Capitols Play Second Clash

The Salem Capitols, losers by a 2-0 count to the Miller Lumbermen, Cascade league champs, at Eugene Wednesday night, return to Civic stadium action there tonight for the second game of the Oregon semipro tournament playoff series.

Manager Johnny Lewis of the locals has nominated Lefty Charley Sauvain for hill chores tonight, and has Bill Hanauska, Lou Scrivens and Pete Jonas for relief work if necessary. If the Caps come through with a win tonight, a third and final game will be played Sunday afternoon.

Manager Don Kirsch of the potent Lumbermen will call on Bud (Cocky) Brewer for tonight's tilt. Frankie Dierickx bested Jonas in Wednesday's mix, a tightly played thriller.

SILVERTONS WIN

SILVERTON - The Silverton VFW "C" team defeated Salem Sand and Gravel team Wednesday 4 to 3 on the local field. Salem 3-2-1; Silverton 4-5-1; Fry, Pulman and Meyers; Gustafson, Mohler and Montgomery.

Center Berth Well Fixed

The Upstate All-Stars needn't worry over their center position in Sat-urday night's Shrine grid classic with the Portlanders at Multnomah stadium in Portland. These three lads all played lots of pivot position last fall for respective teams and await action in the benefit gigantic Saturday. They are, left to right, Esten Hilfong of LaGrande, Bill Londes of Grants Pass and Norman Saylor of Albany.

Everyone hates to see Jack Wilson step out as skipper of the Solons, but then mebbe Jack had reached the point where he was fully cognizant of the fact that baseball pilots, as a rule, don't spend restful summers. To that poor breed-and especially in the WI loop-one tragedy piles on another. A dearth of pitchers, bad training weather, the plague of injuries-and, of course, umpiring that isn't anywhere close to major league quality. So Jack will leave the sport at the close of the season. The burly guy will be minus a lot of worries-but then he'll probably have to tie himself down next spring to keep from putting on those spikes again. . . .
