. Paulus, Mrs. Reynolds Allen, Mrs. Robert Herrall, Mrs. Chandler Brown and Mrs. Werner Brown.

Miss Frances Roth, who has been visiting in the capital with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roth, the past fortnight is leaving today by plane for Los Angeles, where she is engaged in civil service work. Miss Roth returned to the states the first of the year from the Hawaiian Islands, where she had been engaged in the same work for several years. Miss Roth spent most of her time at Neskwon in the Roth beach home during her stay here. She also visited with her brothers, George and Marvin, and their families.

Visitors from South

Dr. and Mrs. Howard J. Varney and daughters, Mary Ellen and Patricia, of Bakersfield, California have been visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Henderson, at their Madison street home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Knapp had as their guests this week Mrs. Rose Gibley and children, Jane and Don, of Palo Alto, Calif. They stopped here enroute south to their home. Arriving this weekend for a visit with the Knapps and her mother, Mrs. W. W. Moore, will be the latter's sister-in-law, Mrs. Nettie Moore, and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Payne and children, Larry and Marian, of Eugene.

Mrs. Mildred Boyington of Oregon City is spending the weekend in Salem at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr.

Mrs. Irving McCoy of Portland has returned to her home after a visit in the capital with her sister, Mrs. Harry Schenk. Mr. Schenk, who has been in San Francisco, will stop here this weekend enroute to Sun Valley, where he will attend a business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Tweedie and Freddy have completed a three weeks vacation with relatives in California. They visited the J. H. Tweedies, former Salem people, at San Rafael with Mr. and Mrs. Hyde Jantze (JoAnn Tweedie) in Oakland; at Manhattan Beach with the Gordon Tweedies and in San Diego with Mrs. Tweedie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Brown.

Miss Leah Case returned recently from a three weeks vacation trip during which she visited her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Reed of Manhattan Beach, Calif.

Miss Martin Married

Baskets of gladioluses and larkspur decorated the altar of the First Congregational church on July 18 for the wedding of Miss Evelyn Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Martin, and Arthur M. Meola, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Meola of Newark, New Jersey. The Rev. Louis White performed the 3 o'clock nuptials. Mrs. Edmond Meola sang and Mrs. Ronald Craven was the organist. Lighting the tapers were Miss Jane Martin of Eugene and Miss Mary Arnold, who wore pink dresses and blue bandeaus in their hair.

Of white satin was the bridal gown fashioned with a net yoke engorged with a crushed bertha edged in lace. The full skirt ended in a train, which was edged in lace and in front the skirt was caught up to reveal rows of lace. A crown of lace and seed pearls held her fingertip veil in place and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis and white carnations centered with an orchid. Mrs. Martin gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Walter E. Martin, aunt of the bride, was the matron of honor and wore a blue taffeta frock with pink ribbon sash. Bridesmaids were Miss Jeannette Martin, Mrs. Fred Fisher, Mrs. William Holt and Miss Betty Burrell of Albany, who wore pink taffeta dresses with blue sashes. They all wore shoulder length veils caught to pink and blue tiaras and matching mitts. They carried fan shaped bouquets of daisies, larkspur, roses and carnations.

Dianne Martin in a pink frock was flower girl and Benny Kelley was ring bearer.

Andrew Coleman with the groom as best man and ushers were Bud Benson, and Forester, Eugene, William Holt and Harry Hougren.

For her daughter's marriage Mrs. Martin chose a pink crepe gown with silver sequin trim and corsage of white gladiolus blossoms centered with pink rosebuds. The groom's parents were unable to come west for the rites due to illness.

A reception followed in the fireplace room. Presiding at the bride's table and assisting were Mesdames Fred Lovejoy of Taft, Frank Martin of Eugene, Dan Hien, Woodland, Wash., Ellen Jordan, Otto Lehman, Misses Rita Morrison, Mariene Roller, Helen Cadd, Diane Meola.

The newlyweds went south to Los Angeles on their honeymoon and for traveling the bride wore a tobacco tan suit with beige topcoat, cocoa hat and accessories and corsage of orchids. Mr. and Mrs. Meola will live in Salem in their new home on Vaughn avenue.

Sweetheart Is Chosen

Carolyn Slocum, 1947 sweetheart of the Sigma Chi chapter on the Willamette university campus, has been selected along with five other Sigma Chi sweethearts to attend the national Sigma Chi convention in Seattle late in August. She was chosen from 100 sweethearts representing chapters throughout the United States. One of the six will be crowned the national Sigma Chi sweetheart.

Judges were Steve Hamming, reporter; John Wayne, movie actor; and Milton Caniff, cartoonist, all Sigma Chi members. The coronation will be on August 28 at the Olympic hotel in Seattle, convention headquarters. Miss Slocum will be a sophomore at Willamette in the fall and is a Pi Beta Phi. A number of Salem men plan to attend the sessions.

Hostesses Fete Miss Meyers

Miss Marilyn Quamme and Miss Jeannette Scheidel were hostesses for a surprise bridal shower to fete Miss Betty Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Meyers, whose marriage to Nick Weiss will be on August 25 at St. Joseph's Catholic church.

The miscellaneous shower was at the home of Miss Quamme's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Quamme. After an informal evening a dessert supper was served by the hostesses.

Honoring Miss Meyers were Mrs. F. L. Meyers, Mrs. Alois Weiss, Mrs. C. L. Cox, Mrs. Robert Lee, Mrs. John Meichel, Mrs. A. F. Boytana, Misses Bernice Wedmore, Beverly Wedmore, Darleen Scharrif, Delores Lehman, Shirley Rockefeller, Ruthann Morgan, Nellie Murray, Doris Lapping, Peggy Meyers, Maxine Meyers and the hostesses.

Nebraska club auxiliary was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. Grace Kasson with Mrs. Nellie Osborn assisting. A club picnic was planned for August 22 at Leslie park. Next regular meeting will be August 25 with Mrs. A. I. Franz, 1505 North Capitol street.

Family Picnic Honors Visitors

A group of relatives gathered at the Dallas city park on Thursday of this week for a picnic in honor of the Webb N. Beebe family of Escondido, Calif. They have been visiting Mr. Beebe's sister, Mrs. Jack Hayes of Dallas and other relatives in Salem.

Mr. Beebe attended high school at Dallas, took pharmacy at Oregon State college, was employed in a drug store in Dallas for a time and is now owner of his own store in Escondido. He is president of the chamber of commerce there. Mr. and Mrs. Beebe, their son Duane and daughter Nylene are taking their vacation through Oregon.

Those attending were the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Webb N. Beebe, Duane and Nylene, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hayes and granddaughter, Debby Hamilton of Dallas, N. W. Barham and Mrs. A. J. Barham (uncle and aunt of Beebe), Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barham and grandson, "Skippy" Sawyer, Jack Hayes, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Barham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meyer and Charla Jo, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Scheidehammer, Leanne and Maribeth, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Barham, sons George and Dan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Justice, Jr. and Karen, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barham, all of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barham of Corvallis.

Betrothals Revealed By Two

Two more couples have added their names to the engaged ranks. Miss Elsie Johns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Johns, and John W. Dixon of Portland, son of Webster Dixon of Portland, have announced their engagement and the date for their coming marriage.

The couple's wedding will be an event of September 5 at the First Presbyterian church with a reception following at the Johns home.

Miss Johns is a graduate of Salem high school and has been attending the University of Oregon. Her fiancé will enter the University of Oregon law school in the fall. The couple will live in Eugene and she will also continue with her studies.

Salem Man Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hill of Pendleton are announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Lois, to Al Dahlen, son of Mrs. Augusta Dahlen of Salem. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Hill graduate this spring from the University of Oregon, where she was affiliated with Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. Her fiancé attends the University of Oregon and is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

To Remain in Hawaii

Friends of Miss Delphine Savage, who sailed for Hawaii on June 4, will be interested to learn that she has decided to remain in the islands and has accepted a position with the Honolulu branch of the Burroughs Adding Machine Co. She is temporarily residing with Mr. and Mrs. William Faught (Barbara Kurtz), formerly of Salem, who reside at Kailua on the Island of Oahu.

Supper Given for Architects

Miss Elizabeth Lord and Miss Edith Schryver entertained the board members of the Oregon Society of Landscape Architects at their Mission street home at a garden supper party. The society was reorganized in May, having disbanded during the war. Prof. Fred A. Cuthbert, head of the landscape department of the University of Oregon, is the president and Mrs. Phillip Brandt of Salem is secretary-treasurer.

David Cameron to Head Dance Club

David H. Cameron has been elected president of the Monday Night Dancing club for the ensuing year. Election was held Thursday night at a picnic supper at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Fitzmaurice for the club members. Other officers are Chester Zumwalt, vice president; Mrs. Paul Lardon, secretary-treasurer; Clifton Mudd and Gene Vandeneynde, directors.

Tentative plans for the fall dancing season were made with the first dinner dance slated for mid-October. Six dinner dances are planned for the season and further arrangements will be made at a meeting in September.

Covers were placed for Prof. and Mrs. Cuthbert of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gerke and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Einfeldt of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Brandt, Miss Lord and Miss Schryver.

Mrs. Roy Remington left by plane Friday for a fortnight's visit in Dell Rapids, South Dakota with members of her family. She will attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Mary Hermanson, on August 1. Miss Hermanson visited in the capital last year.

Miss Mary Parker will motor to Portland today to attend the wedding of her Alpha Chi Omega sorority sister, Miss Jane Lee Mathers, and Ronald McCreary, tonight at Rose City Park Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeArmond left Friday for a ten day sojourn at Neskwon.
