Shakespeare Calls Large Crowds

ASHLAND, Aug. 20 — With half the season completed by the Oregon Shakespearean Festival association, officers report that over 3000 have already visited Ashland's Elizabethan theatre. Theatre-goers have come from all sections of the west coast and even larger attendance is anticipated as each play is staged twice before the festival ends on August 28.

Seated under the stars with the Siskiyou mountains as a backdrop, in Lithia park, audiences have been delighted with the professional ease in which the talented group of actors make the classic lines of Shakespeare come to life. Ashland residents have joined with the faculty of Southern Oregon college to insure that the nationally famous festival is a success, and a warm welcome is being extended by the entire town. Plays included in the 1948 program include the well known tragedy "Othello," the fanciful "Love's Labours Lost," "King John," first of the historical plays, and the perennial favorite, "The Merchant of Venice." The four will be presented in rotation each evening except Sunday until August 28. Miss Hollis Vick of Detroit, Mich. is spending a short vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Vick.
