Miss Meyer A Bride

At an 8 o'clock ceremony Monday night at Jason Lee church Miss Madonna Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Meyer, became the bride of James Phillip Hall. The Rev. Gardner performed the rites and Edwin Lacey played the wedding music for the candlelight service.

Mr. Meyer gave his daughter in marriage and she wore a white satin gown made with a train, long sleeves and sweetheart neckline. A coronet of bouvardia held in place her fingertip length veil and she carried a bouquet of pink and white asters and sweet peas.

Miss Vivian Allison was the maid of honor and wore a white tulle gown and carried a bouquet of gardenias and sweet peas. Joseph Meyer was best man for Mr. Hall.

Mrs. Meyer attended her daughter's wedding in a grey suit with black accessories and a corsage of gladioluses.

A reception followed the rites at the Meyer home. Miss Ora Mae Kooke assisted informally.

The newlyweds are now at home at 2598 Brooks street and later in the fall will go south on their honeymoon. The bride attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. Her husband is with the Salem fire department.

Ostrin-Wimer Rites Read

At a quiet ceremony on August 20 Mrs. Effie Parks Wimer became the bride of Gustav A. Ostrin with the Rev. P. W. Erickson officiating at the 7 o'clock rites at the home of the bride on North 18th street in the presence of members of the two families.

A reception followed the nuptials at the home of the groom. After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Salem at 1535 State street.

Club Women To Meet in North Bend

Club women from all over the state will gather in North Bend next week for the biennial convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. Sessions open September 1 and will end September 3. Three hundred women are expected to attend and Mrs. William B. Chandler, Hillsboro, president of the Oregon Federation, will preside. Hostess group this year is the North Bend Junior Women's club with the North Bend Women's club and Coos Bay Civic club assisting.

Attending the convention from Salem will be four state chairmen, Mrs. George Rossman, fine arts chairman; Mrs. George Alling, literature chairman; Mrs. Charles A. Ratcliff, international relations; and Miss Eleanor Stephens, library service. Also going from here will be Mrs. Guy Hickok, president of the Salem Women's club, and two delegates, Mrs. Frank Marshall and Mrs. R. B. Leshner. Boy Born to Weldens

From Tokyo, Japan comes news of the birth of an eight pound, ten ounce son to Captain and Mrs. Robert D. Weldens (Maxine Rogers) on August 23. The baby's grandparents are Mrs. J. A. McKinney, formerly of Salem and presently living in Jerome, Idaho and Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Weiden of Lewistown, Montana. The little boy has an older sister, Deena Ann, who is nearly three. Captain Weldens is stationed at the Johnson air base at Tokyo and is a member of the regular army. He went to Japan two years ago and was joined by his family last September. They plan to return to the states next spring.

Members of the Subscription club committee will meet for a no-host supper on Saturday night at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jones to complete plans for the winter dance season.

A Golden Wedding

The garden of the E. T. Prescott home on Oak street was the scene of an informal gathering Sunday afternoon in honor of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Robins. Mrs. Robins is a sister of Mr. Prescott.

Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Arthur Meola, Miss Mildred Hagan and Aldridge West. The Rev. B. F. Shoemaker gave a short talk in honor of the honor guests.

The wedding cake centered the table which was decorated with bouquets of pink gladioluses. Mrs. Albert Cohen was in charge of the dining room assisted by Mrs. Roy Remington, Miss Elsie Lorraine Robins and Mrs. John P. Robins.

The two children of Mr. and Mrs. Robins, Miss Elsie Lorraine Robins of Salem and John Prescott Robins of Berkeley, were present, also their two grandsons, Richard and David Robins, who presented their grandmother with an orchid.

Flowers were sent by the Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church, Mr. and Mrs. Robins having been members of the church for the last twenty-five years.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil O'Neil are leaving tonight by car for a month's trip east. They will go by way of Glacier National park, the Black Hills and to Lake Michigan and Cadillac, Mich. to visit several days with her relatives. They plan to go into Canada, stopping in Montreal, before leaving for Claremont, New Hampshire to visit with Mr. O'Neil's relatives. Enroute home the travelers will stop in Boston and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Lester Carter and children, June and Grover, and her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Rittman, left Thursday to spend the remainder of the week at Rockaway.
