Putnam said the most serious shortage of teachers, based on existing contracts for the next school year, is in the rural school districts and in some of the larger high schools. Teachers in specialized subjects also are difficult to obtain despite that their salaries have been boosted in some instances as much as 150 per cent over five years ago, Putnam con-

Putnam said some relief had been obtained during the past few years through consolidations of smaller school districts. These consolidations, Putnam declared, had made it possible to increase teachers' salaries and provide more attractive working conditions. In virtually all Oregon school districts the salary schedule is far above the minimum permitted by legislative action. Lack of Facilities

Another serious situation confronting Oregon educators, Putnam declared, is the lack of school facilities. He predicted that the 1948-49 enrollment would far exceed that of last year with only a handful of new school buildings under construction or recently completed. Few school districts, the records show, have taken ad-

Grains Make Minor Gains

CHICAGO, Aug. 14-(AP)-Grains overcame early nervousness and bounded back to close mostly with gains today. While most price changes were fractional, the upturn in September corn amounted to nearly 3 cents.

Early selling was based on an overnight statement by Secretary of Commerce Sawyer that wheat exports should be reduced substantialy this year. However, the traders.

Wheat closed 1/4 lower to higher. September $2.241/2-1/4, corn was 1/2-2% higher, September $1.68\%-\%, oats were \% lower to \% higher, September 73\%-\%, rye was 1\% higher, December $1.77\%, and soybeans were 1 cent higher, \Windows RABBITRY needs rabbit top prices. Salem Market Quotations

The situation shows little or no improvement from the past four or five years, said Rex Putnam, state superintendent of public instrucvantage of the 1947 legislative act permitting them to bond up to 10 per cent of their property valuations instead of 5 per cent as under the previous statutes.

It was expected, according to Putnam, that the 194° legislature will be asked to increase the minimum salary schedule for teachers and also authorize additional funds for general school opera-
