Miss Sproed Now Mrs. Scott

Bride of August 15 was Miss Imogene Sproed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sproed, who exchanged wedding vows with Wallace Gene Scott, son of Mrs. Dick Colvin of Spokane, Wash., at a ceremony in the Seventh Day Adventist church at 8 o'clock.

Elder A. J. Gordon performed the ceremony, and organist was Don Worden, with Mrs. E. J. Kortzeborne as soloist.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with long sleeves, and a yoke of marquisette. Her veil of tulle, was edged with lace and caught by a tiara of bouvardia. Her honor maid was Miss Patricia Sproed, her sister, who wore a pale green taffeta gown and a halo or orchid asters.

Miss Arleta Teal and Miss Gladys were bridesmaids, wearing identical gowns of orchid taffeta, with halos of white asters. Dale Marsh was best man, and Louis Baker and Norman McDonald were ushers. They all carried hearts of white asters.

The ceremony took place before a large flower heart of asters, and the aisles were closed with white satin ribbon by the Misses Doris Larsen, Mary Alice and Vera Lou Wolcott and Opal Versteeg.

Mrs. Sproed chose a gown of aqua crepe for her daughter's nuptials, and wore a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony, at the Woman's club house. Assisting were Mrs. Pete Sproed, Mrs. Tom Bowden and Mrs. M. T. Madsen.

The bride wore a suit of forest green with cocoa brown accessories and an orchid corsage, for her wedding trip to Oregon beaches. The couple will live at Walla Walla, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rowe (Nancy Stricklin) are guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Bennison at their Portland home this weekend.

A housewarming was given at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Church last Saturday by the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bachman, Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Taylor, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradly Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Don Thompson, Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Reinholdt, Mr. and Mrs. Morse Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Slaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hamberger, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Lebold, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Yeater, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. James Clark.

A guest of Miss Loretta Ford for several days this week at her Royal Court apartment were Mr. and Mrs. Hal F. Wiggins of San Francisco, former Salem residents. They have been touring in Washington and Oregon. Mr. Wiggins is now legal counselor for the state of California with headquarters in the bay city.

Salem Man Married

The wedding of Miss Alma Catherine Hockstrasser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hockstrasser of Boise, and Robert L. Lamkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mignon O. Lamkin of Salem, took place on August 7 at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Boise. Bishop Keith Ricks performed the 2:30 o'clock nuptials. Miss Lerrice Brunsman sang and Miss Iris Schlerf played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore her sister's wedding gown of white silk net with lace yoke and a three-quarter-length veil held in place with a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and white gladioluses.

Mrs. Raymond Walters was her sister's honor matron and her gown was of blue net and lace. Her bouquet was of pink and yellow roses and white gladioluses. Fred E. Gorin of Bakersfield, Calif. was best man and ushers were Bill Hockstrasser and David Oliver of Corvallis.

Mrs. Hockstrasser wore a pastel blue gown with navy accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Lamkin's gown was of navy blue with white accessories. Their corsages were of white roses.

A reception was held in the church parlors after the ceremony. The newlyweds spent their honeymoon along the Oregon coast and Crater lake. They are now at home in Salem at 1855 N. Winter street.

Couple to Live In Salem

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Mrs. Martha Kelly, daughter of Mrs. Monica Wesolowski, to Frank W. Schraeder of Lebanon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Schraeder of Raymond, Wash., formerly of Lebanon, which took place on July 31 at the home of Judge Harry Wyatt in Lebanon.

After a wedding trip down the southern coast of Oregon and to the lakes the couple returned to Salem and are now temporarily at home at 923 South High street.

Engagement Told at Party

Adding her name to the ever-growing list of brides-elect is Miss Yvonne Gardner, whose betrothal to Kenneth M. Robertson was revealed Friday night at a party for which Mrs. Charles K. Mills was hostess. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Gardner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gardner and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Robertson, all of Salem. Both graduated from Salem high school and Mr. Robertson is now attending Willamette university. During the war he served in the navy. Miss Gardner is employed at Miller Mercantile Co.

Guests learned the betrothal news when they were passed miniature wedding cakes topped with scrolls bearing the names of the engaged duo.

Beverly Young's Birthday Party

Beverly Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gleason Young, was honored on her sixth birthday on Thursday when her mother entertained at a party at their home. Assisting the hostess at the refreshment hour were Mrs. E. N. Graves and Mrs. Donald F. Blake. Games were in play with the Misses Ellaree Morton, Dottie Caspell and Margaret Ellis assisting.

Honoring Beverly were Leona, Marilyn and Larry Arthur, Carla and Pauline Bradrick, Janice Caspell, Kenny Graves, Susan and Anne Guthrie, Colleen and Pauline Loucks, Bobby and Billy Weik.
