

New Episcopal Pastor Adds to Dallas Services

DALLAS, Ore., Sept. 10—The Rev. Cyril Hanney, with his wife and five-month-old daughter Dwyne, has arrived in Dallas to begin his work as vicar of St. Thomas Protestant Episcopal church, with services each Sunday.

Archdeacon Perry H. Smith of Corvallis has been conducting services in the local church once each month.

The Rev. Mr. Hanney will also serve St. Hilda's Episcopal church in Monmouth.

Guest speakers at Dallas churches this Sunday will include the Rev. C. E. Hanson of Klamath Falls at First Baptist church, meeting at 224 Mill st. at 3:30 p.m.; the Rev. John Pike, missionary to Honduras, at 7:45 at Evangelical United Brethren; the Rev. Sam Neufeldt of Salem at Grace Mennonite church at 11 a.m.

At the Evangelical Mennonite Brethren church, the Rev. A. C. Wall will speak at 11 a.m. and Esther Penner, missionary to the Lepers on Formosa Island, at 7:30 p.m. Speakers at First Christian church will be Dr. Ross Griffith, president of Northwest Christian college, at 11 a.m. and Dale Sherwood, assistant pastor, at 8 p.m.

New Pastor

The Rev. Oscar N. Brown, who this month assumed the pastorate of Salem Friends church, has been pastor of the Rosedale Friends church south of Salem for seven years and is active in church and educational work.

Church Begins Fall Programs

Resumption of fall programs in the youth and Sunday school programs of First-Congregational church is planned for Sunday.

All pre-school children will attend church school classes on Saturdays from 10 to 11:30 a.m. to alleviate crowded conditions. School-age children and adults will attend at the regular 9:45 a.m. hour Sundays. Staff for the latter will include Olga Wikberg, Cora Talking, Mrs. Leslie Tontz, Robert Miller, Gertrude Scovel, Virginia Miller, Shirley Somderman, Martha Durham, George Durham, Jr., Lois Hamer and Dr. S. R. Huntington.

The Pilgrim Fellowship members will leave the church at 6 p.m. Sunday for the Dr. Howard Doak home, where they will elect new officers and plan for a trip September 20 to East Willamette association rally at Eugene. Alan Miller, local fellowship president, is acting president of the association group, while Mr. and Mrs. Trevor Hauske are sponsors for both the local fellowship and the association.

Recognition Slated At First Christian

A special service of recognition for students who are going away to college and for students entering professional Christian service will be a part of the regular morning service at First Christian church Sunday at the Rev. Dudley Strain returns to the pulpit after a summer vacation.

His sermon at the morning service will be "From Road's End" and the soloist will be Louise Brown, singing "The Lord Is My Shepherd." At the evening service the pastor's topic will be "On Making Fools of Ourselves." A baptismal ceremony will climax the evening service.

Extension Meeting Set at Hayesville

HAYESVILLE — A meeting to organize a Hayesville home extension unit will be held Wednesday, September 15, from 1:30 to 3 p.m. at the home of Ruth Morgan, 36 Claxter rd., with all women of the community invited.

Eleanor Trindle, Mission county home demonstration agent, will conduct the session. Election of officers is scheduled. Women are asked to bring medium-sized flowers for corsage-making.

Silverton Church Programs Varied For Coming Week

SILVERTON, Sept. 10 — Special fall Sunday school programs will feature church activities at Silverton during the coming week.

Immanuel Lutheran church will have Rally day in the Sunday school at 10 a.m. Sunday. The church council will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Elmer Peterson and the W.M.F. on Wednesday evening.

Sunday is childrens day at Trinity church, with promotion in all Sunday school classes. At noon will be a fellowship dinner for the congregation and friends, followed by a program. Ladies' Aid society will meet at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the church.

The First Christian church choir will make its first fall appearance Sunday morning, directed again by Mrs. Betty Hagen.

The Naomi society of Calvary Lutheran church will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the parsonage.

School Opening Set at Turner And Aumsville

TURNER, Sept. 10 — While high school students will register Monday, September 13, classes for high school and grades at Turner will not begin until the following Monday, September 20. This is the decision of the union high school district board.

Classes will be held in both Turner and Aumsville school buildings. Remodeling which is under way is delaying the opening, the board found at its meeting this week.

AUMSVILLE, Sept. 10 — The schools at Aumsville will open Monday, September 13. The high school section of union high school 5 and the grade school will be in their own buildings.

Superintendent Roy Hough announced that school buses will run almost the same as last year.

All high school students planning to attend here should register Monday.

Sidney school will open Monday with Mrs. Ethel Sohn, Independence, principal and upper grades, and Mrs. Miller, Clarence, primary.

Looney Butte school plans to open Monday with Mrs. Ethel Gulvin returning as teacher.

Group Inspects Camp Area

DALLAS, Ore., Sept. 10 — Herman Van Well, Polk county judge, and a delegation of citizens met at the Fred Elkins farm south of Monmouth Thursday to consider improvements in the Camp Adair and Luckiamute river area with U. S. Sen. Wayne Morse.

They viewed aerial maps of the area, then went to the river to study the proposition of straightening channels to secure better drainage.

They also went to the camp to view roads and some of the bridges. Polk county is asking federal funds to help restore the roads and bridges to the same condition as when the government took over. Senator Morse is aiding with the request.

Others in the group were Vern Osborn and Fred Elkins of Monmouth, John Dickenson and John Pfaff of Independence, Claude Hoisington of Dallas and W. E. Knower of Salem.

Phillips Hurt By Explosion

STAYTON — While blasting stumps on his farm in Coon Hollow, Al Phillips was painfully injured Wednesday afternoon when a box containing 30 or more caps exploded.

His son, Claude Phillips, working about 20 feet away from his father, turned around just in time to see him jump away as the caps exploded.

He was brought to the office of Dr. R. P. Andersen and rushed to Salem Memorial hospital in the first aid car of the Stayton fire department. Phillips sustained injuries along his entire left side, with gravel and grass imbedded. He was reported in "good condition" at the hospital Friday.
