Senators Sweep Double Bill From Chiefs, Near 5th Place

by Al Lightner

Two new pitchers on the Senators staff, but both are young rookies who can't be counted on to do much yet. One is Irv Whitt, the lad who looked okeh while hurling for the parent Portlands against the Salems here Monday night. Irv is the former Klamath Falls high footballer, and has had brief flings in both the St. Louis Cardinal and Phildelphia Phil harems, but as outfielder, not a pitcher. The other is Clyde DeWitt, the big Reedsport kid who should'nt be forgotten for his record-smashing basketball venture during the 1945 state prep cage tourney here. De-Witt has been out on option most of the season after being picked up in spring training at Corvallis. Biz Boss George Emigh has called him to finish up the campaign with the varsity . . . Another pitching youngster from these parts, Rod Province, is no longer with the Cleveland chain, his dad tells us. Tall Rod was at Ardmore, Okla., in a Class D circuit, but when he suddenly realized he was pitching

Vanni Cinch for New Stolen Base Record

One of these evenings, and perhaps same already has arrived, Spokane's Edo Vanni, the pre-war Seattle swiftly, will swipe his 53rd base. When he does, he also cops a WIL individual record. Vic Buccola, when with Spokane in 1942, pilfered 52 to establish the league mark. (Bremerotn's Eddie Murphy stole 51 times last season.) Vanni had 45, through averages released last week, and at the rate he's going can rack up finally into the seventies. The broken leg the wee speedster absorbed a few years ago seems no bother to him at all now ... Re WIL records, our own townies might corral themselves a dandy also before September 15. We've checked back through league records from the beginning (all except the absent 1937 season) to discover that the 165 double plays made last season by Yakima amount to the ceiling in that department. The current Salems and Vancouver are battling for the "dee-pee" lead and, not including last night's doubleheader, the Senators have 131. Last week's averages listed Salem only four behind the Caps, 126 to 122. The Solons have had nine since the averages were compiled ...

Spaeter-Gedzius-Nunes Combine a Goody

Unquestionably one of the best reasons for the mass of double plays is Al Spacter and his ability to pivot and throw the relay as middle man. But another two accomplices who have played their parts well are Joe Gedzius and Mel Nunes ...

The Ford Motor Co. takes an on-the-spot par in their co-sponsorship of American Legion junior baseball. For example, in last weekend's state finals here, the auto outfit assigned one Lon Brown of Seattle to the meet. Brown is in charge of Legion ball in the Northwest district. And what he had to say about the way the Oregon playoffs railed for two more in the sevwere conducted should make the sponsoring Capital Posters indeed enth, Saltzman went out and in Ted Jennings hit a homer off satisfied. Sherman Takes Victory In Midget Race Mainer

Little Lou Sherman, who seems to have emphatically found the range in his No. 77 "Offy", last night snatched the main event win in the midget auto racing program at Hollywood bowl, and beat out by half a lap his No. 1 opponent, Bullet Bob Gregg. Rapid Robert salvaged a fistful of honors for himself in the entire outing, however, as he established a new track record of 15.85 seconds in the time All-Stars Top trials, and then won both the helmet dash and first heat race. The previous record of :15.90, had been made only the week previous by Sherman. Last night Sherman romped around in 15.87 himself, to once more emphasize the swiftness that has attached itself to the Gregg-Sherman individual duel.

In up-to-date point standings, Gregg still holds the lead with 849. Sherman is second at 775 and Gordy Livingston third at 635. Livingston finished third in the 35-lap reverse handicap mainer also, and the time for the race was a hot

100,000 View Ruth Body: Funeral in New York Today

NEW- YORK, Aug. 18-(P)-Babe Ruth was taken tonight from the steel and concrete rotunda of Yankee Stadium, where he had lain in state since yesterday and received the ho-mage of more than 100,000 ad-mirers. The body of baseball's home-run king was removed to a Manhattan funeral home, there to remain until funeral services tomorrow morning in St. Pat-rick's cathedral.

Already here for the funeral were public and baseball fig-ures from all over the country. Many of them had joined the public in paying their respects to Ruth as he lay in a mahogany casket in the stadium. Late this afternoon Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler led a group of baseball notables in a visit to the casket. Chandler stood weeping beside it with an arm about the shoulders of his 14-year-old son, Daniel. When he left the com-Daniel. Dodgers Near Top; Red Sox in Second

The Brooklyn Dodgers, steadily on the come since Burt Shotton took over as manager, Wednesday cuddled themselves up to within a single game of the National league lead when they nosed Philadelphia's Phillies, 1-0, while the leading Boston Braves were being socked, 8-2, by the New York Giants. Rex Barney hurled the Dodgers to their win, and yielded only one hit. A wild pitch in the first inning brought in the lone run. The Giants' Sheldon Jones pitched that win and his 12th victory was backed up by homers by Sid Gordon

The Boston Red Sox bounced into second place in the American league by thumping the Philadelphia Athletics, 10-2, with a 17-hit attack. The A's dropped to third. The Cleveland Indians kept up their leading pace, however, by again blanking the St. Louis Browns, 3-0. Although he gave up nine hits, winner Sam Zoldak was stingy in the pinches. The win was Cleveland's seventh straight and third shutout in a row. The New York Yankees defeated Washington 4-1 in a fiveinning game stopped by rain. Vic Raschi gaining his 16th win of the season. Three walks, two passed balls and an error gave the Yanks three runs in the second inning. Pittsburgh held fourth place in the National league by beating Chicago, 7-4. Bob Chesnes hurled win No. 9 for the Buccos.

At St. Louis the Cardinals downed Cincinnati, 4-3, to stay 11/4 games behind the Dodgers.

Billy Sewell, above, once an All-Coast halfback for Washington State college, has been elevated to the post of backfield coach on the Cougar varsity for 1948, after serving last season as Freshman boss.
