Flames Climax Unruly Career Of Leduc Well

EDMONTON, Alberta, Sept. 6-(CP)-Fire swept the Atlantic No. 3 well in the Leduc oil fields tonight, climaxing the unruly career of a well that has been a problem to its owners since it blew wild six months ago.

Billows of smoke darkened Edmonton's southern sky tonight and the glow of flames was visible from the city's southern outskirts as fire equipment raced to Leduc, 20 miles south.

This development occurred after President Boleslaw Bierut gave the communist workers party an eight-point program for purging its ranks of those who deviate from the Moscow line of international communism.

Gomulka, replaced by Bierut Sunday as secretary-general of the party, was present at the meeting of district party chiefs and organizers. Bierut presented his program at the party council of war to close the wide split over national and international brands of communism which imperil the party's grip on Poland.
