

Miss Gerth Weds in South

The Stanford Memorial chapel on the campus of Stanford university in Palo Alto, Calif., was the scene of the wedding of two former Willamette university students, Miss Mary Phyllis Gerth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Patterson Gerth of South Palo Alto, and Wallace E. Baumer, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baumer of Portland, on August 22. The Rev. R. Marvin Stuart, pastor of the Alto, performed the 3 o'clock First Methodist church in Palo Alto. Mrs. Everett Breed was the organist.

Mr. Gerth gave his daughter in marriage. Her wedding gown was of white marquisette with panels of lace extending into a train. The bodice was fashioned with a sweetheart yoke. She wore her mother's Brussels lace veil and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and orchids. For "something old" she carried her grandmother's handkerchief and wore the gold locket belonging to her great aunt, Lady Locker Lampson of London.

Miss Barbara Boulton of Palo Alto was the maid of honor and wore orchid pink marquisette with ruffled neckline and wide ruffle at the hem of the full skirt. Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Glenn of Berkeley and Miss Virginia Wyche of Hillsborough, Calif., both Willamette Phi Beta Phi sorority sisters of the bride, and Miss Carolyn Dean of Stanford. They wore blue and yellow marquisette frocks made like the honor attendant's and carried bouquets of peach begonias. The maid of honor carried sweet peas. Sally Colnar and Michelle Mahoney were flower girls.

Arthur Allensworth was best man and ushers were Don Gerth, William Baumer, Lowell Miller and James Clark.

The bride's mother wore a pink crepe gown and Mrs. Baumer chose grey crepe. Their corsages were orchids.

The newlyweds are spending their honeymoon at Carmel, after which they will come north to make their home in Portland. The bride graduated from Willamette in June and is a Phi Beta Phi. Her husband is a senior at Willamette and his fraternity is Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

STAYTON — Honoring Miss Melba Harold with a surprise bridal shower, Misses Phyllis Worden, Marie Nye and Mrs. Charles Mielke were hostesses Friday night at the Joseph Spaniol home. Miss Harold became the bride of Tracy Hunter of Mill City at the Stayton Methodist church August 20. The evening was spent informally and the hostesses served refreshments to Mrs. Ralph Harold, Mrs. C. F. Hunter, Mrs. Darrel Hines, Jr., and Mrs. John Pope, and Misses Melba Harold, the guest of honor, Marilyn and Marlene Frichtl, Sharon Gehler, Marcelle Forrette, Kathleen Etzel, Shirley Simons, Nelda and Nina Harold, Myrtle Lang, Margaret Peppering and Mrs. Merrill Boyle.

Miss Shirley Hill, daughter of the Elmore E. Hills, had as her weekend house guest, her University of Washington roommate, Miss Lois Roblee, of Tacoma. On Sunday the Hills took their daughter and her guest to Neskonwin.

The social meeting of the Sons of Union Veterans and auxiliary will be held tonight at the C. E. Garrett home, 2490 Garden Road, due to the illness of Glen Adams. A no-host dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

To Leave For Europe on Thursday

Leaving Thursday for Switzerland, where they will study for the ensuing year, will be Roger Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wagner, and Forrest E. Simmons, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Simmons. The young men are driving east to Toledo, Ohio, and will then go on to Detroit to get a new car.

The travelers will motor through Canada en route to New York City, where they will sail on September 12 on the ship, Veendam. They will arrive in Rotterdam and from there will go to Zurich, Switzerland to study French and German at the Berlitz School of Languages. In the spring following their studies they plan to tour Europe before returning to the states.

Mr. Wagner graduated from Oregon State college in June and Mr. Simmons completes work for his degree at Oregon State this week.

Arnesons Are Home

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Arneson are being welcomed home from a five months trip to Norway and Denmark, where they visited members of his family. The Arnesons made the trip on the Polish ship, "Batory" and came across the states by train, arriving here on Sunday. Accompanying the Arnesons home for a year's visit was Miss Sylvia Kjelstad of Trondheim, Norway.

Royal Neighbors Sewing club will meet at the home of Mrs. Gladys Wiens, 1945 Oxford street, Wednesday, for a no-host luncheon at 12:30 o'clock. Mrs. Blanche Gaines will be the assisting hostess.

Miss Peggy Sears and Miss Marilyn Hill were in Portland this weekend to attend the weddings of two of their Gamma Phi Beta sorority sisters, Miss Janet Ormandy and Miss Marcia Ann Knapp.

Dinner Honors Engaged Duo

Miss Shirley Kenagy and her fiancé, James O. Hess, were honored at a family gathering on Sunday at the home of the bride-elect's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Heverly in Albany. A dinner was served in the garden with a miscellaneous shower honoring the couple. Attending from Salem were the bride-elect, Mr. Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Kenagy, Kenneth, Ronald and Nancy Kenagy.

Mrs. Wilson N. Siegmund and children, Jimmy and Martha, of Astoria, formerly of Salem, have arrived in the capital to spend the ensuing fortnight with her mother, Mrs. M. Wilson Savage, and with Mr. Siegmund's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Siegmund. Mr. Siegmund will join his family here the Labor Day weekend.

Dr. and Mrs. James Haworth and children, Jean and Ann, are home from a three weeks trip to California and Salt Lake City. Their daughters remained in Pacific Grove, Calif., with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Haworth, while Dr. and Mrs. Haworth went to Salt Lake City to attend the Rocky Mountain Radiological society meeting. Dr. and Mrs. Woodson Bennett of Portland were at the Haworth home during their absence.

Miss Jeannette Fulmer returned Saturday from a week's stay in San Francisco.

Rites Read At Chapel Sunday

The chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church was the setting for a double ring ceremony on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Kathleen M. Secord, daughter of Mrs. Ina Secord of Portland and D. E. Secord of Corvallis, became the bride of Robert L. Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Scott of Salem. The Rev. George H. Swift performed the nuptials and Miss Ruth Bedford was the organist.

The brunette bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a ballerina gown of ecru lace and silk crepe for her wedding. The bodice and peplum were of lace and the full skirt of crepe. She wore a matching feather hat and coffee suede shoes. She carried a white prayer book topped with green orchids.

Miss Addysse Lane was the bride's maid wearing an emerald green, moss green crepes dress with matching feather hat and carried a nosegay of ivory gladioluses and yellow roses. Joe F. Power stood with the groom as best man and ushers were Norman Stone and Meryl Smith.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Secord wore a brown crepe afternoon dress and corsage of yellow roses.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception at the Court street home of Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Wheatley. Pouring were Mrs. Alfred Lane and Mrs. Kenneth Summers. Mrs. Robert H. Huddle cut the bride's cake.

When the couple left on their honeymoon to the Oregon beaches the bride was wearing an emerald green silk crepe dressmaker suit. Mr. Scott and his bride will be at home in Salem at 1430 N. Liberty street while completing their senior year at Willamette university.

KEIZER, Mrs. Lee Wiens was honored with a shower Friday night, for which Mrs. Paul Gell was hostess at her home on Sunset Ave. Assisting were Mrs. Edgar Sawyer and Mrs. John Hancock. Group singing was enjoyed with Mrs. Porter McFarland at the piano. Mrs. Charles Ronk and Mrs. E. J. Clark sang a duet followed by games. Mrs. Harry Lawrence and Star Hancock were prize winners.

Others present to honor Mrs. Wiens were Mrs. Louis Cross, Mrs. Bernard Snook, Mrs. Merwin Hickman, Mrs. Henry Hamm, Mrs. George Daveys, Mrs. Clifford Welty, Mrs. Lester Evans, Mrs. Dale Mudget, Mrs. James Hurd, Mrs. Lauren Stettler, Mrs. Leonard Gilkey, Mrs. John Buchanan and June Welty.

Dinner for Bride-Elect

Mrs. Donald Reinke was a hostess Friday night at her East Lefelle street home in honor of Miss Nyla Phillips, August bride-elect. A buffet dinner was served with an informal evening following. A gift was presented to the bride-to-be. Covers were placed for Miss Phillips, Miss Edith Kyle, Miss Gladys Quesseth, Miss Audrey Christman, Miss Beth Odle and the hostess.

Helen Wilson Honor Guest

Miss Helen Wilson was honored with a surprise shower for her new Shetland dog Saturday night when her sister, Miss Lucille Wilson entertained at their home. Bridge was in play during the evening with a late supper following.

Honoring Miss Helen Wilson were Miss Marion Bowen, Miss Naomi Phelps, Miss Winifred Condon, Miss Jane Cravens, Miss Janice Collier, Miss Betty Byrd, Mrs. Elmer Scheelar, Mrs. A. B. Wilson and Miss Lucille Wilson.

Arriving in the capital Sunday for a short sojourn were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gilliland (Anne Huston) of San Jose, Calif., who are guests at the country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Muston. This is the couple's first visit home since their marriage over a year and a half ago.
