Workers Exit As Hop, Bean Harvests End

hop harvest in the Willamette valley has released thousands of workers for late fruit picking and for eastern Oregon potatoes and other vegetables, the Oregon state employment service reported Saturday.

Prune shakers are still needed in Polk county orchards, it was announced Saturday by W. H. Baillie, manager of the Salem branch of the Oregon employ-Baillie also said that a few cannery workers are needed in the Salem area to replace workers who have returned to school and moved on to other areas.

Medford and Hood River regions still are short several hundred pear pickers, officials said, while the potato fields around Bend, Madras and Redmond will require additional workers by Ontario also reported a con-tinuing call for 200 more men in the onion, sugar beet and lettuce fields and packing houses. Apples and potatoes are coming along to help keep workers busy into December. The employment service said
