Fifteen of the 25 dirt track auto racing pilots who will drive in the State Fair's Lone Oak track "big car" program Sunday afternoon, were named yes-terday by Jimmy Ryan, promoting the racing meet for the fair, And the list is headed by no Jess than Les Anderson of Port-land who had his "Offy" special in the big Indianapolis classic the past two trips. Anderson will drive his car here.

Others, from as far south as Los Angeles and as far north as Vancouver, B.C., are Chuck Christensen of Oakland, Cal.; Chuck Cedar of Seattle; Mac McClure of Portland; Bill Scott and Bill Perkins of Tacoma; Howie Osborne of Portland; Stocky Stockwell of Ellensburg; Brack Cramer of Dayton, Ore.; Bob (Bullett) Gregg of Camas, Wash.; Del Fanning of Seattle, the 1946 Northwest dirt track racing champ; Max Humm of Salem: Art Scoville of Los Angeles, Bob Brenton of Vancouver, B. C., and Lou Shane of Portland. Ten more operators will be here also. The Lone Oak strip will be specially treated all Saturday night so as to have it in top shape for the racing autos Sun-day. The meet will start at 1:30

Boston Margin Reduced to 21 Tribe Beats Tigers; Athletics Nab Pair

By the Associated Press Joe DiMaggio, one of the "old Yankees," stemmed the onward rush of the Boston, Red Sox Friday as he smashed a terrific 450foot home run into the center field bleachers at Fenway park in the 10th inning with the bases loaded to give the New York Yankees an 11-6 victory over the Bosox. DiMag's big blow, his second grand-slammer of the year and 34th circuit clout, broke a nine-game Red Sox winning streak and moved the Yanks within 21/2 games of the Amercan league leaders. DiMaggio also boosted his runs-batted-in total to 134, tops in both loops, Cleveland's Indians remained one game behind the Yanks by stopping the Detroit Tigers, 10-1, on the six-hit hurling of Gene Beardon. The win was Bearden's 14th of the season and he was aided by Joe Gordon's 25th homer. Philadelphia's Athletics, back in the winning groove, copped a pair from Washington, 9-7 and 3-0. The As took the first game on a 17-hit attack and repeated in the nightcap as Phil Marchildon spun a three-hitter.
