YOU CHECK YOUR HAT FOR PROTECTION...

Why not your Health?

● Hats and Health... The comparison may seem a bit far-fetched. But let's see. You check your hat as a protective measure. Why not check up on your health for the same reason? You can buy a new hat for a few dollars. But who would care to put a price-tag on his health? You aren't really ill... just a bit under par, perhaps. And that's the very time you should see a Doctor—before he has to see you! Better make an appointment right away. He will be glad to help you get back on the highway to Health! A little foresight may save you the price of a dozen hats! And remember, bring your Doctor's prescriptions here for careful, conscientious compounding by our experts.

Jaunting About Johnson's

With JOAN HOERETH Fashion Board Member

Like many of you I'm college bound this fall, and am in the process of collecting a fall wardrobe. Had lots of skirts and sweaters left-over from high-school days, so my main problem is getting appropriate casual and date clothes.

Since corduroy is so popular this year, I'm interested in getting a corduroy suit for social life, with a straight skirt to wear with sweaters and blouses to class. I liked the new purple "Joan Miller" suit with a fitted jacket and slash pockets made in fine pin corduroy.

My favorite blouse is a short-sleeved Peter Pan. They're excellent under sweaters or suits—and pretty just worn with a skirt. They come in rayon crepe or diagonal shark-skins for only $3.98. Johnson's have all types of blouses in three-quarter or long sleeves, too.

For "Firesides" or football games tailored woools are a sure bet. I thought "Joan Miller's" grey flannel wool dress was especially cute. It has white plique collar and cuffs with a red plaid tie, and matching buttons down the back. The skirt features new knife pleats on each side—reasonable, too... 14.98

For evenings "in"—flannel nighties are cute and comfortable. They are coming in knee and ankle length—plain or figured—short or long sleeved.

For evenings "out"—Johnson's have a darling full-length formal coat (rainproof) with a detachable hood. The bodice has flattering princess lines and a full gathered skirt that floats to the floor. It's made in changeable taffeta—dark red, forest green, and purple.

Johnson's Campus Fashion booklet is in the mail—if you missed getting yours be sure and drop by the store and let me give you one... really they're worth having and will be a helpful guide for you in buying your school wardrobe. JOAN
