

Miss Kumler Married Saturday

Bride of Saturday was Miss Martha Louise Kumler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Kumler, who wed John Raymond Batchelder, of Portland, in rites at 8 p. m. at the First Methodist church. The Rev. Marion L. Kumler, brother of the bride, performed the ceremony.

Jessica Kinsey was organist and Mrs. Ralph Kleen and Ray Fedje were soloists. Lighting tapers were Mrs. Merlin Estep and Miss Laura Linton. Best man was Leslie McIntosh and ushers were John Prideaux, Edwin Coomler, Leonard Uppinghouse, Russell Woodford.

Miss Kumler, given in marriage by her father, wore white brocade ed satin fashioned with long sleeves, nylon net yoke and train. Her veil is finger-tip length. She carried a bouquet of white gladioluses and pink bouvardia.

Maid of honor was Miss Violet Habershon, in orchid, and bridesmaids were Mrs. M. L. Kumler and Mrs. Lucille Wardle, in yellow and peach gowns. The bride's mother wore a rose crepe gown with a corsage of rosebuds.

The reception was held in the Carrier room of the church. Those assisting were Mrs. A. J. Graff, Tacoma, Mrs. J. C. Foster, Seattle, Miss Martha Kumler, Tacoma, Mrs. Jack Stanley, Mrs. Judson Foster, Mrs. Winston Taylor, Mrs. Steve Anderson, Miss Mildred Yetter, Miss Vera Hall, Seattle and Miss Beulah Livingston, Seattle.

The bride chose a brown suit with gold accessories for her wedding trip to the coast, after which the couple will be at home in Portland.

but... If women are so inferior to men in driving automobiles, how come you seldom see a notice of one being picked up by the police for traffic offenses. Is it because they conceal their lack of skill, because they are too smart to get caught, or can they talk their way out of a jam better than the men?

A world shaking thought... In order to make lighter mornings for the farmers who don't like daylight savings, and longer evenings for those who do--we have a proposition. We'll have standard times in the mornings, daylight saving after our lunch hour. This will take away one working hour in the daytime and give us one hour more to sleep when we set it back to standard. Simple as that, just change your clocks everytime it occurs to you and no-one can find fault with the system. Our plan would take a tuck in the middle of the day, add a little fullness to the night--the new look if you please.

Back from a long trip... We haven't been to San Francisco or New York this week, but we could tell you a lot about Kingwood Heights. Our dog left home (sowing his wild dogfennel no doubt) and rumor had it he was seen in Kingwood. For two days we drove those streets before and after work and on lunch hours. Everyone had seen him, children had played with him, mammas had fed him and we were only ten minutes behind him. Now he's home, though no wiser himself, he has a mistress who relayly knows her Kingwood.

Can we take it?... First it was Book-of-the-month, then Gift-of-the-month, Candy-of-the-month, Fruit-of-the-month, and now Bulb-of-the-month. We understand that the city government is considering "Traffic-ticket-of-the-month, as a good source of revenue, then we-all wouldn't be surprised every time we find a yellow slip on our car.

Off with the old... We hear an advertisement representing Funk and Waggon's dictionary as containing "all the latest words." We wonder if we shouldn't learn more of the old ones before worrying much about new ones.

Premature... When we saw some over ripe tomatoes splashed on the sidewalk Saturday, we wondered if some of the presidential candidates had already visited our city.

Hi Autumn... Though you only officially arrived last Tuesday. We saw you coming a long way back.

SILVERTON—Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Larson are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Beverly Jean, to Sheldon Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Johnson. No wedding date has been set.

Those of us who have fished and played along the Oregon coast will recognize and appreciate the atmospheric paintings of James H. Haughey.

A recognized artist in Montana, Mr. Haughey spent part of this summer along Oregon shores painting scenes that caught his interest. We can honestly say that his efforts were not in vain and we highly recommend his watercolors.

The artist has exhibited chiefly in the Midwest, is a graduate of Kansas University and studied under Leroy Greene, Albert Bloch, Karl Mattern and Raymond Eastwood.
