A Garden Wedding Today

At a garden wedding this morning at the North 4th street home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon J. Garrett, Miss Lorita Garrett will become the bride of Don Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Graves. At ten o'clock Dr. Charles Durden will perform the rites at one end of the garden before a setting of pink and white gladioluses. The bride, on the arm of her father, will enter from a floral arch and the bridal path will be lined with mixed garden flowers. Miss Peggy Frantz will sing and will be accompanied by Miss Germonde Lamkin, violin, and Miss Sharon Lamkin, marimba. . . . Of ivory brocaded satin is the wedding gown, fashioned with a high neckline, pointed bodice, long sleeves and a train. Her French illusion veil is edged in lace and will cascade from a coronet of orange blossoms, which the bride's mother wore at her wedding. For "something old" she will carry an ivory silk handkerchief, which belonged to her great-grandmother in England. She will carry a heart shaped bouquet of gardenias. . . . Miss Eleanor Hewitt will be the maid of honor and will wear a mist blue taffeta and marquisette frock with matching mits and a picture hat. She will carry a fan shaped bouquet of white larkspur and pink carnations. Roberta Aufderheide, in a yellow organdy frock will be flower girl for her cousin and Judy Frantz as train bearer, will wear blue organdy. Their dresses are identical and made floor length and they will have short net veils. Kenneth Graves, the groom's brother, will be ring bearer. . . . Brother The Best Man Jerry Graves will stand with his brother as best man and usher will be Edwin Cater, Mar- ion Boatwright and Donald Drees. Mrs. Garrett has selected a rose shadow crepe gown with white accessories for her daughter's nuptials and Mrs. Graves will wear an aqua crepe gown with white accessories. Their corsages will be of pink roses and gardenias. . . . A reception will follow in the garden with the bride couple greeting their guests. Mrs. C. E. Garrett will cut her granddaughter's cake. Mrs. Garrett is celebrating her 55th wedding anniversary on Tuesday and the table will be centered with a doll dressed in a wedding gown made identical to hers and from the material of her dress. Mrs. Robert Aufderheide will preside at the coffee urn and Mrs. William De- Pew will preside at the punch bowl. Assisting will be Miss Win- nie Schuman, Miss Carol Roemer of Corvallis, Miss Jean and Miss Lenore Niewander, Mrs. Delmer Dewey, and Mrs. Royce Linhart. Ronetta Garrett will pass the cream cakes. . . . The couple will motor along the Oregon coast and to Crater Lake on their honeymoon. For going away the bride will wear a pastel pink gabardine suit with white accessories and corsage of gardenias. Mr. Graves and his bride will be at home in Salem on South Cottage street. . . . Mrs. F. R. Bowersox of Mon- mouth, Mrs. Floyd M. White, Mrs. Luna Wyatt and Miss Renka L. Swart of Salem returned last Fri- day from a trip to Arush Wana camp where they attended the fourth annual missionary conference. Several missionaries from India, Burma and Lincoln Christian center, Sacramento, Calif., were the speakers. . . . On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. White, Mrs. Wyatt, Miss Swart, Miss Mary Beth Fulton of New York City and Miss Mary Opal Crone of Sacramento made the trip to Mt. Hood where they vis- ited Timberline Lodge. . . . Grand court, Order of the Ama- ranth of Oregon, will hold its an- nual picnic Sunday, August 1, at Avalon park on Highway 98W be- tween Newberg and Tigard. A bas- ket lunch will be served at noon. . . .
