Mary Parker Will Become Bride of Mr. Robison At Nuptials Today

St. Paul's Episcopal church will be the setting this afternoon for the marriage of Miss Mary Letty Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence William Parker, and Gerald Manley Robison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manley F. Robison. At 3 o'clock the Rev. George H. Swift will perform the nuptials before a large gathering of friends and relatives. All white flowers will be used to decorate the altar and the pews will be marked with flowers and white ribbon. Miss Bernice Isham will sing before the bridal party enters and Miss Ruth Bedford will be at the organ.

Preceding the bride to the altar will be Mrs. Robert Siddoway of Portland, as matron of honor, and the Misses Jeanne and Janice Myers, as bridesmaids. Their dresses are a lil of frost green taffeta fashioned with Peter Pan collars, short sleeves and full, gathered skirts. They will carry bouquets of white gladiolus and asters and in their hair will be wreaths of white flowers.

The bride will enter the church on the arm of her father, who will give his only daughter in marriage. Her handsome bridal gown is of white satin fashioned with a drop shoulder scalloped neckline with nylon net yoke. The two tiered skirt is scalloped and is gathered to the scalloped waistline. The train is circular and the sleeves are long. Her full length veil of illusion will cascade from a half hat of French lace and net with clusters of white carnations and marquisette caught at the side. Her bouquet will be of red roses.

Ralph Stearns of Portland will stand with his cousin as best man and seating the guests will be Richard Stearns of Eugene, also a cousin, Dale D. Morgan and Richard Williams of Portland, and Richard Hill.

Mrs. Parker has selected a powder blue crepe gown with white lace peplum which cascades to the hemline in back for her daughter's nuptials. She will wear a blue hat with lace trim, white gloves and a corsage of gardenias and pink carnations. Mrs. Robison will attend her son's wedding in a plum duvelyn gown with white hat and corsage of gardenias and carnations.

Reception in Garden

The couple will receive the congratulations of their guests at a reception in the garden of the Parker home on Rose street. Presiding at the coffee urns will be Mesdames George Waters, J. M. Deviers, William Ekblad, Lee Warnick, Frederick Hill Thompson and Frank James. Cutting the cake will be Mrs. William E. Chandler of Bend and Mrs. Paul VanSchoy. At the punch bowl will be Mesdames Catherine Stearns of Junction City, Wayne Gordon, Roger K. Putnam and Walter L. Spaulding. Serving will be the Misses Grace Shields, Marilyn Hjort, Margaret Moritz, Jeanne DeMytt, Anita Hager, Laurie Goodell, Portland, Jane Walsh and Mrs. William Dunn, Woodburn. Assisting in the garden and about the rooms in the house will be Mesdames Carl Anthony, Carl Emmons, A. A. Siwert, David Eason, Leona Johnson, K. K. Adams, Ralph Gordon, George Hoffman, Arthur Bates, Ruth Herndon, Fred Keeler, David Cameron, Harlan Pearson, A. A. Siwert, Claude Murphy, C. B. McCullough, Roy H. Mills, I. M. Doughton, Frank G. Myers, James Hatfield, Woodburn, Misses Artie Phillips and Mary Phelps.

When the newlyweds leave on their honeymoon the bride will don a grey bengaline suit with white hat trimmed in roses and green veiling and white accessories. Her corsage will be of red roses. Mr. Robison and his bride will be at home at the Devereaux apartments after August 22.

The Spinsters will meet Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Fairmount Hill home of Mrs. Edward O. Stadter, Jr. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Roy Edgerton and Miss Lorraine Taylor.

Oak Knoll Salem lady players took honors at the golf course on Friday. Mrs. Ortis Goskey took first in lowest number of putts and also was runner-up in low net. Taking honors as low net was Mrs. Samuel Miller. Luncheon followed the morning of play.

Capital Unit, American Legion auxiliary executive board will meet Monday night at the home of Mrs. I. N. Bacon, 1810 N. 19th street, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Merle Travis, president, will preside.
