

Rites Read at St. Vincent's

STAYTON—St. Vincent de Paul's Catholic church in Salem was the scene of a wedding Saturday, August 21, at 9 o'clock, when Miss Madge Marie Samples, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Samples of Stayton, became the bride of Robert Herman Boedigheimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Boedigheimer of Salem. Rev. Father Rodokoski officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Gowned in traditional white satin with a fingertip veil held in place by a tiara, the bride carried a white prayer book which was topped by an orchid.

The bride's attendants were Miss Lorene Boedigheimer, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Doris Teeters, sister of the bride, who were dressed alike in floor-length pink gowns, with which they wore white hats and carried nosegays.

Attending the groom were Jean Frichtl and Fred C. Samples, brother of the bride. William Minten and Kenneth Boedigheimer ushered.

Mrs. Samples wore a green suit, with black accessories, and Mrs. Boedigheimer wore a green dress and black accessories. Both had corsages of orchids.

The wedding party and members of the two families were served a wedding dinner at the Golden Pheasant. A reception was held at the Mayflower hall in the afternoon, after which the couple left on a short wedding trip to coast points.

A graduate of Stayton high school with this year's class, the bride has been employed in Salem. The groom graduated from Sacred Heart high school in 1946. He is employed in Salem, where the couple will live.

Mrs. Leonard John Liest (Ruth Lorraine Davis) whose marriage was an event of August 14. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren D. Davis of Oswego. The couple will live in Salem as Dr. Liest is a member of the staff of the Oregon State hospital. (Jesten-Miller).

Returns From Camp

Miss Margaret Jane Emmons, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carl W. Emmons, returned Tuesday from Camp Tapawingo at Sequim, Washington, on the Olympic peninsula, where she has served as a counselor in charge of all cooking activities at the camp since June. Accompanying Miss Emmons home for a short stay were two other counselors, Miss Mary McCrea of Elsinore, Calif., and Miss Betty Dixon of Hollywood, Calif. Wednesday Mrs. Emmons and her daughter took their guests to Silver Creek Falls lodge for luncheon. The visitors left for the south on Thursday.

Demos to Spend Money in Oregon

PORTLAND, Aug. 28 (AP)—Oregon's democrats, gunning for better results than usual in this republican state, said Friday they would spend all their campaign collections within the state.

In previous years, the money collected here has been sent to national headquarters, and some of it returned. But Nicholas Granet chairman of the Multnomah county central committee, said the national chairman had agreed to let all the funds be spent on the state campaign this year.
