Counties, Farmers, Youths Vie as Oregon State Fair Opens

Salem Talent

judging of the wide variety of en-divisions of oils professional mod-one entry each from Turner in tinted photographs and from Stayton in any medium amateur mod-

The first prize winners were:

marine. Albert Patecky. Portland: flowers, Frances Kirk Smalley. Port-land: still life. Sister Mary Rosena, Portland; any subject, Robert Voigt, Oils amateur modern - Portrait,

Oils amateur modern — Portrait, Donald McAllister, Salem; sny subject, Elaine Eberly Tompkins, Vancouver, Wash.

Oils amateur conservative — Portrait, R. L. Weber, Salem; landscape, Mrs. Mary Meyer, Portland; marine, Reginald B. Strainge, Portland; flowers, Mrs. Dolly Steinberg, Bend; still life, Al Dawson, Portland; any subject, Francis Magleby, Portland.

Francis Magleby, Portland. Watercolors amateur modern—Landscape, Charles Hayden, Portland; ma-rine, Mrs. Frances Herman, Eugene; still life, Bernice Johnson, Portland; any subject, Jack Fruitt, Portland.

watercolors amateur conservative—Portrait, Beula M. Lee, Portland; land-scape, E. D. McNaughton, Portland; flowers, Mrs. Erma Uebel, Corvallis; still life. Margo Van Weiss, Portland; any subject, Mrs. J. E. Irons, Corvallis.

Any medium (except oil and water-color) amateur modern — Portrait, John H. Rock, Stayton; landscape, Robert S. Casteel, Portland: flowers, Mrs. H. S. Cofman, Portland; still life, Pru-dence Galluzzo, Portland; any subject, garet Hempy, Eugene.

Crafts — Inlay woodwork, Vladie
Dvorak, Portland: woodwork, Wayne
Sturgess, Salem: wood carving, Jack Fruitt, Portland.

Models — Train, H. O. scale, Arnold Mankey, Salem; train O. scale, Erving

ange, Willamina; airplane, free flight, Earl Clayton, Salem; airplane, control line, Tom Pomeroy, Salem; bird house, Betty Cline, Independence; boat, sail, old and modern, Smithson Jackson, Photography (division A black and white) — Landscape and marine, Lou-ise Phillips, Portland, architectural studies, Gwladys Bowen, Portland; me-chanical studies, H. J. Kjorlie, Port-land; portraits of people, Evelyn Jorvegetables point up Marion county's wide agricultural background. grapher.)

Mallow, Corvallis.

Products and progress of Marion, Polk and Linn counties are shown | Polk county, middle, has its famous prunes and hops laid out in zecin their exhibits at the state fair in the agriculture building. New metrical designs of contrasting colors. A huge magnifying glass concenter aisle booths have displaced the booths along the walls of the main auditorium as in former years. Marion county, at left above, tentions. A miniature freight train carries different products of Linn is represented by a scale model of Silver Creek falls. Fruits and county behind the glass. (Photos by Don Dill, Statesman staff photo-

Lincoln Wheeler, manager of manufacturers and land products division of Pacific International Livestock show, was caught by the photographer showing state fairgoers the new Oregon Seed league display. This same display, first of its kind here, will be taken to the PI and after that to Chicago. Varieties of Oregon forage crops are shown. (Farm photo for The Statesman).

Taking top honors as a standard bred stallion Monday at the fair was Sir Laurel Guy, shown with his owner, U. S. Sen. Wayne L. Morse of Eugene. Senator Morse handled Sir Laurel Guy during preliminary and final judging. (Photo by Don Dili, Statesman staff pho-

New paint and flying flags give the agriculture building and midway at the Oregon state fair a festive look, and fun-finding crowds kept the hot dog stands and souvenir stands busy during the opening day of Oregon's hig display week. The midway is here shown from the roof of the grandstand looking east towards the agriculture imple-ments exhibits. (Photo by Don Dill, Statesman staff photographer.)

Southdowns Win Ribbons For Steusloff

In sheep competition at the state fair Monday, the awards were piled high for Claude Steusloff, Salem, whose entries won all first and champions in Southdowns. For the Romneys, Ahrens Brothers of Turner won both champions and split the entire list of firsts and seconds with McCaleb Brothers of Monmouth.

The winners were as follows: Southdowns (all second places) — Ram 1 —yr. under 2, Harms Bros., Canby; ram lamb, Karl B. Wipper & Son, Turner; pen, 3 ram lambs bred by exhibitor, Harms Bros.; ewe 1 yr.
under 2, Steusloff; pen, 3 yearling ewes bred by exhibitor, Wipper & Son; ewe lamb, Steusloff; pen, 3 ewe lambs, Wipper & Son; flock, Wipper & Son; breeder's young flock, bred by exhibitor, Wipper & Son; get of stre, Harms Bros.; produce of ewe, Harms Bros.

Romneys — Ram 1 yr. under 2, Ahrens Bros., Turner, 1st, McCaleb Bros., Monmouth, 2nd; ram lamb, Ahrens Bros., 1st and 2nd; pen, 3 ram tambs bred by exhibitor. Ahrens Bros., 1st, McCaleb Bros., 2nd; ewe 1 yr, under 2, Ahrens Bros., 1st and 2nd; pen, 3 year-Bros. 1st. McCaleb Bros. 2nd; ewe lamb, McCaleb Bros. 1st and 2nd; pen, 3 ewe lambs bred by exhibitor, McCaleb Bros. 2nd; ewe lamb, McCaleb Bros. 1st, Ahrens Bros. 2nd; flock, Ahrens Bros. 1st, McCaleb Bros. In Blue Ribbon flock, Ahrens Bros, 1st, McCaleb Bros.

2nd; breeder's young flock bred by exhibitor, McCaleb Bros. 1st, Ahrens Bros. 2nd; get of sire, Ahrens Bros.
1st, McCaleb Bros. 2nd; produce of ewe, Ahrens Bros. 1st, McCaleb Bros.
2nd

An even dozen Salem residents Two Albany Men judging of the wide variety of entries in the art department at the Awarded Turkey, There were local winners in the Water Fowl Titles ern, oils amateur modern, oils, amateur conservative, drawings, men, Gene Nygren and A. F. sculpture and pottery, crafts and Beardsley, were judged chammodels. Firsts were also taken by The grand champion bird of the contests at the state fair Monday. Breeders Dine show is a white rock pullet en- while a Umatilla county unit was tered by Bob Wolfraim of Port- top team in clothing judging.

Results of the judging: Oils professional modern — Portrait, Albert Patecky, Portland; landscape, Eve Pyfer, Albany; marine, Dale Clea-ver, Salem; flowers, Gertrude Keeler, Portland; any subject, Jerry Stone, Grand champion bird in show, Bob Wolfraim, Portland; champion cock, Barred Rock cock, C. B. Wheeler, Goshen; champion Salem.
Oils professional conservative—Porcockerel, S.C.R.I. Red, Noble Wheeler , Noti: champion hen. trait, Alice Holland Hutchinson, Port-land; landscape, Clyde Leon Keller, Portland; marine, Clyde Leon Keller, White Rock, Brown's Hatchery, Portland; champion pullet, Bob Portland; flowers, Maude Sutherlin Hollister, Portland; still life, Maude Wolfraim, Portland; champion old pen, White Rock, Brown's Hatch-Sutherlin Hollister, Portland; any sub-ject, Alice Holland Hutchinson, Portery, Portland; champion young pen, Silver Laced Wyandotte, C. Watercolors professional modern — Landscape, Mildred Warner, Portland; marine, Albert Patecky, Portland; B. Wheeler, Goshen.

Champion turkey, B. B. Bronze young tom, Gene Nygren, Albany; champion bantam, Black Cochin cock, W. T. Gardner, Portland; champion water fowl, old goose, A. F. Beardsley, Albany.

Salem. Watercolors professional conservative — Portrait, Sister Mary Rosena, Portland; landscape, J. B. Edgar, Tolede; marine, J. B. Edgar, Toledo; still life, Edyth G. Ellsworth, Portland; any subject, J. B. Edgar, Toledo. Any medium (except oil and watercolor) professional conservative — Portrait, Edyth G. Ellsworth, Portland; landscape, Addison R. Loomis, Greshlandscape, Addison R. Loomis, Gresh-British, U.S. May End Rationing for landscape, Addison R. Loomis, Gresh-am; flowers, Irene Palmer Hendricks, Portland; any subject, C. S. Gordon. Occupation Zones

FRANKFURT, Germany, Sept. 6-(AP)-The American and British zonse may end the rationing of all consumer goods except food, an official said today.

The newspaper Frankfurter Neue Presse quoted Dr. Lugwig Erhard, Bizonal economic director, as saying he intended to end rationing, except for food, this winter. Erhard's statement, reflecting the improved economic situation in wsetern Germany since currency reform in June, was made at a meeting of the Bavarian chamber of commerce and industry at Munich.

dan, Salem; animals, Paul O. Green, Portland; flowers, Towner Phillips, Portland; genre, R. H. Rothrock, Port-land; still life, Alice Ballangrud, Port-land; any subject, Amo DeBernardis, Portland.

Hildred C. Mitchell, Canby.

Any medium (by grade and junior Division B tinted - landscape and high school student) - flowers, Marie marine, Louise Phillips, Portland; ar-chitectural studies, Alice Ballangrud, Portland; portraits of people, Alice Mallow, Corvallis.

Drawings — Charcoal, Albert Patecky, Pottland; pen and ink, Patricia Densmoore, Portland; pencil, Hugh Hayes, Salem.

Miscellaneous — lithographs, Francis Magleby, Portland.

Sculpture and pottery — Portrait sculpture, Dale Cleaver, Salem; figurine sculpture, Veda B. Hazelwood, Portland; animal sculpture, Patricia Ramseifer, Portland; pottery, Thei Wilson, Myrtle Creek; ceramics, Margaret Hempy, Eugene. Portland; portraits of people, Alice Ballangrud, Portland; animals, Louise Phillips, Portland; flowers, Louise Phillips, Portland; genre, Mariene Tracy, Turner; still life, Walter Beck, Portland; any subject, Mrs. A. W.

McMinnville Youth Takes Top FFA Showmanship Honors; Wildlife Display Popular

George Jacobs of McMinnville, who won first in Future Farmers of America Jersey showmanship, won the showmanship finals over Marvin Lorenzen, Dayton, also a Jersey showman, on the state fair opening day Monday.

Winner of first place in the Guernseys was Vernon Hulit of Hillsboro; Holsteins, Gerald Brog, Salem; Ayrshire, Williams Brothers, Salem and in other breeds, Milo; McCreight, McMinnville. The FFA been to the state fair before.

Win in Judging

Clatsop county team composed honors, and Barbara Larson of the

The 4-H club dormitory on the prepared and served in the "glass

Oregon Polled Hereford breed-

Fred Vanderhoof of Woodlake,

They reported that the Polled

Hereford association of California

Ralph Aimley, a Woodfake, ers held their first annual fall

for third place.

Cooley.

Beginners led off Monday with showing at the fair is large this year, topping most former fair displays in this division.

have a chance to win a radio by naming the twin Holstein calves. Four-H clubbers are going to naming the twin Holstein calves, born on the Grimes Brothers farm, Harrisburg, just in time to be brought to the fair for a special display. A radio broadcast will start the naming contest at 9 a.m. Tuesday and it will continue through Friday.

Fair attractions are numerous this year including the wildlife display near the grandstand which is proving popular with both the young and the not so young youngsters. It is being recalled that the wildlife display was one of the big attractions in former years and had been missed recently.

Milk goats on exhibit number 175 with most of the exhibitors from the Portland vicinity.

Police offices were quiet on the fairgrounds throughout the day with only lost children and lost parents being reported. Games are said to be "quite clean" on the grounds, with only one closed during the opening day.

Beginning Tuesday, post; time for all races on Lone Oak track is 1:15 or 45 minutes later than the Labor day start.

for sixth place were Grant, Jack-Special attraction Tuesday, son and Crook county teams. Farm Organization day, will be Red Dunning and his "Come and Get It Gang," from KOIN in Portland. They will appear on the in a field of 17 county teams. stage in front of the horse show stadium at noon, followed by their regular 12:15 daily program.

In connection with the farm organization day, the annual banquet of the Oregon Purebred Miller had high individual scoring Breeders Livestock association will be held on the grounds at first place team was second for in-7:30. The livestock men are hop- dividual scoring honors. ing that all judging will be done by that time. Left to be judged Tuesday are the Holstein and Brown-Swiss in the dairy division and Costswolds, Lincolns, Che- tered. viots, Suffolks and Romneys in the sheep division.

Lane County 4-H Girls Take Two Contests

Girls from Lane county won first place in the 4-H canning 35 Hereford pions Monday at the state fair, judging and homemaking judging The Marion county team was third in canning judging. In the canning contest, twin banquet Monday night at the Gold sisters Roma Deane and Norma Arrow restaurant with Bob Sears, Jeane Otto of Eugene scored a Salem, state president, presiding. total of 1,285 points out of a pos- The dinner was attended by 35 sible 1,600 to take first. In a tie for breeders. second place were Union, Douglas, Washington and Jackson counties, Calif., and Dick Hibberd, Imbler, while Donna Weiderkehr and Ar- national directors, were speakers. lene Manson won third place for JoAnne Forstrom of Eugene and now had 500 members. Margaret Walker of Creswell took Reports were made on the sale 395 points out of a possible 500 to be held at the fairgrounds on to garner the top award in home- September 27 when 50 head of making judging for Lane county. females and three herd bulls will They were followed by Washing- be sold at auction. ton county, second, and Columbia county and Linn county, tied for Calif., breeder was also a guest. third. Representing Linn were Paul Townsend, Roy Newport, B. Carolyn Schmidt and Anna Forbes. O. Tom, Dick Ward and C. New-For Umatilla county, Violet Tucholke and Gwen Burton scored 1,390 points out of 1,600 to win the clothing judging. Second went to Multnomah county and third to Hood River county. In the Individual placing, Nancy Hagemann of Marion county tied for third place.

$10,000 STOCK OF FALL - YARDAGE GOODS -Prices from $1.77 per yard

Roving at the Fair

horse races Monday were sold out Statesman Sportswriter Jerry eight minutes after windows open- Stone has a blue ribbon winner ed. Horse show tickets went al- in the profesional oil paintings at most as fast, leaving little other the fair. His "Politician" won in than general admission a brief the "any subject" class. Stone also

"One sex predominates in Salem this week" is a quip which hit the press office early Monday morning-you guested it, the Fair Sex.

There are three livestock sales slated for the fairgrounds this week. These are the second annual Holstein Calf Selection sale Thursday, the 4-H and FFA fat stock sale for Friday and the Milking Shorthorn sale Saturday afternoon. The Milking Shorthorn opened Monday morning, but that Friday night at Mayflower hall.

Bill Adrian of Ladner, B. C. well-known in the Jersey cattle world, is about the grounds helpworld, is about the grounds helping Bellavista Farms with its show Hub Saalfeld the honors in the state fair's 4-H string.

club division, three girls from Haines in Baker county taking top Mrs. R. G. Lacey of Kingwood honors in livestock judging with Heights has her dolls-a small pora total of 2,335 points out of a postion of them—at the state fair this week as a wedding party. The acsible 2,700. None of them had ever week as a wedding party. The actors in the full dress affair were Peggy Maxwell, 18, of the win- costumed by Mrs. C. D. Frazer, alning team, will be a freshman in so of West Salem. art at University of Oregon this year and the other two, Anna Bell Music lovers have their choice Bosch and Diane Loennig are each of melody at the state fair-in fact 15 years old and sophomores at you can't get away from varying Powder Valley high school. Miss tunes, from the racetrack through Boesch was high point member the midway to the machinery exwith 815 out of a possible 900; Miss hibits. Some of the busiest men Loenning was tied with two others Monday were members of Eugene's municipal band, providing the of-Second honor was taken by the Morrow county team and third stand, place went to Linn county's team composed of Milton, Dale and Dean Only three injured persons re-Gilliam county team placed ported to the city first aid crew on the fair's first day. They infourth, Multnomah fifth and tied cluded Eugene M. Munger, 1640 Berry st., and Bob Besse, Dallas, who suffered third degree burns Jean Clark and Barbara Larson, Umatilla county, took top hon- on their feet while working with a dishwasher in one of the resors in 4-H cooking judging contest taurants. Besse also burned one hand. H. F. Cline was given a of Betty and Sally Stilwell was second, and Linn county team composed of Betty Jo Stover and Virginia Miller was third. Miss erfall Monday-but for only a Salem, 1 third. few minutes. A miniature Silver Creek falls, feature display of the Remington, 2 firsts, Portland; Bob fairgrounds was filled to capacity county exhibit at the state fair Long, Hebo, 2 firsts; Hazel Bart-Sunday night with 362 youthful agricultural pavilion, had only a lett, Brooks, I first. contestants and exhibitors regis- small amount of water pass over in the morning, before the pump Dollar dinners, which cost slight- broke down. Since it was a holi- of Salem, second; Brooks Garden ly more than the dollar allowed day, no repairs were obtainable club, third. when the competition was origin- before this morning, when it is ated are scheduled throughout expected to attract attention each day this week. These are again, house" at the rear of that portion While red-green lights usually of the agricultural building devo-ted to the club exhibits. Many tersections, the five-way signal at persons expressed surprise Mon- Fairgrounds road and North Capday when they discovered this itol street (in Hollywood district) building is still labeled "machine- just got in the way Monday during the jam of state fair traffic. They were turned off most of the day because of the heavy fairbound traffic, guided at several points by city and state police.

All box reserve seats for the For the third straight year, time after the tickets went on sale. has three other entries in the art exhibit.

> Pleased and hopeful at the minor quantity of complaints at the state fair Monday, police officers reported only one midway concession closed down as gambling This was a "marble board" de-

Fair officials had $100,000 in currency on hand when the gates breeders will hold their meeting wasn't enough to provide change for all who needed it. The "bank" ran out of $1 bills.

Heavy Winner

H. C. (Hub) Saalfeld, Marion county service officer, is one of the heavy winners in the amateur flower show at the state fair floral building. Saalfeld had a number of entries in various divisions.

Complete list of winners is: Professional: 1 and 2, and 3, Eola Acres florist, Salem; 1 and 3, ficial fair music at the grand- Jary's florist, Salem; 1 and 2, Breithapt's, Salem; growers, gladjoli: Weeks Glad Gardens, 6 firsts; Hub Saalfeld, 6 seconds; growers dahlias: C. M. Daniels, 3 firsts, 3 seconds. Portland; Portland Dahfia gardens, 3 firsts, 3 seconds.

Growers - - Floral baskets and decorations: Hub Saalfeld, Salem, 1 first, 1 second; C. M. Daniels, Portland, third; Portland Dahlia Gardens, one third.

Growers, best displays of fuchtetanus immunization shot after he sias and best displays of begonwas struck in the hand by a dart, ias: Mrs. Thalaison, Salem, 1; Al while operating a midway conces- Clark, Salem, 1; George Candeux, Salem, second; Margaret Shuck, Dundee, 1 second; Rex Pieffer, Sa-Marion county had a new wat- lem, 1 third; Mrs. E. C. Cazzell,

Amateurs, bouquets: Mrs. E. A. Garden clubs: Salem Garden club, 1 first; Little Garden club

CAPITOL LUMBER CO. N. Cherry Avenue

Through Blue Cross, your hospitals offer you and your family the best way to budget against the unpredictable cost of hospitalmedical-surgical care. Blue Cross provides the same benefits for family members as for subscriber ... allows free choice of physician ... gives you hospital care anywhere in the world.

NORTHWEST HOSPITAL SERVICE