Okholm, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Okholm of San Leandro, California, who came north for the rites. The Rev. Miss Janet Neilson of Aloha was the soloist and Mrs. John Schmidt, jr., the organist. Lighting the tapers were Miss Jo Ann Amorde of Portland and Miss Marilyn Neilson, who wore white frocks.

The bride's gown of white slipper satin was embellished with cascade ruffling of lace which extended from the waistline to hemline on the full skirt which terminated in a train. The fitted bodice, with long sleeves, was made with a drop shoulder nylon net yoke and enhanced with a wide lace bertha, which ended in a V in front. Her imported French illusion fingertip veil cascaded from a coronet of orange blossoms and net and she carried a Bible marked with a white orchid. Mr. Phillips gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Lila Phillips of Buckley, Wash., was her cousin's maid of honor and wore a white organza off-shoulder frock with full skirt. Bridesmaids were Miss Shirley Outerhout of Vancouver, B. C. and Mrs. Taze Barton, who also wore white off-shoulder dresses. For a touch of color the attendants carried cascade bouquets of orchid gladioluses and wore white net mitts and open crown white net hats edged in lace, which tied in back with white satin ribbon bows.

Huntley Okholm was best man for his brother and ushers were Robert Patterson of Reno and Bernard Tittland of Albany.

"Holly" Says

Sorry, folks, will not have time to write very much this week. State Fair starts Sept. 6th and the members of the posse are practicing every available minute, we want to make this "the biggest and best show in all history" (or did Leo Spitzbart say that this year). I talked it over, real confidentially, with my horse last evening because I didn't think he was doing as well as he might and he told me (very confidentially) that if he had a little more to eat he could do a better job. So I guess it's up to you folks after all, better come in and buy a little jewelry, or a wrist watch or some Silverware or some sterling belt buckle sets or have your watch repaired or something. If you just can't think of a thing to buy, so I in turn can buy a little hay, just leave your donation in the little bottle on the counter. Thanks.
