Youngsters Paint for Fair

Oregon's annual state fairs often bring new ideas to Salem and Ralph A. DeMott's two children shown above are cashing in on theirs. Wayne, 13, left, and Carol, 12, right, are getting the fair mood on Salem store windows with paintings of bucking broncs and steers to publicize the fair. The two children got the idea while on a vacation trip to the Midwest with their parents, and after returning to their home at 2445 E. Nob Hill st. set about to sell local merchants on the plan. New Business Opens in 4 Corners

FOUR CORNERS — New home of the Four Corners Barber shop and Beauty shop is at 3900 State st. in the Leo N. Childs building, formerly occupied by the Variety store.

Waldo Miller, who has been in the barber business since 1935 in the LaBranch property across the street, with the exception of a period of time when he was in war work, has leased the building where he opened for business September 1 in new location.

Childs has remodeled and redecorated the building to suit the needs of the business. The barber shop occupies the front. The building has been divided making a 18x40 foot room in rear to be occupied by the Beauty shop, entrance on State st. Both departments are in heather rose and tan, have fluorescent lighting and central heating.

Miller made and installed all the cabinet work and paneling. The barber shop is paneled in birch and mahogany veneer, the beauty shop in natural African prima vera veneer lacquered.

Mrs. Elsie Simpson, Durbin ave., will be in charge of the beauty shop and has had 10 years experience in this work.
