

Women's SECTION

Garden Tea..

Event of Wednesday afternoon will be the annual mid-summer silver tea for which members of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will be hostess in the lovely garden of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, 715 N. Summer st. All Presbyterian women and interested friends are invited to call between 2 and 4:30 o'clock to view the beautiful begonias, fuchsias, phlox and geraniums, which are now in bloom.

Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., is chairman of the tea and assisting are Mesdames Shinn, Carl W. Chambers, Phil H. Schnell, Ervin Smith, Arthur Morehouse and Charles A. Sprague.

DIVING BELLES

Popular past time for members of the high school set during the summer months is swimming. After working hours and on weekends the girls trek to the pools for a cool dip or go to the beaches or mountain resorts for a swim. Pictured here are a group of young girls enjoying an afternoon at Olinger pool.

Four, who posed by the edge of the tank, are left to right, Sharon Plunkett, Nancy Miller, Alice Girod and Betty Cooley.

A threesome at the right just ready to go in for a swim are Bernice Imlah, in front, Anne Forristel and Gwen Fry.

Walking along the edge of the pool in the upper right picture are Elaine Stanley, Norma Canfield and Elizabeth Johnson. (Jesten-Miller photos.)

Nuptial Plans Told . . .

The wedding of Miss Pauline Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, and Robert E. Guild, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guild of Madison, Wisconsin, will be an event of Saturday night, August 14 at the First Presbyterian church. Dr. Chester W. Hamblin will perform the 8:30 o'clock rites and Miss Edith Fairham will sing. Mrs. E. H. Cravens will be the organist. Lighting the candles will be Miss Grace Widdows and Miss Maxine Muckle of Portland, a Pi Beta Phi sorority sister of the bride-elect.

Mr. Wallace will give his daughter in marriage and she has asked her sister, Mrs. Robert W. Gormsen, to be her matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Roberta Meyer and Miss Pauline Williams of Toppenish, Wash., a roommate of the bride-elect at Annie Wright Seminary.

Clyde Guild, who was married Saturday, will come west with his bride from Madison, Wisconsin to be his brother's best man. Ushers will be Robert W. Gormsen, Thomas Osborn, Palmer Lee, Richard Drinnen, Norman Stone and Bill Smith, all Willamette university classmates of the benedict-elect.

A reception will follow the nuptials at the Wallace Orchards home of the bride's parents.

Mr. Guild will take his bride to Madison, Wisconsin to live next year, where he will attend the University of Wisconsin to study for his master's degree. He graduated from Willamette university in June.

Rehearsal Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wallace will entertain at dinner Thursday night at their home in honor of their daughter and her fiancé and members of the bridal party following the wedding rehearsal.

Miss Edna Sterling of Seattle will arrive in the capital Thursday to attend the wedding and will be a guest at the Wallace home.

Travelers Go South and East . . .

Travelers continue to hold the social spotlight during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. McLellan left this weekend for a week's sojourn in San Francisco and Monterey, Calif., where they will visit at the home of Mrs. Edgar Vincent. The McLellans will be joined in the southern city by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. McLellan, Jr., and son, Dan, of Wyoming, who will also visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Vincent.

Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist are leaving Thursday by car for Kansas City, Kansas, to visit with her mother, Mrs. L. B. Campbell, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Campbell. They will be away three weeks.

To Go South

Leaving Friday for Long Beach, Calif., will be Mr. and Mrs. Gus Moore, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ronald Hudkins and Mrs. E. E. Gilbert. They will attend the Y's Men's convention which opens on August 15. Enroute the Salem folk will stop in San Francisco, planning to return in a fortnight. Also motoring south to attend the convention will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Quistad plan to leave next Sunday for Carmel, Calif., to visit her father, C. B. Rumsey. The travelers will also stop in San Francisco a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Downs and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Olson, who are here from Chicago, plan to leave Monday for the Chemeketa trip at Mt. Rainier.

August Brides - Elect Plan Weddings ...

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Two August brides-elect to announce plans for their weddings are Miss Helen Paulson and Miss Alice Rose.

Miss Paulson and Leonard Rinearson, Jr., of Oregon City will be married on August 21 at a 4 o'clock ceremony at the First Presbyterian church with the Rev. John Goodenberger officiating. Lighting the candles will be Misses Rebecca and Betty Rinearson, of Oregon City, sisters of the groom-elect. Miss Elizabeth Nelson will sing and Mrs. E. H. Cravens will be at the organ.

Mrs. John F. Hayes will arrive from Detroit, Mich., to be her sister's matron of honor and her little girl, Nancy Hayes, will be flower girl. Dr. and Mrs. Hayes and their daughters are driving west and will be here the week of the wedding. Mrs. William Banton (Jessie Ellis) and Miss Phyllis Johnson of North Bend, a Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sister of the bride-elect, will be bridesmaids. Miss Paulson is the daughter of the Oscar Paulsons and will be given in marriage by her father.

John Roake of Oregon City will be best man and ushers will be Oscar and William Paulson, brothers of the bride-to-be, Jerry Krafoe, Portland, and Peter Rinearson, Bremerton. A reception will follow in the church parlors.

Jones-Rose Rites

Miss Alice Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Rose, and Jesse Morris Jones, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse M. Jones of Hood River, will be married on August 22 at the Jason Lee Methodist church. The bride-elect's uncle, the Rev. Everett H. Gardner of Warrenton, will perform the 4 o'clock rites. Miss Edith Fairham will sing and Mrs. John Schmidt, Jr. will be at the organ.

Mr. Rose will give his daughter in marriage. Miss Gene Trout of Denver will be cousin's maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Mrs. Winsor P. Acton of State college, Pa., Miss Patricia Ann Jones, Portland, sister of the benedict-elect, Miss Betty Brinkley, a cousin of Miss Rose, and Mrs. John E. Gardner, her aunt.

Stanley Ryals will act as best man for Mr. Jones. A reception will be held at the Rose home on North River road.

Susanna Schramm to Marry in Fall . . .

Romantic news today concerns the announcement being made by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Schramm of the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Susanna Schramm, to Lyman Preston Johnson of Denver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman A. Johnson of Topeka, Kansas. The wedding is planned for late September and will take place in Salem.

Miss Schramm is a graduate of Willamette university and a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She took her occupational therapy training at Mills college and for the past two years has been in Denver as an occupational therapist at Fitzsimmons General hospital.

Mr. Johnson is a graduate of the School of Architecture, University of Kansas and is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity and Scarab, national architecture fraternity. During the war he served as a captain in the army engineer corps. He is now an architectural designer in Denver. Mrs. Schramm returned home a week ago from Denver where she visited with her daughter and fiancé.

Taking time out between swims on the diving board are, left to right, Donna Satter, Charlotte Moffitt, Mary Pelka, Marilyn Myers and Shirley Jones. (Jesten-Miller).

Summer Vacationists . . .

With the summer nearing an end it is time to say au revoir to several visitors and welcome home vacationists.

Miss Sally Veach of New York and Atlanta, Ga., leaves today by train for Great Neck, Long Island following a two months visit in Salem with her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. William Crothers.

Mrs. Dale Shepherd and children, Jeffrey and Nancy, are leaving Tuesday for their home in Sacramento, Calif., following a fortnight's sojourn in Salem with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo O. Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnell Sanders and son, Delano, will return to their home in Coos Bay today following a two months stay in the capital with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Delano.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Potts and sons, Larry and Ronny, will return home today from a week's stay at Neskowin. Also returning today after a week's sojourn at Neskowin are Mr. and Mrs. Coburn Grabenhorst, Coburn and Jeffrey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cannon, Christine, Cathy and Cynthia, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Devers, Jr. and Paula.

Seattle Rites of Interest . . .

A wedding of interest in Seattle on August 14 will be that of Miss Sallie Doran, who has often visited in the capital at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard, and Martin Sorber of Tacoma. The ceremony will take place at the Mt. Baker Presbyterian church with a reception following at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Doran.

Mrs. George C. Alexander (Helen Shepard) will be one of the bridesmaids for Miss Doran, who was the maid of honor for Mrs. Alexander in March. Susan Shepard will be the flower girl and Sidney Shepard will light the tapers. George Alexander will serve as an usher for his Beta Theta Phi fraternity brother. At the reception Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard will be among those pouring. The Shepard family will leave for Seattle on Thursday and Mr. Alexander will fly north Friday night in time for the wedding rehearsal.

Sun bathing by the pool's edge are left to right, Bonnie Stewart, Edna Marie Hill, Joyce Armstrong and Susan Perry. (Jesten-Miller).