

Miss Rena Skaggs to Marry

Miss Rena Colleen Skaggs and Robert R. Clark will exchange their marriage vows at a ceremony this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Congregational church with the Rev. Seth Huntington officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Skaggs and will be given in marriage by her father. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George W. Clark of Sandy.

Lighting the tapers will be Misses Jeannette Martin and Adah Mae Teel, who will wear pink taffeta gowns. Miss Grace Ashford will sing and Mrs. W. H. East will be the organist.

Of sheer white nylon over satin is the wedding gown, which was designed and made by the bride. The dress is fashioned with a scalloped neckline and sleeves and the skirt is embellished with three rows of scalloping at the hipline and a train, which is also scalloped. Her three-quarter length veil will be caught to a braided tiara of nylon and she will carry a fan shaped bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis centered with a pink orchid.

Attending the bride will be Mrs. Philip Judson of Medford as matron of honor, Miss Mary Elizabeth Reinhart and Miss Dawna Welty as bridesmaids. They will all wear sky blue rayon sheer frocks over blue taffeta made with V necklines, pointed collars and a corded seam at the hipline of the full skirts. Their nosegays will be of pink and white carnations. Diane Martin, daughter of W. E. Martins, will wear pink taffeta and will scatter rose petals before the bride.

Willis Grafe of Detroit will serve as best man and ushers include Gordon Asbury of Cottage Grove and Byron Sagabro of Portland. Mrs. Skaggs will wear a black crepe gown with draped skirt for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Clark's dress is of black with a white print. Their corsages will be of white carnations and pink roses.

A reception will be held in the fireplace room with Mrs. Walter E. Martin cutting the cake and Mrs. Arthur Martin presiding at the punch bowl. When the couple leave on a fortnight's honeymoon trip through Oregon and Washington the bride will wear a navy blue crepe gown with swirl skirt, a pink shortie coat and navy accessories. A pink orchid will be pinned to her dress. This fall the couple will be at home in Corvallis at 808 N. 11th street, where both will be seniors at Oregon State college.

Among the out-of-town guests coming for the rites will be the groom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kester of Jacksonville, and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Clark, Jr. of Buttonwillow, Calif.

Mrs. Irene Connitt of Longview, Wash., is expected to arrive in the capital Monday for a week's visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Benson.

Vows Read Saturday

The fireside room of the First Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding of Mrs. Esther Easton and A. M. Austin of Forest Grove on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock with the Rev. John Goodenberger officiating. Only members of the immediate family witness the exchange of vows.

A forest green suit was chosen by the bride for her wedding. She wore a brown hat and accessories, pink blouse and gloves and pinned to her suit was an orchid corsage. Mrs. V. R. Tuel of Stayton was her sister's only attendant and she wore a wine crepe dress with grey accessories and corsage of gardenias and roses. Mr. Tuel was best man for Mr. Austin.

A wedding dinner at Silver Creek Falls lodge followed the ceremony. After a honeymoon trip to Canadian points and Victoria the couple will be at home in Forest Grove, where he is manager of the First National bank. The new Mrs. Austin has been employed here at Mutual Federal Savings and Loan association.

Albert Grubers Are Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gruber of Auburn street, west of Salem were honored at a reception on their golden wedding anniversary on Monday, August 9, from 4 to 8 o'clock. The affair was at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Edna Sloan on East State street.

The couple was married in Salem in 1898 and both have lived in this vicinity for 54 years. Mrs. Sloan received the guests, assisting her with the guest book was Mrs. William Fisher. Centering the serving table was a tiered wedding cake, topped with an angel and bearing the inscription, Psalm 91:11. Also assisting were Mrs. Edna Chubb, Ruby Chubb and Mrs. Raymond Kites. Out of town guests were Mrs. Marion Buckner from Omaha, Neb., Mrs. Esther Woods, Cathedral City, Calif., Mrs. Edna Chubb, Ruby and Ralph, of Battleground, Wash., Mrs. Hattie Boling, Florence, Ore., Ray Bliven, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bliven and Rosalie, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bliven, Lee Lent, Burton Lent, Leona Lent and Alfred Lent all of Woodburn. Over 50 Salem friends and relatives called during the day.

Meeting at Neskowin today for a picnic and a round of golf will be Mr. and Mrs. Bjarn Erickson and sons, Wayne and John, Betty Brinkley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feike, Dennis and Mary, and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney King and daughter, Barbara, of Portland, formerly of Salem.

Mrs. E. W. Norman, Mary and Judy of Detroit, Mich., have been visiting Mrs. Norman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Lingren and her sisters Mrs. LaVerne J. Young and Mrs. William Griffiths. They were registered at the Surfside for much of their stay on the west coast.

Several Salem families are vacationing at Neskowin this month. Miss Margaret Wagner and Miss Patricia Vandenberg leave today for a week's stay at the beach resort. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Perry, John and Diane, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Olinger, Susan and Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Foreman and Judy and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolph also leave today for a fortnight's stay at Neskowin.

Miss Hoak To Wed

Of interest to the couple's many Salem friends is the wedding of Miss Nancy Nell Hoak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Hoak of Portland, and Merle Aldo Akeson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl A. Akeson of Clackamas, which will take place tonight at Bethel Congregational church in Beaverton at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Francis T. Sturtevant will perform the rites and Robert Barnes will be the soloist. Lighting the candles will be young Eddie Hoak and Tommy Akeson.

Mr. Hoak will give his titian haired daughter in marriage and her bridal gown is of ivory satin fashioned period style with an apron skirt edged in a ruffle which meets in back to form a bustle. The sleeves are short and the bodice is designed with a lace yoke. She will wear lace mitts and her fingertip veil is caught at the side with rosebuds. She will carry a nosegay of yellow roses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Nancy Stuart will be the maid of honor and her gown is of yellow nylon and bridesmaid is Miss Ann Elliott, whose dress is of turquoise nylon. Their frocks are made with short sleeves, full skirts with peplums and bustles. They will wear matching shoulder length net veils and carry old fashioned nosegays.

Gordon Akeson will be his brother's best man and ushers will be Eugene Stranberg, Edgar Hoak, Jr., John Stuller and Ira Jones. Mrs. Hoak will wear an orchid satin gown for her daughter's wedding with an orchid corsage. Mrs. Akeson's dress is of turquoise moss crepe and her corsage will be of yellow orchids.

A reception at Sunset Gardens, the home of the bride's parents, will follow the ceremony. Mrs. E. S. Hoak, Jr. will cut the cake. The couple will go north to Canada on their wedding trip and for traveling the bride has chosen a forest green faille suit with flared jacket and gold button trim. Her accessories will be white.
