Sweeping up at Lone Oak: A ple of the larger surprises of hoss meet, besides the fact hat money wasn't as scarce as it was supposed to be, were the inbility of the highly-touted Coney horses to win and the failure of local boy Ray Stoddard to visit he winner's circle more than too lew times. Stoddard was the top jockey of the Lansdowne Park meeting in Vancouver just before he came home. His week at Lone ! Oak isn't so disappointing, howwhen one considers the

The concensus of ness end of the meet goes something like this: "They're nice to watch, but phooey on betting on those things." . . . Out- and-out professional touting wasn't nearly so flagrant as in the previous two years. The local gendarmes did a good job in keeping the hustlers at mild form. . . . .

Too late to classify: Brooklyn's Rex Barney flipped a no-no at the Giants the other night, a brilliant mound chore. We're not ridiculing the guy in any way, but he's the same chap who served up a world series pitch to Joe DiMaggio last October in Brooklyn, and Joe almost wiped out the upper left field deck at Ebbet's field Bill Bevens and Jim Johnson almost did a duet in the father department. ## Pilots Tough Foe for Bearcat Opener

The word that the Portland University Pilots "are stronger than last year," as issued by Coach Hal Moe, isn't good news to the Willamette Bearcats who open their football season next Saturday afternoon with the Pi-lots at Multnomah statium in Portland. The Pilots put a rough ending to the Beareat season last year by taking a 27 to 0 victory, their only win of the campaign. Willamette had conference for the title. Moe has ordered serious body contact drills for most of this week, according to reports from his squad at top shape for the WU's. Well-remembered Danny Christensen, the tow-headed triple-threater is back with the Portlands again, and it will be he who the Cats must check most

Meanwhile Headman Jerry Lillie yesterday began the final week of drills for the Cats, with a double morning-afternoon session at Sweetland. The Bearcat backs are still ahead of the linemen, according to Lillie, and welding the two units into a smooth-clicking team will occupy most of the week on the

Two pieces of good news have reached Lillie. First, Halfback Johnny Slanchik, the West Virginian who is one of the finest punters on the Coast, has noti fied Lillie he will be back soon. Slanchik has been working in West Virginia' during the summer, and although he has been 8 bothered by a lame back he likely will see some service this season. Also, the Bearcats have 6 added another game to their game schedule, at Bakersfield, Calif... with Santa Barbara college on December 4.

Stranger things have happened in the Waters park end of the 1948 Western International league derby this season but at least 1007 fans are today vondering when The town Senators top fielding team in the league and the same play record this semester, committed six errors ast night in their final series opener with the Victoria Athletic:, allowed four unearned runs and went down, 6-3

The bobbles, establishing what amounts to a single game record in itself for the locals, accounted for three-fourths of the enemy runs. But danged if the same outfit, after making the bobbles didn't come up with a beautifully executed triple play, the first in WIL history for the local yard

This highlight, as the season draws rapidly to a close, came in the eighth inning after a walk and one of the errors had perched two Victoria runners on base Babe Jensen's grounder to Joe Gedzius started it. Joe grabbed it tossen to Al Spaeter at second, who in turn wheeled on to Jimmy Wert at first. The Vie runner who had been on second-it was Lou Kubiak who had walked to begin with -came right on for the plate and Wert fired him out with a throw to Catcher Ralph Samhammer. Usually a triple play comes off a line drive, when baserunners are on the move and can't get back. But this one was a grounder, and Salem high's 1948 football team, it gave the gathering something
