Gardening Today

to Stayton to see the colorful display there. The annual Stayton Garden clab petunia contest has just been completed and the brilliant parking planting of ruffled California Giants and First Lady petunia planted

by Mrs. Andrew

Fery won the sweepstake prize. Mrs. Fery also grew her own plants from seed and almost every seed planted Stayton Garden club.

this contest with its various divibecause of its brightness, was cho- ing. some petunias. Mrs. Amanodus both of Albany. Frank won first in the section of Garden Calendar petunia landscape under 400 feet and Mrs. Jerry Marking for that fair flower show, Canby. of landscape featuring petunias flower show, Salem fairgrounds. gives a lot of color and beauty to a

But many of the smaller plantings were also lovely, some with only petunias and some with mix- Salem. ed flowers; some with solid colors and some with a combination of club. 20 feet, in a single color of petun- er show, Scio.

If anyone wants to see what the ias, with Mrs. Martin Gahlen tak-simple little flower, petunia, can ing first in the border between 20 iol in that over 50 feet.

With her colorful combination of petunia shades, Mrs. Clarissa Lindermann took first place in the petunia border between 20 and 50 feet, Mrs. Jack Stagney in hers under 20 feet and Mrs. Dick Mc-

Mrs. Frank Sigmond planted petunias with other summer flowers in her small border under 20 feet to win the first prize in her division, with Mrs. Joe Fischer taking the prize in the next border division and Mrs. John Murphy in the larger.

sions. Several years ago petunia, old in commercial petunia plant-

Sept. 8-Independence Garden

Sept. 8-Mt. Angel Garden club. Sept. 9-Men's Garden club of Sept. 14-Woodburn Garden

colors. Mrs. R. L. Stewart took | Sept. 17-Stayton Garden club. first on her petunia border under | Sept. 25-26-Linn-Benton flowOct. 4-Salem Garden club.

V. G. asks if blueberries can be should not be soggy but should be a "foolish thing" by copying down grown here. Says she is from the Carolinas and has "been brought up" on blueberries. Has an acre of ground on which she wants to plant a few things including blueberries if they can stand our clibera will not supplest will not supplest will not supplest the adate.

Ans.: They stand the climate dition of the other material as its Ans.: Ami Quinard is deep crim-grown here. Says she is from the able to retain moisture. Add peat, the names of some roses she liked and a rich pink; Isobel, bronze; maximum is listed at 12 feet. It WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 - (AP) - growing and will stay at five or really successfully.

here very well. They must, nowever, have an acid soil. The soil should not be soggy but should be
should not be soggy but should be

Ans.: This Magnolia is very slow the only time this can be planted for the advance for the colored

Charge Accounts

Invited

Uses of petunias in other ways were also demonstrated in the Stayton contest with Mrs. Andrew grew and bloomed. Her prize was a camellia plant, presented by the ing sweepstakes in the parking planting, Mrs. Frank Stupka in the Each year the Stayton club has rockeries, Mrs. Ward Inglis in the porch boxes and Mrs. Raleigh Harsen'as the city's flower, and almost everyone living in Stayton grows and Mrs. William C. Mickelson

Sept. 1-4-Clackamas county over 400 feet. Four hundred feet | Sept. 6-12-Oregon state fair

SALLY'S * THE CAPITAL'S STYLE CENTER

CORNER COURT AND LIBERTY STREETS