Hobby Horse Races Run at Playgrounds

The Englewood-originated hobby-horse day was staged on Salem city-school playgrounds Fri-day afternoon, with entries made by the youngsters entered in both races and decoration competition. The program was started several years ago at Englewood playground by Mrs. Caroline Black, who is still supervisor there. Children at that school made 125 hobby horses this year, of which 56 were entered Friday. Other grounds averaged about 40 entries each. First, second and third place
