

Detroit Women Meet; Library Project Gains

DETROIT—The Women's Civic club met for the first time this season on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. S. T. Moore. Seventeen members were present. Guests were Mrs. Eli Baggs, Mrs. Alice Perkins, Mrs. Russell Hoyt, Mildred Gooch, Mrs. John Ray, Mrs. Eber Weis and Mrs. Lloyd Leach.

The club decided to join the Federation of Women's clubs.

There will be a food sale on October 22 and 23 for raising money. Mrs. Ruskin Smith was put in charge.

Reports from the library show about 250 books in the library now. Cards have been given to 30 different families during the three months the library has been operating. One hundred children's books will be ordered from the state library soon. Hours are 1 to 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon and 6:30 to 8:30 on Friday evening.

Mrs. Ruskin Smith invited the club to meet with her at the next meeting on Tuesday, October 5.

Refreshments were served. Assisting Mrs. Moore were Mrs. Paul Cline and Mrs. John Weisgerber.

Aurora Homes Change Owners

AURORA—Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Leabo have sold their home on Bobs avenue to Mr. and Mrs. H. Morritz and have bought a home in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eyerhart have also sold their home, across the street from the Leabos, to Mr. Everhart's father, H. N. Everhart, and are moving to Canby. The Eyerharts own the undertaking parlors in Aurora, Canby and Molalla.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Ziegler sold their home on Main street and have bought a home in Oregon City.

Mrs. Ethel Paulas bought the Cecil Armstrong place at the edge of town.

Potts Figuring for Chest Drive

Kenneth M. Potts, Salem insurance man and chairman of the general gifts division for the 1948 Salem Community Chest campaign, is pictured doing a little close figuring to meet his division's quota this year. Potts and his workers must raise $10,000—$241.50 more than in 1947. The Salem chest drive will take place October 5 to 15. (Jesten-Miller).

Club Formed By Students

AUBURN—The first school organization for Auburn is that of the fifth and sixth grades "Weekly Reader club".

Officers are: president, Janet Fowler; vice president, Frances Freeman; secretary, Frances Burris, and master of ceremonies, Boyd Freier. Meetings are held each Monday and members are called on for items they have read in the "Current Weekly." Aim of the club is to promote better reading habits and develop leadership.

A guest this week in the homes of former neighbors on Monroe, is Mrs. Alvie Harp, now of Fruitland, Idaho.
