

After September new home for the Raymond Bonesteel family will be Corvallis, where he has opened the Ray Bonesteel Motors. Pictured with Mrs. Bonesteel is their young son, Ray, and teen age daughter, Barbara. (Kennell-Ellis).

Au revoirs are being said to Mrs. E. T. Barnett and children, Jimmy, Tommy and Terry, who are leaving soon for Phoenix, Arizona to make their new home, where Mr. Barnett is in the manufacturing business. Mr. Barnett has been in the south since spring and arrived this last week to accompany his family to Arizona. (Kennell-Ellis).

Mrs. Parker Gies pictured with her two children, Michael and Martha, who plan to leave early in September for Madras to make their home. Mr. Gies is already in Madras, where he has purchased the Madras Hardware store. (Kennell-Ellis).

Social Slate Filled With Many Parties . . .

The social calendar is highlighted these days with informal teas for visitors and those moving away, showers for brides-elect and parties for newcomers.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Wolcott E. Buren will entertain informally at tea at her North Summer street home for the pleasure of Mrs. Raymond Bonesteel, who is leaving the end of the month for Corvallis to live. A few of Mrs. Bonesteel's friends have been asked to come in for tea and say au revoir to her at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles A. Sprague will be a tea hostess Tuesday afternoon when she entertains at her North 14th street residence in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wallace Sprague, who with Mr. Sprague, is here from East Orange, New Jersey for several weeks. A group of young matrons have been invited to call between 3 and 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Mills Honor Guest

Mrs. Kenneth Hanson has invited guests to a 7:30 o'clock dessert supper Tuesday night at the Fawk street home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Mills, to meet her new sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles K. Mills, the former Frances Tyer. Bridge will be in play during the evening. The hostess will use bouquets of late summer flowers in decorating. Mrs. Roy Mills will assist her daughter informally.

Bidden to honor Mrs. Mills are Mrs. Andrew H. Burnett of Santa Barbara, Calif., Miss Margaret Purvine of Oakland, Calif., Miss Julia Johnson of Chicago, Mrs. Wallace Sprague of East Orange, N. J., Mrs. Norman Nelson of Lexington, Mrs. Manfred Olson of Medford and Mrs. Elliott A. Price of Camas, Wash., who are all visiting in the capital. Mrs. Edgar A. Linden, jr., Mrs. Wheeler R. English, Mrs. John Copenhaver, Mrs. Harrison W. Elgin, jr., Mrs. Wayne Doughton, Mrs. Richard Chambers, Mrs. Harold Shogren, Mrs. Oscar White, Mrs. Ralph Nohlgren, Mrs. William H. Trindle, jr., Mrs. Alan Siewert, Mrs. Douglas Chambers, Miss Eleanor Trindle and Miss Yvonne Gardner.

To Honor Miss Pierce

Miss Barbara Pierce, who has announced her wedding date as September 24 when she becomes the bride of Peter H. Geiser, will be the honor guest at a pre-nuptial shower Thursday night when Mrs. Walter Kirk and Mrs. F. W. Poorman entertain at the Kirk home on South High street. Guests have been bidden to a 7 o'clock buffet supper with an informal evening following. A crystal shower will fete the bride-to-be.

Invited to honor Miss Pierce are her mother, Mrs. Edgar T. Pierce, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. H. G. Maison, Mrs. Kenneth Bell, Mrs. Ronald E. Jones, Mrs. Brazier Small, Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, Mrs. John Beakey, Mrs. Velma Farmer, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. Walter Grimm, Mrs. William Shinn, Mrs. Kelton Lowery, Mrs. R. L. Edwards, Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. J. H. Garnjobst and Mrs. Frank Spears, jr., of Portland.

Soon to move to Los Angeles are Mrs. Harry S. Schenk and children, Sally and Steven. Mr. Schenk, who is already in the south, has accepted the position of general manager and executive vice-president of the California Manufacturers association. He will join his family here the first of September to accompany them south. (Kennell-Ellis).

Wedding Plans Revealed . . .

By Jerry English
Statesman Society Editor

Early fall brides-elect are completing plans for their weddings and announcing members of their bridal parties.

Miss Laura Jean Bates and William D. Carlson will be married on September 3 at the First Presbyterian church at an 8 o'clock ceremony with Dr. Chester W. Hamblin officiating. Lighting the tapers will be Mrs. Harold Hohnstein and Miss Irene Kozeluh.

The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Bates, has asked her sister, Miss Barbara Bates, to be her honor maid and Miss Letha Peterson of Eugene her bridesmaid.

Mr. Carlson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Carlson of Kelo, and his brother, Don, will be his best man. Ushers will include another brother, Ben, Dale Bates, brother of the bride, Howard Blanding and John Byhre of Portland. A reception will be held in the church parlors.

Bridal Party Selected

To be married on September 4 will be Miss Shirley Kenagy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Kenagy, and James O. Hess, son of Dr. and Mrs. Weaver W. Hess of Clackamas, formerly of Salem. The rites will take place at the Calvary Baptist church at 8 o'clock with Dr. Hess, assisted by Dr. Charles Durden, officiating. Willard Friesen will sing and Mrs. D. B. Kleihege will be the organist.

Lighting the tapers will be Misses Joyce Reeves and Mary Lou McKay. Miss Jerry Trapman of Portland will be her cousin's maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Mrs. Herbert Hunt and Miss Alice Adams. Douglas Beaver of Albany will be ring bearer and Nancy Kenagy will be her sister's flower girl.

Paul Harris of Billings, Montana will be best man and groomsmen will be Kenneth Kenagy and John Janzen. Ushers include Dr. Wesley Young, Nampa, Idaho, Wallace Slonaker, Palouse, Wash., and Ray Westerberg, Portland. A reception will follow at the church.

Bower-Pickett Plans Told

Plans for the wedding of Miss Peggy Lee Pickett of Portland and Donald L. Bower of Salem have been completed. The couple will be married on September 12 at the Moreland Presbyterian church in Portland with Dr. Walters officiating at 4 o'clock.

Miss Helen Rowe of Chicago will be her cousin's maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Mrs. Don Dean, jr., Miss Janet Bower of Salem, sister of the benedict-elect and Miss Margaret Proppe.

Rollin Haag will stand with Mr. Bower as best man and ushers include Edwin Bishop, Richard Gahlerd and Lester Pearline of Salem, Dean Young, Portland, Jack Pickett, the bride's brother, and her cousin, John Rowe of Chicago. A reception will be held in the church parlors.

Miss Pickett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Pickett and her fiancé is the son of Mrs. A. Hugh Bower of Salem. The couple will live here following their marriage.

Convention Bound . . .

Four men will leave Wednesday by car for Oxford, Ohio to attend the 100th centennial convention of the founding of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. Dates for the convention are September 1 to 5. Eugene Schmidt is delegate from Oregon Gamma chapter, Travis Cross is alternate, and also going are Cole Stephens and John Griffith. Dr. G. Herbert Smith, president of Willamette university and national president of Beta Theta Pi will address the banquet.

Among those motoring north this week to Seattle to attend the national Sigma Chi convention at the Olympic hotel will be Mr. and Mrs. William Stortz and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ratcliff. They will go on to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., before returning home.

Leaving for Portland to make their new home will be the Walter Erickson family. In the garden of their North 21st street home are Mrs. Erickson and children, left to right, Gerald, Craig, Julie and Donny. Mr. Erickson, who has been director of admissions at Willamette university, will be vice-principal at Cleveland high school in Portland. (Kennell-Ellis).

To join Colonel Elmer V. Wootton in Washington, D. C., next month will be Mrs. Wootton. The army officer left this last week to take a special assignment under Major General Lewis B. Hershey, draft director. The Woottons plan to take an apartment during their stay in the nation's capital. (Kennell-Ellis).

Moving to Chico, Calif., the end of the month are Mrs. Herbert Rabe and children, Paul and Mary Joanne. Dr. Rabe has accepted the position of head of the speech arts department at Chico State college. He was head of the speech department at Willamette university for many years. The Rabes plan to return to Salem during the summers and are keeping their home here. (Kennell-Ellis).